Nation Culture Text:

The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney

Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities Text, Theory, Space Kate Darian-Smith, Sarah Nuttall, 1996 Focusing on two white settler societies South Africa and Australia this book investigates the meaning of the South as an aesthetic political geographical and cultural space This is a landmark in post colonial theory and criticism

Native to the Nation Allaine Cerwonka, 2004 In a world increasingly marked by migration and dislocation the question of displacement and of establishing a sense of belonging has become ever more common and ever more urgent But what of those who stay in place How do people who remain in their place of origin or ancestral homeland rearticulate a sense of connection of belonging when ownership of the territory they occupy is contested Focusing on Australia Allaine Cerwonka examines the physical and narrative spatial practices by which people reclaim territory in the wake of postcolonial claims to land by indigenous people and new immigration of foreigners As a multicultural postcolonial nation whose claims to land until recently were premised on the notion of the continent as empty terra nullius Australia offers an especially rich lens for understanding the reterritorialization of the nation state in an era of globalization To this end Native to the Nation provides a multisited ethnography of two communities in Melbourne the Fitzroy Police Station and the East Melbourne Garden Club allowing us to see how bodies are managed and nations physically constructed in everyday confrontations and cultivations Allaine Cerwonka is assistant professor of women s studies and political science at Georgia State University Nationalism and the Politics of Culture in Quebec Richard Handler, 1988 Richard Handler s pathbreaking study of nationalistic politics in Quebec is a striking and successful example of the new experimental type of ethnography interdisciplinary in nature and intensively concerned with rhetoric and not only of anthropologists but also of scholars in a wide range of fields and it is likely to stir sharp controversy Bringing together methodologies of history sociology political science and philosophy as well as anthropology Handler centers on the period 1976 1984 during which the independantiste Parti Qu b ois was in control of the provincial government and nationalistic sentiment was especially strong Handler draws on historical and archival research and on interviews with Quebec and Canadian government officials as he addresses the central question Given the similarities between the epistemologies of both anthropology and nationalist ideology how can one write an ethnography of nationalism that does not simply reproduce and thereby endorse nationalistic beliefs Handler analyzes various responses to the nationalist vision of a threatened existence He examines cultural tourism ideology of the Quebec government legislations concerning historical preservation language legislation and policies towards immigrants and cultural minorities He concludes with a thoughtful meditation on the futility of nationalisms

Cultural Visions: Essays in the History of Culture

,2022-03-07 This collection opens with an inquiry into the assumptions and methods of the historical study of culture comparing the new cultural history with the old Thirteen essays follow each defining a problem within a particular culture In the first section Biography and Autobiography three scholars explore historically changing types of self conception each reflecting larger cultural meanings essays included examine Italian Renaissance biographers and the autobiographies of Benjamin Franklin and Mohandas Gandhi A second group of contributors explore problems raised by the writing of history itself especially as it relates to a notion of culture Here examples are drawn from the writings of Thucydides Jacob Burckhardt and the art historians Alois Riegl and Josef Strzygowski In the third section Politics Nationalism and Culture the essays explore relationships between cultural creativity and national identity with case studies focusing on the Holy Roman Emperor Maximilian I the place of Castile within the national history of Spain and the impact of World War I on work of Thomas Mann The final section Cultural Translation raises the complex questions of cultural influence and the transmission of traditions over time through studies of Philo of Alexandria s interpretation of the Hebrew Bible Erasmus use of Socrates Jean Bodin s conception of Roman law and adaptations of the Hebrew Bible for American children JNCI, Journal of the National Cancer Institute National Cancer Institute (U.S.),1987 Journal of the National Cancer Institute ,1986

Cultural Policy Toby Miller,George Yudice,2002-11-19 Hitherto cultural theory and empirical work on culture have outstripped cultural policy This book rectifies the peculiar imbalance in the field of Cultural Studies by offering the first comprehensive and international work on cultural policy Fully alive to the challenges posed by globalization it addresses a wide range of central topics including cinema television museums international organizations art public history drama and performance art The result is a landmark work in the emerging field of cultural policy Rigorous in its field of survey and astute in its critical commentary it enables students to gain a global grounding in cultural policy It will be essential reading for students of cultural studies and cultural sociology Fur Nation Chantal Nadeau,2005-07-05 Fur Nation traces the interwoven relationships between sexuality national identity and colonialism Chantal Nadeau shows how Canada a white settler colony bases its existence and its nationhood on a complex sexual economy based on women wrapped in fur Nadeau traces the centrality of fur through a series of intriguing case studies including Hollywood s take on the 330 year history of the Hudson Bay Company founded to exploit Canada's rich fur resources the life of a postwar fur fashion photographer a 1950s musical called Fur Lady the battle between Brigitte Bardot's anti fur activists and the fur industry Nadeau highlights the connection between fur ladies women wearing exploiting or promoting furs and the beaver symbol of Canada and nature's master builder She shows how in postcolonial Canada the nation is sexualised around female reproduction and fur which is both a crucial factor in economic development and a powerful symbol through which the nation itself is conceived and commodified Fur Nation demonstrates that for Canada fur really is the fabric of a nation

What's Become of Cultural Studies? Graeme Turner, 2011-12-01 Graeme Turner is one of the most remarkable figures in the world of cultural studies He has helped to make and remake the field over the last twenty five years So when he sets his alarm clock and it goes off loudly we all know it's time to pay attention This extraordinary testament to what is right and wrong with cultural studies today will reverberate across the globe Toby Miller University of California This original sharp and engaging book draws the reader into a compelling exploration of cultural studies in the twenty first century It offers a level headed account of where cultural studies has come from the methodological and theoretical dilemmas that it faces today and an agenda for its future development In an age in which the relevance of cultural studies has been called into question this book seeks to generate debate Focusing upon the actual practice of cultural studies within the university today it asks whether or not cultural studies has really managed to maintain a connection with its original political and ethical mission and comments on the strategies needed to regain the initiative Written by a world class figure in cultural studies each chapter supports and guides the reader by introducing the key issues reviewing the relevant commentary and offering a critical conclusion of how each theme fits into a bigger picture This timely and provocative consideration of cultural studies as a global discipline will be essential reading for academics and students working in the field for years to come

The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2014-08-22 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans national expansion in the study of culture

Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society

An Analysis of Geert Hofstede's Culture's

Consequences Katherine Erdman, 2018-02-21 The Dutch anthropologist Geert Hofstede is recognized as a pioneer in the fields of international management and social psychology and his work is a perfect example of the ways in which interpretative skills can help solve problems and provide the foundation for strong thinking and understanding both in business and beyond Hofstede's central achievement was setting up an efficient interpretative framework for understanding the cultural differences between one country and another Working for the international computing company IBM in the late 1960s Hofstede noted that such cultural differences had huge consequences for international organizations Up until then while many inside and outside of business recognized the importance of these differences little had been done to define precisely what cultural difference was and in what areas of life it was expressed Hofstede's insight was that if one could interpret and define the dimensions of cultural difference it would be possible to measure them and act accordingly From a vast survey of IBM's employees in several countries Hofstede originally defined five dimensions of culture every society could be rated for each dimension providing a useful guide to the kinds of cultural differences at play As ever good interpretative skills provided the basis for better understanding
