The Monthly Army List Great Britain. Army, 1888 With the Army Service Corps in South Africa Sir Wodehouse Richardson, 1903 Our First Foreign War Nigel Robson, 2021-04-08

Foreshadowing our unseemly haste to fight for King and Country in 1914 New Zealanders were enthusiastic supporters of the colonial war between Britain and the Boers when it was declared in 1899 The country welcomed the chance to prove itself and its loyalty to the British Empire on an international stage Our contribution was small just 6500 troops sent to fight but our response to the conflict was on a grander scale In an outpouring of patriotic sentiment many thousands followed the stories of the sieges of Mafeking Kimberley and Ladysmith There was memorabilia everywhere and it seemed as if everyone was either raising funds or joining cadet corps including many women and girls Little has been written of this important period in New Zealand's history This is the first book to offer a finely grained analysis of the nation's perceptions and expectations of the war Maori responses to the conflict the effect of war related deaths injuries and disease on the country and its economic impact It also demonstrates that the building of our national identity through military engagement began well before Gallipoli and the Western Front

The Gift of Adversity Norman E Rosenthal MD, 2014-09-04 Now in paperback this acclaimed book from Norman Rosenthal the New York Times bestselling author and research psychiatrist shows how life's disappointments and difficulties provide us with the lessons we need to become happier and more resilient human beings Winner of the 2014 Nautilus Award represents Better Books for a Better World the Silver Award in the category of Heroic Journeys Adversity is an irreducible fact of life Although we can and should learn from all experiences both positive and negative bestselling author Dr Norman E Rosenthal believes that adversity is by far the best teacher most of us will ever encounter Whether the adversity one experiences is the result of poor decision making a desire to test one's mettle or plain bad luck Rosenthal believes life's most important lessons from the value of family to the importance of occasionally cutting corners can be best learned from it Running counter to society's current prevailing message that excellence must always be aspired to and failure or mistakes of any sort are to be avoided at all costs Rosenthal shows that engaging with our own failures and defeats is one of the only ways we are able to live authentic and meaningful lives and that each different type of adversity carries its own challenges and has the potential to yield its own form of wisdom Using stories from his own life including his childhood in apartheid era South Africa his years after suffering a violent attack from a stranger and his career as a psychiatrist as well as case studies and discussions with well known figures like Viktor Frankl and David Lynch Rosenthal shows that true innovation emotional resilience wisdom and dignity can only come from confronting and understanding the adversity we have experienced Even when life is hardest there are meanings to be found riches to be harvested and gifts that can last a lifetime Rosenthal illustrates his message through a series of compact memorable chapters each one drawn from episodes in the lives of his patients colleagues or himself and concluded with a take away maxim on the lesson learned
