From Museum Critique to the Critical Museum Katarzyna Murawska-Muthesius, Piotr Piotrowski, 2016-03-03 Since the late nineteenth century museums have been cited as tools of imperialism and colonialism as strongholds of patriarchalism masculinism homophobia and xenophobia and accused both of elitism and commercialism But could the museum absorb and benefit from its critique turning into a critical museum into the site of resistance rather than ritual This book looks at the ways in which the museum could use its collections its cultural authority its auratic space and resources to give voice to the underprivileged and to take an active part in contemporary and at times controversial issues Drawing together both major museum professionals and academics it examines the theoretical concept of the critical museum and uses case studies of engaged art institutions from different parts of the world It reaches beyond the usual focus on western Europe America and the World including voices from as well as about eastern European museums which have rarely been discussed in museum studies books so far

Curating Art Janet

Marstine, Oscar Ho Hing Kay, 2021-12-30 Curating Art provides insight into some of the most socially and politically impactful curating of historical and contemporary art since the late 1990s. It offers up a museological framework for understanding watershed developments of curating in art museums. Representing the plurality of theory and practice around the expanded field of relational curating, the book focuses on curating that prioritises the quality of relationships between people and objects between institutions and people and among people. It has wide international breadth with particularly strong representation in East and Southeast Asia including four papers never before translated into English. This Asian cluster illuminates the globalisation of the field and challenges dichotomies of East and West while acknowledging distinctions within specific but often transnational cultural spheres. The compelling philosophical perspectives and case studies included within Curating Art will be of interest to students and researchers studying curating, exhibition development and art museums. The book will also inspire current and emerging curators to pose challenging but important questions about their own practice and the relationships that this work sustains.

Figuration/Abstraction Charlotte Benton, 2017-07-05 The notion that the practice of abstraction was confined to Western Europe while a stereotyped form of figuration defined the art of the Eastern bloc continues to dominate art historical accounts of public sculpture of the post war period. This book offers a number of alternative readings and demonstrates strategic uses of figuration and abstraction across East and West. Encompassing sites of memory including war memorials and Holocaust memorials, state civic and corporate sculpture as well as temporary and unexecuted projects, the book shows that persuasive advocates of figuration were to be found in the West while in the East imaginative experiments in abstraction were proposed in the name of Social Realism. Presenting fresh insights into sculptural practice in the period between 1945 and 1968, this book brings together a wide range of authors, some of whom have never before been published in English. Their essays are complemented by extracts from documentary texts which give a flavour of contemporary debates and a biographical section includes entries on many sculptors who will be unfamiliar to an English speaking audience.
