National Civic Review Spring 1997 Healthy Communities:

Healthy People in Healthy Communities ,2001      A National Overview for Economic Action Beyond 2000 ,2000      The Post-corporate World David C. Korten,1999 A noted social critic and the author of When Corporations Rule the World offers a practical human centered alternative to global capitalism run amok      Community Collaboration Erica Lenore Kohl,1999
Sustainable Community Economic Development Siew Lian Tan,2000      Capitalism is Not Democracy: Replacing capitalism with cosmopolitanism H. Raymond Samuels II.,H. Raymond Samuels, 2nd,2005      Quantum Economics Horace Carby,2003      Journal of Public Affairs Education ,2007      The Nonprofit Sector Walter W. Powell,Richard Steinberg,2006-01-01 Provides a multi disciplinary survey of nonprofit organizations and their role and function in society This book also examines the nature of philanthropic behaviours and an array of organizations international issues social science theories and insight      The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil,Michael S. Reisch,Mary L. Ohmer,2013
Written by some of the most influential scholars in the field this Handbook covers community development organizing planning and social change as well as key issues fields of practice and global approaches      Health Care Restructuring Lois Morton,2001 Competitive health care markets are unable to produce the health status goals Americans have set for themselves Market driven health care replaces health status goals with profitability goals Competitive markets can only respond to the biomedical model of health care services They can t alter structural characteristics of poverty disease and injury that are the root sources of health care costs and health status outcomes Civic community a variation of civil society offers a third way as opposed to markets and government command systems of restructuring health care by addressing the root causes of the current system s shortcomings When given space to act civic community is able to set new rules and guidelines that mediate and redirect excessive competitive markets and an intrusive government Civic community is a conscious undertaking by individuals within and across multiple organizations to through dialogue and actions shape the function of society in this case the restructuring of the health care function In civic community organizations set aside self interest to achieve a common interest allocation of scarce resources for the public good Dr Morton an assistant professor of sociology examines large scale processes and regionalized response to changing health care environments Empirical findings case studies and archival documents support her contention that the civic community model can provide governments with a road map for setting regulations monitoring and enforcing practices relating to baseline health care and provider and insurer behaviors When the automatic behavior of health care markets is directed and channeled by civic community there is emerging evidence that preferred health outcomes at affordable prices are possible      Communities in Action National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Health and Medicine Division,Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice,Committee on Community-Based Solutions to Promote Health Equity in the United States,2017-03-27 In the United States some populations suffer from far greater disparities in health than others Those disparities are caused not only by fundamental differences in health status across segments of the population but also because of inequities in factors that impact health status so called determinants of health Only part of an individual s health status depends on his or her behavior and choice community wide problems like poverty unemployment poor education inadequate housing poor public transportation interpersonal violence and decaying neighborhoods also contribute to health inequities as well as the historic and ongoing interplay of structures policies and norms that shape lives When these factors are not optimal in a community it does not mean they are intractable such inequities can be mitigated by social policies that can shape health in powerful ways Communities in Action Pathways to Health Equity seeks to delineate the causes of and the solutions to health inequities in the United States This report focuses on what communities can do to promote health equity what actions are needed by the many and varied stakeholders that are part of communities or support them as well as the root causes and structural barriers that need to be overcome

Local Government and the States: Autonomy, Politics and Policy David R.
