Judicial Power and National Politics,

Second Edition Patricia J. Woods, 2017-02-21 In Judicial Power and National Politics Second Edition Patricia J Woods returns to an issue that has only grown in relevance since the first edition's publication in 2008 the religious secular conflict in Israel The first edition focused on the role that courts and justices play in deeply charged political battles In the last quarter of the twentieth century social groups turned to the judicial arm of the state in an effort to force the state to change its laws and policies on religious personal status law or family law Through an extensive case study of the interactions of the women's movement with the High Court of Justice Woods argues that the most important determining factor explaining when why and how national courts enter into the world of divisive politics is found in the intellectual or judicial communities with whom justices live work and think about the law The interaction among members of this community over time culminates in new legal norms This second edition takes into account what has happened in the past decade with public debate over religion and the state moving away from the court and into the realm of popular politics on the Knesset floor in the media in shopping malls and on the streets Included for the first time is the dataset for the author's national survey of women's movement volunteers

Sensing the Landscape Karis Jade Petty, 2025-03-10 This book examines how vision impaired walkers experience and engage with the English countryside through five sensory activities walking seeing listening seeing in the mind's eye and touching Journeying through woodland and fields the chapters reveal a landscape alive with memory the imagination and suffused with shifting temporalities Karis Jade Petty develops the concepts of inclusive sensoriality and sensorial emplacement which enable us to revise our understandings of the sensory organisations of experience animate conceptualisations of landscape and rethink self landscape relationality Reimagining notions of vision and the boundedness of the sensory body this book will be relevant to scholars from a number of disciplines including anthropology sociology geography visual studies disability studies and sensory studies more broadly

Forests and Landscapes Stephen Richard John Sheppard, Howard W. Harshaw, 2001-01-01 Forests are an important component in the visual appeal of landscapes There is an increasing recognition of the importance of this subject among foresters and environmental scientists Increasingly forest resource managers must consider the aesthetic consequences of timber harvesting operations and management plans This book is the first to address this subject area It consists of 15 chapters and is divided into four parts It brings together not only foresters and ecologists but also landscape architects psychologists and philosophers It should therefore attract a wide readership Contributors are leading research workers in their subjects from Canada the USA and UK New Lives of the Saints Rod Giblett, 2019-11-13 Presented here for the first time and for meditation and emulation are the words and work of many environmental apostles The words and work of each apostle are designed to delight and inspire the reader to begin or continue to lead a life of environmental action for conservation and contemplation of nature for spiritual succor in the age of climate change All the usual suspects are here such as St Francis Rachel Carson Aldo Leopold John Muir Henry David Thoreau and Judith Wright but New Lives of the Saints emphasizes some aspects of their words and work often ignored or overlooked such as Thoreau on swamps and Leopold on marshes Also included are some unusual and unexpected environmental apostles such as Walter Benjamin Raymond Williams Seamus Heaney and Paul Virilio all of whom contributed to green thinking as this book shows Other environmentally apostolic writers such as Walt Whitman Sidney Lanier Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft Felix Guattari and Kelly Barnhill are also discussed Beginning with two environmentally and animal friendly retellings of the legends of St George and St Margaret involving dragons the book goes on to devote a chapter each to ten other environmental apostles as patron saints of a special type of environment or of an approach to environmental conservation and contemplation These saints sing the song of the earth including its swamps marshes bogs fens national parks mountains forests oceans seas airs rivers reefs trees cities peoples places plants animals and so on They provide nurture for living a life of hope and symbiotic livelihood living sacrally with the earth New Lives of the Saints crosses the great divide between fiction and non fiction and mixes the genres of story and essay It is a ground breaking work of environmental counter theology for the symbiocene the hoped for age superseding the Anthropocene Cultural Landscape Report for the Sandy Hook Coastal Defense Batteries, Gateway National Recreation Area, Fort Hancock, New Jersey Timothy William Layton, 2010 Historic Landscapes and Mental Well-being Timothy Darvill, Kerry Barrass, Laura Drysdale, Vanessa Heaslip, Yvette Staelens, 2019-09-05 Using archaeological sites and historic landscapes to promote mental well being represents one of the most significant advances in archaeological resource management for many years Prompted by the Human Henge project Stonehenge Avebury World Heritage Site this volume provides an overview of work going on across Britain and the near Continent Drawing the Line Juliet Fall, 2017-11-30 This book provides the first comprehensive and critical examination of the spatial assumptions underpinning transboundary protected areas in Europe at a time of surging global enthusiasm in creating and managing such areas It explores how the reliance on the natural science approach to space within environmental planning has led to a return of exclusionary discourses in paradoxical contrast to the stated claims of designing peace parks The book builds a much needed link between the critical geopolitical literature on boundaries and social approaches to nature and hybridity Drawing the Line is theoretically informed yet grounded in substantial fieldwork from sites in France Germany Italy Poland Romania Slovakia and the Ukraine It uses material from the field to build and question theoretical debates moving beyond site specific issues to wider patterns and trends MCAT Critical Analysis and Reasoning Skills Review, 2nd Edition The Princeton Review,2016-01-05 Make sure you re studying with the most up to date prep materials Look for the newest edition of this title The Princeton Review MCAT Critical Analysis and Reasoning Skills Review 3rd Edition ISBN 9780593516249 on sale November 2022 Publisher s Note Products purchased from third party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality or authenticity and may not include access to online tests or materials included with the original product Landscape Theory Rachel DeLue,James Elkins,2010-10-28 Artistic representations of landscape are studied widely in areas ranging from art history to geography to sociology This book brings together more than fifty scholars from many disciplines to establish new ways of thinking about landscape in art Carl Sandburg Home National Historic Site (N.H.S.), General Management Plan ,2003
