Local Cosmopolitanism
Kristof Van Assche, Petruţa Teampău, 2015-05-15 This book offers a unique perspective on cosmopolitanism examining the ways it is constructed and reconstructed on the small scale in an ongoing process of matching the local with the global a process entailing mutual transformation Based on a wide range of literatures and a series of case studies it analyzes the different versions and functions of cosmopolitanism and points to the need to critically re examine current conceptions of globalization The book first illustrates the interplay between networks and narratives in the construction of cosmopolitan communities in three specific cities Trieste Odessa and Tbilisi Each has a past more cosmopolitan than the present and each uses that cosmopolitan past to guide them towards the future Next the book focuses on narrative dynamics by isolating several discourses on the cosmopolitan place and figure in European cultural history It then goes on to detail the internal representations and local functions of larger wholes in smaller communities shedding a new light on issues of inter disciplinary interest self governance participation local knowledge social memory scale planning and development Of interest to political scientists anthropologists economists geographers and philosophers this book offers an insightful contribution to theories of globalization and global local interaction bringing the local discursive mechanics into sharper focus and also emphasizing the semi autonomous character of narrative constructions of self and community in a larger world

Understanding Postcolonialism Jane Hiddleston, 2014-12-05 Postcolonialism offers challenging and provocative ways of thinking about colonial and neocolonial power about self and other and about the discourses that perpetuate postcolonial inequality and violence Much of the seminal work in postcolonialism has been shaped by currents in philosophy notably Marxism and ethics Understanding Postcolonialism examines the philosophy of postcolonialism in order to reveal the often conflicting systems of thought which underpin it In so doing the book presents a reappraisal of the major postcolonial thinkers of the twentieth century Ranging beyond the narrow selection of theorists to which the field is often restricted the book explores the work of Fanon and Sartre Gandhi Nandy and the Subaltern Studies Group Foucault and Said Derrida and Bhabha Khatibi and Glissant and Spivak Mbembe and Mudimbe A clear and accessible introduction to the subject Understanding Postcolonialism reveals how almost half a century after decolonisation the complex relation between politics and ethics continues to shape postcolonial thought William James, Sciences of Mind, and Anti-Imperial Discourse Bernadette M. Baker, 2013-09-30 In the past few decades the humanities and social sciences have developed new methods of reorienting their conceptual frameworks in a world without frontiers In this book Bernadette M Baker offers an innovative approach to rethinking sciences of mind as they formed at the turn of the twentieth century via the concerns that have emerged at the turn of the twenty first The less visited texts of Harvard philosopher and psychologist William James provide a window into contemporary debates over principles of toleration anti imperial discourse and the nature of ethics Baker revisits Jamesian approaches to the formation of scientific objects including the child mind exceptional mental states and the merely focusing on the role of place and land in national representations the book adopts a wider and more critical approach to space in the arts by investigating the notions of both hybridity and Bhabha's Third Space in the fields of aesthetics film studies and literature with a particular emphasis on postcolonial literature
