Nation Of Immigrants Readings In Canadian History 1840s 1960s:

A Nation of Immigrants Franca Iacovetta, Paula Draper, Robert Ventresca, 2017-06-22 This collection brings together a wide array of writings on Canadian immigrant history including many highly regarded influential essays Though most of the chapters have been previously published the editors have also commissioned original contributions on understudied topics in the field The readings highlight the social history of immigrants their pre migration traditions as well as migration strategies and Canadian experiences their work and family worlds and their political cultural and community lives They explore the public display of ethno religious rituals race riots and union protests the quasi private worlds of all male boarding houses and of female domestics toiling in isolated workplaces and the intrusive power that government and even well intentioned social reformers have wielded over immigrants deemed dangerous or otherwise in need of supervision Organized partly chronologically and largely by theme the topical sections will offer students a glimpse into Canada s complex immigrant past In order to facilitate classroom discussion each section contains an introduction that contextualizes the readings and raises some questions for debate A Nation of Immigrants will be useful both in specialized courses in Canadian immigration history and in courses on broader themes in Canadian history

Reading Canadian Women's and Gender History Nancy Janovicek, Carmen Nielson, 2019-05-06 Inspired by the question of what s next in the field of Canadian women s and gender history this broadly historiographical volume represents a conversation among established and emerging scholars who share a commitment to understanding the past from intersectional feminist perspectives It includes original essays on Quebecois Indigenous Black and immigrant women s histories and tackles such diverse topics as colonialism religion labour warfare sexuality and reproductive labour and justice Intended as a regenerative retrospective of a critically important field this collection both engages analytically with the current state of women s and gender historiography in Canada and draws on its rich past to generate new knowledge and areas for inquiry

Just the Usual Work Michael Boudreau, Bonnie Huskins, 2021-02-19 Born in 1907 Ida Martin spent most of her life in Saint John New Brunswick She married a longshoreman named Allan Robert Martin in 1932 and they had one daughter In the years that followed Ida had a busy and varied life full of work caring for her family and living her faith Through it all Ida found time to keep a daily diary from 1945 to 1992 Bonnie Huskins is Ida Martin s granddaughter In Just the Usual Work she and Michael Boudreau draw on Ida s diaries family memories and the history of Atlantic Canada to shed light on the everyday life of a working class housewife during a period of significant social and political change They examine Ida s observations about the struggles of making ends meet on a longshoreman s salary the labour confrontations at the Port of Saint John the role of automobiles in the family economy the importance of family faith and political engagement and her experience of widowhood and growing old Ida Martin s diaries were often read by members of her family to reconstruct and relive their shared histories By sharing the pages of her diaries with a wider audience Just the Usual Work keeps Ida s memory alive while continuing her abiding commitment to documenting the past and finding meaning in the rhythms of everyday life      Routes of Passage: Rethinking the African Diaspora Ruth Simms Hamilton, 2007-07-26 Routes of Passage provides a conceptual substantive and empirical orientation to the study of African people worldwide Routes of Passage addresses issues of geographical mobility and geosocial displacement changing cultural political and economic relationships between Africa and its diaspora interdiaspora relations political and economic agency and social mobilization including cultural production and psychocultural transformation existence in hostile and oppressive political and territorial space and confronting interconnected relations of social inequality especially class gender nationality and race      The History of Immigration and Racism in Canada Barrington Walker, 2008 Examines the complex and disturbing history of immigration and racism in Canada This book covers themes including Native non Native contact migration and settlement in the nineteenth century immigrant workers and radicalism human rights internment during WWII and racism      The Centennial Cure Meaghan Elizabeth Beaton, 2017-01-01 This book examines the intersection of state policy cultural development and commemoration during Canada's 1967 centennial celebrations It explores four initiatives that were undertaken in Nova Scotia to mark this anniversary and demonstrates one province's response to Lamontagne's appeal to stem Canada's cultural poverty These initiatives also reflected those larger social cultural economic and political transformations that took place in postwar Nova Scotia Further they help us understand the province's experience within the broader context of the development of modern Canadian cultural and social history      Regulating Lives John McLaren, Dorothy E. Chunn, Robert J. Menzies, 2002 Nine essays investigate the history of law as an instrument of social control moral regulation and the government focusing primarily on British Columbia Canada where most of the contributors work as scholars in law or criminology Among the areas they tackle are the sex trade the spread of venereal disease the use and abuse of liquor child welfare mental disorder intrafamily sexual abuse Aboriginal culture and traditions and Doukhobor beliefs and customs The studies rely on forays into archival material at the national provincial and local levels Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Dark Side of the Nation Himani Bannerji, 2000 These feminist Marxist and anti racist essays speak to important current political issues Though they begin from experiences of non white people living in Canada they provide a critical theoretical perspective capable of exploring similar issues in other Western and Third World countries This reading of difference includes and extends beyond the cultural and the discursive into political economy state and ideology It cuts through the conventional paradigms of current debates on multiculturalism These essays take up in particular the notion of Canada as the nation and the state as an unsettled ground of contested hegemonies They particularly draw attention to how the state of Canada is an unfinished one and how the discourse of culture helps it to advance the legitimization claim needed by any state especially one arising in a colonial context with unsolved nationalist problems The myth of the two founding peoples Anglo and Francophone conveniently ignored the reality of First Nations More recently it has also ignored the entrance of non

European immigrants who may have a history of being indentured and politically marginalized and have just begun struggling for political enfranchisement in their new homeland Breadwinning Daughters Katrina Srigley, 2010-01-02 As one of the most difficult periods of the twentieth century the Great Depression left few Canadians untouched Using more than eighty interviews with women who lived and worked in Toronto in the 1930s Breadwinning Daughters examines the consequences of these years for women in their homes and workplaces and in the city's court rooms and dance halls In this insightful account Katrina Srigley argues that young women were central to the labour market and family economies of Depression era Toronto Oral histories give voice to women from a range of cultural and economic backgrounds and challenge readers to consider how factors such as race gender class and marital status shaped women's lives and influenced their job options family arrangements and leisure activities Breadwinning Daughters brings to light previously forgotten and unstudied experiences and illustrates how women found various ways to negotiate the burdens and joys of the 1930s

Unsettling the Great White North Michele A. Johnson, Funké Aladejebi, 2022-01-27 An exhaustive volume of leading scholarship in the field of Black Canadian history Unsettling the Great White North highlights the diverse experiences of persons of African descent within the chronicles of Canada's past The book considers histories and theoretical framings within the disciplines of history sociology law and cultural and gender studies to chart the mechanisms of exclusion and marginalization in multicultural Canada and to situate Black Canadians as speakers and agents of their own lives Working to interrupt the myth of benign whiteness that has been deeply implanted into the country's imagination Unsettling the Great White North uncovers new narratives of Black life in Canada Commemorating Canada Cecilia Morgan, 2016-04-06 Commemorating Canada is a concise narrative overview of the development of history and commemoration in Canada designed for use in courses on public history historical memory heritage preservation and related areas Examining why when where and for whom historical narratives have been important Cecilia Morgan describes the growth of historical pageantry popular history textbooks historical societies museums and monuments through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Showing how Canadians have clashed over conflicting interpretations of history and how they have come together to create shared histories she demonstrates the importance of history in shaping Canadian identity Though public history in both French and English Canada was written predominantly by white middle class men Morgan also discusses the activism and agency of women immigrants and Indigenous peoples The book concludes with a brief examination of present day debates over Canada's history and Canadians' continuing interest in their pasts A Companion to Women's Military History, 2012-08-17 Military institutions have everywhere and always shaped the course of history but women's near universal participation in them has largely gone unnoticed This volume addresses the changing relationships between women and armed forces from antiquity to the present The eight chapters in Part I present broad scholarly reviews of the existing literature to provide a clear understanding of where we stand An extended picture essay documents visually women's military work since the sixteenth century The book's second part comprises eight exemplary articles more narrowly focused than the survey articles but illustrating some of their major themes Military history will benefit from acknowledging women's participation as will women's history from recognizing military institutions as major factors in molding women's lives Contributors include Jorit Wintjes Mary Elizabeth Ailes John A Lynn Barton C Hacker Kimberly Jensen Margaret Vining D Ann M Campbell Carol B Stevens Jan Noel Elizabeth Prelinger Donna Alvah Karen Hagemann Yehudit Kol Inbar Dorotea Gucciardo and Megan Howatt and Judith Hicks Stiehm

Home Feelings Jody Mason, 2019-12-18 Literature literacy and citizenship took on new and contested meanings in early twentieth century Canada particularly in frontier work camps In this critical history of the reading camp movement Jody Mason undertakes the first sustained analysis of the organization that became Frontier College in 1919 Employing an interdisciplinary approach Home Feelings investigates how the reading camp movement used fiction poetry songs newspapers magazines school readers and English as a second language and citizenship manuals to encourage ideas of selfhood that were individual and intimate rather than collective Mason shows that British Canadian settlers desire to define themselves in relation to an expanding non British immigrant population as well as a need for immigrant labour put new pressure on the concept of citizenship in the first decades of the twentieth century Through the Frontier College one of the nation's earliest citizenship education programs emerged drawing on literature's potential to nourish home feelings as a means of engaging socialist and communist print cultures and the non British immigrant communities with which these were associated Shifting the focus away from urban centres and postwar state narratives of citizenship Home Feelings tracks the importance of reading projects and conceptions of literacy to the emergence of liberal citizenship in Canada prior to the Second World War

Moving Together Allana C. Lindgren, Batia Boe Stolar, Clara Sacchetti, 2021-05-11 Moving Together Dance and Pluralism in Canada explores how dance intersects with the shifting concerns of pluralism in a variety of racial and ethnic communities across Canada Focusing on the twentieth and twenty first centuries contributors examine a broad range of dance styles used to promote diversity and intercultural collaborations Examples include Fijian dance in Vancouver Japanese dance in Lethbridge Danish Chinese Kathak and Flamenco dance in Toronto African and European contemporary dance styles in Montreal and Ukrainian dance in Cape Breton Interviews with Indigenous and Middle Eastern dance artists along with an artist statement by a Bharata Natyam and contemporary dance choreographer provide valuable artist perspectives Contributors offer strategies to decolonize dance education and also challenge longstanding critiques of multiculturalism Moving Together demonstrates that dance is at the cutting edge of rethinking the contours of race and ethnicity in Canada and is necessary reading for scholars students dance artists and audiences and everyone interested in thinking about the future of racial and ethnic pluralism in Canada
