empirical and academic thinking this book focuses on generating awareness of the relationship forged between self and surroundings It details research undertaken at two coastal sites the South Wall in Dublin city and the Maharees peninsula in Co Kerry Ireland Sixty two participants were engaged in photography and drawing to enable this exploration of spatial experience The participants photographs and drawings present how spatial sensibilities can be revealed by becoming more attentive to the immediacy of bodily knowledge our more than cognitive experience Their communications resonate with the philosophers and theorists considered including Merleau Ponty Edward Casey Gilles Deleuze Dalibor Vesely and contemporary cultural geographers From exploring the experienced spatiality of the meeting of land and sea this book begins to suggest an alternative politics of the coast

The Sinister Side James Hall, 2008-10-23 The Sinister Side reveals a hidden symbolic language in the visual arts that of the perceived differences between the left and right sides of the body Long forgotten or misunderstood it is a symbolism that has been interpreted by artists differently through the centuries and that sheds new light on some of our greatest works of art
