Muslim Veil In North America Issues And Debates:

The Muslim Veil in North America Sajida Sultana Alvi, Homa Hoodfar, Sheila McDonough, 2003-02-06 The issue of veiling has been remarkably under researched and over ideologized In recent years the adoption of the veil has come to symbolize a brave expression of choice women reaching out to tradition but hoping it will not jeopardize their place in the larger North American society It is with this in mind that the Canadian Council of Muslim Women CCMW invited scholars in the fields of anthropology history sociology and Islamic studies to carry out a systematic study of issues surrounding different practices of the hijab among Muslim communities This book is the result of that study Feminists and Queer Theorists Debate the Future of Critical Management Studies Alison Pullen, Nancy Harding, Mary Phillips, 2017-04-24 What is CMS and what is its future is a question that has beguiled and frustrated academics within and outside its community Using ideas from feminist and queer theory here authors aim to generate thinking on the future of CMS and ideas of how scholarly communities can engage in working lives differently Muslim Women in Contemporary North America Meena Sharify-Funk, 2022-12-06 Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is a provocative study of how strongly held and divergent opinions values and beliefs as well as misconceptions overgeneralizations and political agendas pertaining to Muslim women in the region enter the public frame of reference Interrogating contested topics in a series of case studies from both Canada and the United States this book probes below the surface in pursuit of deeper understanding and more productive dialogue Chapters analyze controversies over clash literature dissident reformists female religious leadership veils and the nature of emancipation in a compelling examination of the ways in which Muslim American and Canadian identities and values are being defined differentiated and projected By pinpointing both sources of dissonance and unexpected patterns of resonance among complex composite and at times overlapping identity constellations this book uncovers the impact of controversies on broader cultural negotiations in the United States and Canada Transforming controversy and cliché into genuine conversation Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is an invaluable resource for scholars and students in the fields of Islamic and Muslim Studies Gender Studies International Relations Political Science and Sociology Producing Islams(s) in Canada Amélie Barras, Jennifer A. Selby, Melanie Adrian, 2022-01-10 During the last twenty years public interest in Islam and how Muslims express their religious identity in Western societies has grown exponentially In parallel the study of Islam in the Canadian academy has grown in a number of fields since the 1970s reflecting a diverse range of scholarship positionalities and politics Yet academic research on Muslims in Canada has not been systematically assessed In Producing Islam s in Canada scholars from a wide range of disciplines come together to explore what is at stake regarding portrayals of Islam s and Muslims in academic scholarship Given the centrality of representations of Canadian Muslims in current public policy and public imaginaries which effects how all Canadians experience religious diversity this analysis of knowledge production comes at a crucial time The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media Diane Winston, 2012-09-06

Whether the issue is the rise of religiously inspired terrorism the importance of faith based NGOs in global relief and development or campaigning for evangelical voters in the U S religion proliferates in our newspapers and magazines on our radios and televisions on our computer screens and increasingly our mobile devices Americans who assumed society was becoming more and more secular have been surprised by religions rising visibility and central role in current events Yet this is hardly new the history of American journalism has deep religious roots and religion has long been part of the news mix Providing a wide ranging examination of how religion interacts with the news by applying the insights of history sociology and cultural studies to an analysis of media faith and the points at which they meet The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media is the go to volume for both secular and religious journalists and journalism educators scholars in media studies journalism studies religious studies and American studies Divided into five sections this handbook explores the historical relationship between religion and journalism in the USA how religion is covered in different media how different religions are reported on the main narratives of religion coverage and the religious press Publisher s website Veils, Nudity, and Tattoos Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2015-08-27 At first sight tattoos nudity and veils do not seem to have much in common except for the fact that all three have become more frequent more visible and more dominant in connection with aesthetic presentations of women over the past thirty years No longer restricted to biker and sailor culture tattoos have been sanctioned by the mainstream of liberal societies Nudity has become more visible than ever on European beaches or on the internet The increased use of the veil by women in Muslim and non Muslim countries has developed in parallel with the aforementioned phenomena and is just as striking Through the means of conceptual analysis Veils Nudity and Tattoos The New Feminine Aesthetics reveals that these three phenomena can be both private and public humiliating and empowering and backward and progressive This unorthodox approach is traced by the three s similar social and psychological patterns and by doing so Veils Nudity and Tattoos hopes to sketch the image of a woman who is not only sexually emancipated and confident but also more and more aware of her cultural heritage Understanding the Refugee Experience in the Canadian Context Bharati Sethi, Sepali Guruge, Richard Csiernik, 2021-01-26 This volume on the resilience commitment and survival of refugees brings together the latest research and insights from 32 authors across multiple disciplines united in their pursuit of social justice for the economic social and political rights of refugees The book adopts a reflexive and relational stance without compromising the rigour and quality of research to allow the reader to appreciate the shared and distinct immigration and re settlement experiences of refugees and their communities in all of their complexity This book will be a valuable resource to and a source of reflection for researchers educators students service providers and policymakers who are committed to envisioning Canada as a country where all newcomers feel rooted and safe Women, Islam and Education in Iran Goli M. Rezai-Rashti, Golnar Mehran, Shirin Abdmolaei, 2019-02-21 Drawing on the complexities and nuances in women s education in relation to the aftermath of the 1979 Iranian Revolution this edited collection examines implications of religious based policies on gender relations as well as the unanticipated outcomes of increasing participation of women in education. With a focus on the impact of the Islamic Republic's Islamicization endeavor on Iranian society specifically gender relations and education, this volume offers insight into the paradox of increasing educational opportunities despite discriminatory laws and restrictions that have been imposed on women. Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26. The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt's Islamist movement and how they talk about women's rights in Islamic terms. In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak's authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt, Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country's public sphere. Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women, including scholars, preachers, journalists, critics, actors, and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women's rights and the family, equality, and emancipation were at the center. Challenging Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam, Ellen McLarney shows how women used soft force, a women's jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic. McLarney draws on memoirs, political essays, sermons, newspaper articles, and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state. While they seem to reinforce women's traditional roles in a male-dominated society, these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine, putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity. Bold and insightful, Soft Force transforms our understanding of women's rights, women's liberation, and women's equality in Egypt's Islamic revival. Debating Sharia Anna Korteweg, Jennifer Selby, 2012-05-03. When the Islamic Institute of Civil Justice announced it would begin offering Sharia-based services in Ontario, a subsequent provincial government review gave qualified support for religious arbitration. However, the ensuing debate inflamed the passions of a wide range of Muslim and non-Muslim groups, garnering worldwide attention and leading to a ban on religiously based family law arbitration in the province. Debating Sharia sheds light on how Ontario's Sharia debate of 2003-2006 exemplified contemporary concerns regarding religiosity in the public sphere and the place of Islam in Western nation-states. Focusing on the legal ramifications of Sharia law in the context of rapidly changing Western liberal democracies, Debating Sharia approaches the issue from a variety of methodological perspectives, including policy and media analysis, fieldwork, feminist examinations of the portrayals of Muslim women, and theoretical examinations of religion, Sharia, and the law. This volume is an important read for those who grapple with ethnic and religious cultural diversity while remaining committed to religious freedom and women's equality. Muslims, Migration and Citizenship Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2018-02-02. Bringing together ten research-based contributions, Muslims, Migration and Citizenship addresses questions about the changing experiences of Muslim communities or specific groups within them in various national and localised environments. Although not an exhaustive survey of the broad range of scholarly research in this evolving field, this book covers issues that are likely to be of some importance in the coming period In particular the contributors highlight the complexity of the experiences of Muslim communities in different national and cultural environments and the evolution of both policy discourses and debates in civil society This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
