My Struggle for Freedom Hans Küng,2005-01-01 Hans Küng is undoubtedly one of the most important theologians of our time but he has always been a controversial figure and as the result of a much publicized clash over papal infallibility had his permission to teach revoked by the Vatican Yet at seventy five he is also something like a senior statesman one of the Group of Eminent Persons convened by the UN Secretary General Kofi Annan and a friend of heads of government like Tony Blair and President Mubarak of Egypt In this fascinating autobiography he gives a frank and outspoken account of the first four decades of his life He tells of his youth in Switzerland and his decision to become a priest his doubts and struggles as he studied in Rome and Paris and his experiences as a professor in Tübingen where he received a chair at the amazingly early age of thirty one Most importantly as one of the last surviving eye witnesses he gives an authentic account of the struggles behind the scenes at the Second Vatican Council in which he took part as a theological expert Here it becomes clear just how major an influence he was to the point of shaping the Council's agenda and drafting speeches for bishops to deliver in plenary sessions With its rich thought and vivid narrative Küng's book paints a moving picture of his personal convictions and his struggle for a Christianity characterized not by the domination of an official church but by Jesus

Journey Through the I-Worlds Nehama Milson, 2013-06-12 The sick Young man told the Prince that even if he dared to break the decree she couldn't fly anyway He was disabled And then his friend did the unthinkable He soared upward above the heads of the crowd that had surrounded the house including the guard and flew to seek the soul of his friend When he tried to come back the guard flung weapons at him He turned around over the house cried out his goodbye to the Young man and flew back to the island where his family lived But his work had been done His parting words had marked themselves indelibly on the young one's memory You're sick because you do not fly They are more than a couple these two more than a family They are a starry brother and sister They are the very one divided into two halves Separation was not logical It dissected the soul into halves music into halves poems into halves feelings into halves She swings with her arms his feet start dancing he touches the strings her throat bursts with a song She hurts he cries out he's happy she composes a prayer of the delight The Good Enchantress was having a rest after a hard quest As usual she had been saving someone from the trouble and as usual she was successful Now she was back home and relaxed lying on the sofa with a book of fairy tales She was thinking of putting her book on the couch side table and falling asleep right there when there was a quiet knock This was how the magical computer announced the arrival of an urgent email The Enchantress reluctantly got up from the sofa looked at the screen and was terribly surprised Right out from the computer screen weird creatures were stepping onto the desk They were all of different sizes from a small moji-bake of a mouse's size to a huge monster that occupied half of the bedroom

Angkahan,2025-01-28 Arabella is off on her second journey to help people who are oppressed in the world The child doesn't know where her next journey is taking her but she is looking forward to more adventures and to help others if she can When Arabella is finally transported to another faraway land she becomes astonished about her second goodwill mission to help people from a dire situation because she must go with her new companion whom Arabella will meet in her second journey and they must travel around the world to collect the seven keys from the seven maidens Afterward Arabella and her companion return where her companion is from to free the people there from a devastating curse that has plagued the land the king's southern part of his kingdom While the two girls travel to each maiden's territory they're faced with perils and trials on the way So no one can say that the girls don't have their hands full yet during their goodwill mission they'll meet wonderful people of foreign tongues and cultures between the maidens territories Also Arabella and her companion will develop a meaningful relationship with each other that's binding for life They both have strong faith for their age but they would have to because without faith and divine intervention their goodwill mission won't be successful This Arabella learned from her first journey and more so in this second journey One thing the girls will have in common with their perils and trials they both will see their faith grow and through perseverance they both will gain wisdom yet maintaining humility and a heart of charity on the way If Arabella is thinking her first and previous journey was overwhelming then she'll surely find this second journey surpasses her first with amazing and incomprehensible adventures and perils on the way so her and new companion's faith may be tested Thus with each goodwill mission her faith will grow stronger and the values she learns from her journeys are indeed preparing her to rule wisely and justly as baroness of the Wellington dynasty someday *The Fool's
