

Current

Central Government

Controls many things that have local impacts – e.g. regional transport networks, regional planning decisions

Local councils

Can only raise money through council tax and have little say in regional decisions

Transfers powers and access to better funding

After devolution

Central Government

Controls national-level decision making

Strategic authorities

New regional duties and powers in:

- Funding and investment
- Transport and local infrastructure
- Skills and employment Housing and planning
- Economic development
- Environment and climate change
- Health and wellbeing
- Public safety

Local councils

Have representatives at the strategic authority, so can influence policy
