Nathalie Sarraute Fiction And Theory Questions Of Difference:

Nathalie Sarraute, Fiction and Theory Ann Jefferson,2000 Nathalie Sarraute : Fiction and Theory : Questions of Difference Mark David Lee,2001 Nathalie Sarraute, Fiction and Theory Ann Jefferson,2000-07-03 Nathalie Sarraute 1900 99 is regarded as one of the major French novelists of the twentieth century Initially hailed as a leading theorist and exemplar of the nouveau roman she has come to be regarded as an important author in her own right with her own distinctive concerns In this major 2000 study of Sarraute the first in English since her death Ann Jefferson offers a fresh perspective on Sarraute s entire oeuvre her novels her outstanding autobiography Enfance and her influential critical writings by focusing on the crucial issue of difference which emerges as one of her central preoccupations Drawing on a variety of critical approaches Jefferson explores Sarraute s fundamental ambivalence to differences of various kinds including questions of gender and genre She argues that difference is simultaneously asserted and denied in Sarraute s work and that the notion of difference so often celebrated by other writers and thinkers is shown in Sarraute s work to be inseparable from ambiguity and anxiety Approaching Disappearance Anne McConnell,2013-03-05 Maurice Blanchot 1907 2003 one of the most influential figures of twentieth century French literature produced a wide variety of essays and fictions that reflect on the complexities of literary work His description of writing continually returns to a number of themes such as solitude passivity indifference anonymity and absence forces confronting the writer but also the reader the text itself and the relations between the three For Blanchot literature involves a movement toward disappearance where one risks the loss of self but such a sacrifice says Blanchot is inherent in the act of writing Approaching Disappearance explores the question of disappearance in Blanchot s critical work and then turns to five narratives that offer a unique reflection on the threat of disappearance and the demands of literature work by Franz Kafka Jorge Luis Borges Louis Ren Des For ts and Nathalie Sarraute Echo's Voice Mary Noonan,2017-07-05 Helene Cixous 1937 distinguished not least as a playwright herself told Le Monde in 1977 that she no longer went to the theatre it presented women only as reflections of men used for their visual effect The theatre she wanted would stress the auditory giving voice to ways of being that had previously been silenced She was by no means alone in this Cixous s plays along with those of Nathalie Sarraute 1900 99 Marguerite Duras 1914 96 and Noelle Renaude 1949 among others have proved potent in drawing participants into a dynamic space of the voice If as psychoanalysis suggests voice represents a transitional condition between body and language such plays may draw their audiences in to understandings previously never spoken In this ground breaking study Noonan explores the rich possibilities of this new audio vocal form of theatre and what it can reveal of the auditory self Barbara Wright Debra Kelly,Madeleine Renouard,2013-08-01 Legendary publisher and writer John Calder said of Barbara Wright that she was the most brilliant conscientious and original translator of 20th century French literature Wright introduced to an English speaking readership and audience some of the most innovative French literature of the last hundred years a world without

Alfred Jarry's Ubu, Raymond Queneau's Zazie and Robert Pinget's Monsieur Songe scarcely bears thinking about. This wonderful collection of texts about and by Barbara Wright including work by David Bellos, Breon Mitchell and Nick Wadley as well as a previously unpublished screenplay written and translated by Wright in collaboration with Robert Pinget begins the work of properly commemorating a figure toward whom all of English letters owes an unpayable debt. The Nouveau Roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019. This volume explores the influence of the avant garde French novel form known as Nouveau Roman on experimental prose fiction and post war literary culture in Britain.

Oyvind Fahlstrom Antonio Sergio Bessa, 2008-08-25. This title serves as both an informative and entertaining introduction to Oyvind Fahlstrom and a valuable critical analysis of some of his most important works. Consuming Autobiographies

Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02. Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi. This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned. In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute, Georges Perec, Jean Genet and Helene Cixous. She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge. Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self. Historical Dictionary of French Literature John

Flower, 2022-05-15. With the possible exception of Great Britain France can justifiably lay claim to possess the richest literary history of any country in Western Europe. This book covers the authors and their works, literary movements and philosophical and social developments that have had a direct impact on style or content and major historical events such as the two world wars, the Franco Prussian War, the Algerian War or the events of May 1968 that are directly reflected in a substantial body of imaginative writing. Historical Dictionary of French Literature Second Edition contains a chronology, an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on individual writers and key texts, significant movements, groups, associations and periodicals and on the literary reactions to major national and international events such as revolutions and wars. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about French literature. Bakhtin and cultural theory Ken Hirschkop, David Shepherd, 2024-06-04. An important collection of essays which treats Bakhtin as a provocative theorist whose work must be tested, explored and compared with the work of others. Contributors assess Bakhtin's contribution to difficult issues of colonialism, feminism, reception theory and theories of the body amongst others. New articles explore the origins previously unacknowledged of Bakhtin's theory of language and provide a vivid account of the dramatic scandal surrounding Bakhtin's thesis on Rabelais. Contains dramatic new material drawn from post perestroika sources which demythologizes the image of this important writer. A new bibliographical essay and introduction bring the English language reader up to date with the progress of Bakhtin studies in Russia. Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing. As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured. It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms. The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver Ayala Amir, 2010-07-17 The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver draws on the study of visual arts to illuminate the short stories of noted author Raymond Carver in the broader context of vision and visualization in a literary text. Ayala Amir examines Carver's use of the eye of the camera technique. Amir uncovers the tensions that structure his visual aesthetics and examines assumptions that govern scholarly discussions of his work relating these matters to the complex nature of photography and to the current visual turn of cultural studies. The research uses visual approaches to reflect upon traditional issues of narrative study duration dialogue narration description frame character and meaning. Amir shows how Carver's visual aesthetics shapes the meaning of his stories while also challenging accepted notions of the boundaries of the literary. The Legacy of Simone de Beauvoir Emily R. Grosholz, 2004-01-22 The legacy of Simone de Beauvoir has yet to be properly assessed and explored. The 50th anniversary of the publication of The Second Sex inspired this volume which brings together philosophers and literary critics some of whom are well known for their books on Beauvoir. Bauer Le Doeuff Moi others new to Beauvoir studies though long familiar with her work. Grosholz Imbert James Stevenson Wilson One aim of this collection is to encourage greater recognition of Beauvoir's philosophical writings through systematic reflection on their place in the canon and on her methods. The Second Sex played a central role in the profound shift in philosophy's self understanding that took place in the latter half of the twentieth century and today offers new problems for reflection and novel means for appropriating older texts. Its reflective iconoclasm can be compared to that of Descartes' Meditations its enormous directly discernible impact on our social world invites comparison with Locke's Two Treatises of Government. The collection also examines the relationship between Beauvoir's literary writing and her philosophical thought. Deeply concerned with the critical and creative powers of reason as well as with the betterment of our suffering world Simone de Beauvoir wrote in a variety of genres in addition to the philosophical essay the novel political journalism and the memoir. The multiplicity of her voices was closely related to her philosophical project. Since Beauvoir's method like that of W E B du Bois proceeded from her own immediate experience her reflections had to find expression sometimes as narrative

sometimes as autobiography sometimes as argument The Legacy of Simone de Beauvoir demonstrates the many ways in which Beauvoir's writings in particular The Second Sex can serve as resources for thought for the life of the mind which is as concerned with the past and future as it is with the present

Exploring Textual Action Anders M Gullestad, Patrizia Lombardo, Lars Saetre, 2010-12-31 Exploring Textual Action questions how we analyse works of art after the performative turn and shows how the interplay of performativity textual action space and topography and the converging of genres and art forms is essential in modern drama theatre prose fiction poetry and film The volume also fosters a keen concern for the development of congenial theory Its 14 detailed essays analyse works of art ranging from Balzac Melville and George Eliot to Breton Kafka Benjamin Blixen and Woolf and from W C Williams Bresson and Scorsese to Sarraute Duras Reygadas Dumont and Waltz The approach of these studies discloses the art works as creative and dynamic utterances with active and shaping forces so powerful and consequential that they have the potential to transform human perception and blur clear distinctions between art and real life Using an alternative and dynamic method and suggesting a direction towards the detailed analysis of literature art media and culture Exploring Textual Action addresses current debates within the humanities

Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli, 2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure Sartre's The Words Proust's W or The Memory of Childhood and Sarraute's Childhood Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers' life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

What Proust Heard Michael Lucey, 2022-03-25 Michael Lucey offers a linguistic anthropological analysis of Proust's In Search of Lost Time What happens when we talk This deceptively simple question is central to Marcel Proust's monumental novel In Search of Lost Time Both Proust's narrator and the novel that houses him devote considerable energy to investigating not just what people are saying or doing when they talk but also what happens socioculturally through their use of language Proust in other words is interested in what linguistic anthropologists call language in use Michael Lucey elucidates Proust's approach to language in use in a number of ways principally in relation to linguistic anthropology but also in relation to speech act theory and to Pierre Bourdieu's sociology The book also includes an interlude after each of its chapters that contextualizes Proust's social scientific practice of novel writing in relation to that of a number of other novelists earlier and later and from several different traditions including Honor de

Balzac George Eliot Virginia Woolf Nathalie Sarraute and Rachel Cusk Lucey is thus able to show how in the hands of quite different novelists various aspects of the novel form become instruments of linguistic anthropological analysis The result introduces a different way of understanding language to literary and cultural critics and explores the consequences of this new understanding for the practice of literary criticism more generally

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates

Spoiled Distinctions Hannah Freed-Thall, 2015-09-01 Spoiled Distinctions investigates crises of evaluation in twentieth century France Taking Marcel Proust as its central figure the book theorizes the disorienting force of everyday aesthetic experience In a series of surprising readings Hannah Freed Thall frees Proust from his reputation as the most refined of high modernists The author of In Search of Lost Time appears here as a journalist and newspaper enthusiast a literary ventriloquist and connoisseur of popular scandals and a writer attentive to the unsophisticated phenomenology of the here and now The final chapters of the book consider the legacy of Proust's experiments with inestimable worth Authors Francis Ponge Nathalie Sarraute and Yasmina Reza also explore the underside of cultural distinction With Proust they elaborate modernist variations on the beautiful and sublime from nuance to the whatever and from the awkward to the sickly sweet Spoiled Distinctions thus revitalizes the critical discourse on aesthetics Mapping the intersection of phenomenology aesthetic theory and the sociology of culture the book reveals how enchanting the ordinary can be

Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature
