Nasser Sadat Decision Making F:

Nasser at War L. James, 2006-10-02 From his 1956 Suez triumph to the 1967 defeat President Nasser of Egypt dominated the Arab revolution Drawing on new Arabic material this history casts a fresh light on Nasser's era and legacy of conflict and provides an essential background to developments in the contemporary Arab world

Bridging the Gap Cindy R. Jebb, 2004-01-01 In Bridging the Gap scholar and military officer Cindy R. Jebb asks why the United States with its considerable diplomatic economic and military resources vested in the Middle East has not been able to successfully implement plans to quell unrest in the region To find an answer Jebb specifically focuses on the factors that drive United States foreign policy decisions in Egypt and Syria in a Cold War and post Cold War context The epilogue brings forward the post Cold War findings to a post 9 11 world providing insights on the changing legitimacy formulas for both states Using comparative politics literature to answer the international relations question of why states behave as they do this searching study builds an important foundation for further research in other critical areas of current scholarly interest including democratization consensus building multilateral institutions and ethnic studies Bridging the Gap will be indispensable to scholars in the international comparative and security fields and Jebb's insights will be of particular value to Middle East regional experts and policy makers

Arab World and Western Intelligence Dina Rezk, 2017-06-02 The untold story of Western intelligence in the Middle East Have Western experts fundamentally failed to understand the dynamics leaders and culture of the Middle East Using the most recently declassified documents interviews and Arabic sources the book examines seminal case studies culminating in Sadat's dramatic assassination and explores how the most knowledgeable and powerful intelligence agencies in the world have been so notoriously caught off guard in this region

The Iran-Iraq War Williamson Murray, Kevin M. Woods, 2014-09-04 A comprehensive account of the Iran Iraq War through the lens of the Iraqi regime and its senior military commanders

A History of Social Justice and Political Power in the Middle East Linda T. Darling, 2013-05-02 From ancient Mesopotamia into the 20th century the Circle of Justice as a concept has pervaded Middle Eastern political thought and underpinned the exercise of power in the Middle East The Circle of Justice depicts graphically how a government's justice toward the population generates political power military strength prosperity and good administration This book traces this set of relationships from its earliest appearance in the political writings of the Sumerians through four millennia of Middle Eastern culture It explores how people conceptualized and acted upon this powerful insight how they portrayed it in symbol painting and story and how they transmitted it from one regime to the next Moving towards the modern day the author shows how although the Circle of Justice was largely dropped from political discourse it did not disappear from people's political culture and expectations of government The book demonstrates the Circle's relevance to the Iranian Revolution and the rise of Islamist movements all over the Middle East and suggests how the concept remains relevant in an age of capitalism A must read for students policymakers and ordinary citizens this book will be an important contribution to the areas of political history political theory Middle East studies and Orientalism Bondi in the Sinai

Rodney Gouttman, 1996 This book reveals the political atmospherics behind Australia's involvement in the American inspired Multi national and Observers Force in the Sinai A child of the Egypt Israel peace pact of 1979 the Force's lack of United Nations approval proved a formidable barrier for a skeptical Australian audience Australia's inclusion in the NFO would not have been possible without the singular efforts of her staunchly anti Communist Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser Background factors examined include resentment of the American Alliance changing attitudes to the Middle East peace process and the emotional fall out of the Vietnam War This book deals with previously unpublished contemporary material in a holist political analysis Routledge Handbook on Contemporary Egypt Robert Springborg, Amr Adly, Anthony Gorman, Tamir Moustafa, Aisha Saad, Naomi Sakr, Sarah Smierciak, 2021-03-30 Investigating key features of contemporary Egypt this volume includes Egypt's modern history politics economics the legal system environment and its media and modes of cultural expression It examines Egypt's capacities to meet developmental challenges ranging from responding to globalization and regional competition to generating sufficient economic growth and political inclusion to accommodate the interests and demands of a rapidly growing population The macrohistory of Egypt is complemented by the microhistories of specific institutions and processes that constitute separate sections in this handbook The chapters revolve around political economy it is shaped by the people and their abilities political and legal institutions organization of the economy natural and built environments and culture and communication Politics has been overwhelmingly authoritarian and coercive since the military seized power in 1952 consequently the contributions address both the causes and consequences of unbalanced civil military relations military rule and persisting authoritarianism in the political society This multidisciplinary handbook serves a dual purpose of introducing readers to Egypt's history and contemporary political economy and as a comprehensive key resource for postgraduate students and academics interested in modern Egypt Security In The Middle East Mark Bruzonsky, Shaun Murphy, Samuel F. Wells, 2020-01-16 This book examines the deep seated problems in the Middle East and their impact on the United States and its allies Exploring the disruptive effects of the double edged sword of nationalism and modernization the contributors discuss the full range of Western security interests in the region Case studies of key countries emphasize the prospect for peaceful political economic and cultural change The authors analyze the ramifications of the Arab Israeli conflict and the threats posed by Soviet penetration Arguing that confusion and contradiction mark U S policy in the Middle East the book concludes that U S strategists should focus not on curing the region's internal problems but on coping with them without sacrificing long term goals for quick fixes Irrigation in the Mediterranean François Molle, Carles Sanchis-Ibor, Llorenç Avellà-Reus, 2019-05-09 Mediterranean irrigation is diverse due to among other factors the relative importance of water in the economy of each country varied levels of aridity heterogeneous levels economic social and technological levels of development and differences in political and social organization However most of the Mediterranean countries face similar problems to meet their water demands because of the scarcity and variability of renewable resources growing water requirements from non agricultural sectors increasing environmental concerns related to water quality and environmental degradation a social demand for larger public participation and important technological changes The time has come to reconsider the not one drop lost to the sea philosophy of yesteryears largely and to live within limits This book focuses on eight selected countries Tunisia Morocco Spain France Italy Turkey Israel and Egypt and provides a comparative perspective that both thoroughly explores their specificities and identifies the common challenges faced by the irrigation sector in these countries The book has been written at a critical moment when the continued application of a supply side water management model is revealing its unsustainable nature in numerous places when significant technological changes are taking place in the irrigation sector when new forms of management and governance are widely held as badly needed and finally when climate change is compounding many of the difficulties that have characterized irrigation policies and practices in the past decades This complicated future context makes Mediterranean irrigation face various political dilemmas on water management raising social tensions triggering territorial and land conflicts and stimulating new technological developments This book provides a timely analysis of the particular trajectory of eight Mediterranean countries in these uncertain transformations and attempts to identify the best strategies to avert or overcome future risks

Transforming Agrarian Economies Thomas P. Tomich, Peter Kilby, Bruce F. Johnston, 2018-05-31 The world's 58 poorest countries are diverse in many respects but they share the characteristic of a labor force overwhelmingly dependent on agriculture Challenging the assumption that mass poverty and chronic hunger are insoluble problems this book systematically explores the multiple aspects of economic development in these countries which are home to 60 percent of the world's population The authors offer a broad based development strategy to raise incomes through agricultural productivity growth and expanded rural employment They present rich new information on the rural informal sector and on agriculture industry interactions and they analyze the impact of macroeconomic and social policies on the rural economy Policy instruments aimed at bringing about broad based development are carefully assessed from fiscal policy to development of new seeds and farm implements The book includes detailed case studies of countries that have seized or missed development opportunities Comparison of the successful economic transformations of Japan and the United States shows how key ideas which the authors call strategic notions have enabled policymakers to act with foresight Analyses of strategic choices in China the Soviet Union Taiwan Mexico Kenya and Tanzania also show how development strategies that emerge from the real world political economy reflect a mix of individual interests and strategic notions

Egypt, a Country Study Richard F. Bibliography glossary maps organigram photographs statistical tables State Reform and Development in the Middle East Amr Adly, 2013 The economies of Turkey and Egypt remarkably similar until the early 1980s have since taken divergent paths Turkey has successfully implemented a policy of export led industrialisation whilst Egypt's manufacturing industry and exports have stagnated In this book Amr Adly uses extensive primary research to present detailed comparisons of Turkey's and Egypt's state administrative and private sector capacities and links between the two The conclusion the author draws is that the external contexts for both were so alike that this cannot account for their diverging paths Instead the author suggests a counterintuitive yet compelling explanation that a democratic polity is far more likely than an authoritarian one to engender a successful developmental state Emerging in the wake of the January revolution in Egypt when hopes for democratisation were raised this book provides a fresh perspective on the topical subject of state reform and development in the Middle East and will be of interest to students and scholar alike State, Faith, and Nation in Ottoman and Post-Ottoman Lands Frederick F. Anscombe, 2014-02-17 Current standard narratives of Ottoman Balkan and Middle East history overemphasise the role of nationalism in the transformation of the region Challenging these accounts this book argues that religious affiliation was in fact the most influential shaper of communal identity in the Ottoman era that religion moulded the relationship between state and society and that it continues to do so today in lands once occupied by the Ottomans The book examines the major transformations of the past 250 years to illustrate this argument traversing the nineteenth century the early decades of post Ottoman independence and the recent past In this way the book affords unusual insights not only into the historical patterns of political development but also into the forces shaping contemporary crises from the dissolution of Yugoslavia to the rise of political Islam From Sheikhs to Sultanism Christopher M. Davidson, 2022-01-15 Muhammad bin Salman Al Saud and Muhammad bin Zayed Al Nahyan the respective princely strongmen of Saudi Arabia and the UAE have torn up the old rules They have spurred game changing economic master plans presided over vast anti corruption crackdowns tackled entrenched religious forces and overseen the mass arrest of critics In parallel they also appear to have replaced the old sheikhly consensus systems of their predecessors with something more autocratic more personalistic and perhaps even analytically distinct These are the two wealthiest and most populous Gulf monarchies and increasingly important global powers Saudi Arabia is a G20 member and the UAE will be the host of the World Expo in 2021 2022 Such sweeping changes to their statecraft and authority structures could well end up having a direct impact for better or worse on policies economies and individual lives all around the world Christopher M Davidson tests the hypothesis that Saudi Arabia and the UAE are now effectively contemporary or even advanced sultanates and situates these influential states within an international model of autocratic authoritarianism Drawing on a range of primary sources including new interviews and surveys From Sheikhs to Sultanism puts forward an original empirically grounded interpretation of the rise of both MBS and MBZ Foreign Policy as Nation Making Reem Abou-El-Fadl, 2019 A comparison of Turkey's and Egypt's diverging foreign policies during the Cold War in light of their leaderships nation making projects

Egyptian Foreign Policy From Mubarak to Morsi Nael Shama, 2013-10-30 Egyptian Foreign Policy from Mubarak to Morsi explores an area rarely touched upon by researchers the relationship between regime security and the national interest Concentrating on Egyptian foreign policy under President Hosni Mubarak this book analyses how it was used to bolster his internal hold on power In considering Egyptian foreign policy two central case studies are examined Firstly Egypt's reluctance to re establish diplomatic ties with Iran and secondly Egypt's response to the efforts of the Bush administration in promoting political reform in the Middle East When examining these case studies the impact of different societal factors on decision making is taken into consideration highlighting the role of business groups and the security apparatus in foreign policy decision making Concluding with a discussion of Egypt's foreign policy in the first year of Mohamed Morsi's rule and arguing that it has departed little from Mubarak's policy this book is a vital resource for anyone interested in contemporary Egyptian politics Middle East Studies and International Relations more broadly

Cultivating the Nile Jessica Barnes, 2014-09-17 The waters of the Nile are fundamental to life in Egypt In this compelling ethnography Jessica Barnes explores the everyday politics of water a politics anchored in the mundane yet vital acts of blocking releasing channeling and diverting water She examines the quotidian practices of farmers government engineers and international donors as they interact with the waters of the Nile flowing into and through Egypt Situating these local practices in relation to broader processes that affect Nile waters Barnes moves back and forth from farmer to government ministry from irrigation canal to international water conference By showing how the waters of the Nile are constantly made and remade as a resource by people in and outside Egypt she demonstrates the range of political dynamics social relations and technological interventions that must be incorporated into understandings of water and its management

Political Psychology And Foreign Policy Eric Singer, Valerie M Hudson, 2020-02-24 First published in 1992 One of the issues of particular interest to political psychologists centers around how foreign policy decisions are made The psychological phenomena that political psychologists examine have to do with how individuals perceive interpret feel about and react to their environment The political factors have to do with the activities involved in governing or the making of public policy that is with how the material and human resources of a collectivity are allocated The research presented in this volume addresses 6 key questions that link psychological and political processes and the chapters are organized around three conceptual clusters perception studies personality studies and studies of group dynamics

Agrarian Transformation in Egypt Nicholas S. Hopkins, 2019-04-08 This book reflects the argument on agrarian transformation in Egypt It focuses on the role of agricultural mechanization in the labor process in rural Egypt The book emphasizes the changing role of the household and the relations between households particularly the role of women and children

The Frontiers of Corporate Food in Egypt Marion W. Dixon, 2023-08-02 This book details the development and growth of a corporate agri food system in Egypt

The system includes food processing and an animal protein complex largely for corporate consumer markets in the country from street kiosks to fast food outlets to hypermarkets and fresh fruits and vegetables largely for export Marion W Dixon demonstrates the importance of reclaimed lands or frontiers for the development and growth of the corporate agri food system since the 1980s Various forces including multiple threats from plant and animal diseases the Avian flu especially have pushed and pulled agribusiness to new lands This system s growth has also rested on imports and contract farming As a result dependence on food imports has grown What agriculturalists grow has changed toward processing vegetables and animal protein and what Egyptians eat has changed toward foods drinks high in unhealthy fats sugars and sodium Through mixed methods research in Egypt between 2008 and 2012 The Frontiers of Corporate Food in Egypt shows how the growth of corporate food has contributed to growing food insecurity and to multiplying threats to public health from chronic and infectious diseases
