Nudds, Charles William Pettitt, 1997 Blue Poles Thomas McIlroy, 2025-02-26 The captivating story behind the iconic Blue Poles the painter the process the patronage the politics and the national scandal In 1973 Blue Poles the iconic painting by America's great abstract expressionist Jackson Pollock was acquired by the Australian government for A$1.4 million. This record setting price for an artwork sparked a media sensation and controversy both in Australia and the United States. Blue Poles Jackson Pollock Gough Whitlam and the painting that changed a nation details how Jackson Pollock rose to fame the negotiations that led to the artwork's move to the National Gallery of Australia and the many successes and turbulent turns in between. This story covers Pollock's entrance into an art circle which included renowned patron Peggy Guggenheim as well as his relationship with artist Lee Krasner and the larger than life accounts that surrounded his artistic practice including questions around the creation of Blue Poles. It was Gough Whitlam's commitment to the arts and cultural capital that would see the painting move to another continent where the media feasted on stories of its cost and brows were raised over its merit. The value of Blue Poles to the Australian art and museum landscape was yet to be foreseen. Journalist Tom McIlroy tells a compelling account of one of Australia's most prized paintings which stirred up many storms from the time of its creation to its placement in the NGA.

Building the Collection National Gallery of Australia, Pauline Green, 2003. Australia's national art collection largely took shape in the short period between the late 1960s when the National Gallery project received the official go ahead from government and the building's opening in 1982. Published 20 years after that opening these essays tell how the various collections came into being and continue to evolve. Authors include the Gallery's first three directors James Mollison Betty Churcher and Brian Kennedy while other participants close to the collections formations provide commentary and stories as varied insightful and interesting as the collections themselves.

Arthur Boyd & Saint Francis of Assisi Margaret Pont, 2004. Arthur Boyd 1920-1999 produced numerous artworks based on the life and legends of St Francis of Assisi. This volume examines each of the artworks in detail and each is reproduced the pastels and tapestries in full colour. It also includes a discussion of the significance of St Francis in Italy and key Italian artistic renderings of the saint.

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08. Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia s contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally Dick Watkins Mary Eagle,2024-09-17 Dick Watkins belongs to the generation of artists whose careers were launched at the high flying end of American based Abstraction Almost immediately he faced up to the abrupt end of the Modern era Culture was no longer to be framed by progress In 1970 taking stock of the situation he announced that he was a copyist there being no such thing as a new creation in art shaped as it was by visual languages Nor did he intend to limit his curiosity about the relation of art to life by restricting himself to a personal style There followed a long and passionately adventurous exploration into many subjects and styles during which Watkins was often the first to signal changes taking place in Western culture The result is that for half a century he has been a major if controversial figure in Australian art Blooms and Brushstrokes Penelope Curtin,Tansy Curtin,2019-04-29 Blooms and Brushstrokes takes you on a unique journey through the history of Australian art one flower at a time examining the blooms depicted in still lifes floral portraits decorative interiors and botanical illustrations by a long line of Australian artists Mother and daughter team Penelope and Tansy Curtin start this fascinating journey in the late eighteenth century when the traditions adhering to the Western art canon were transplanted into the newly colonised Australia They follow it through the rapidly developing artistic styles of the early twentieth century to the new media of the contemporary period These works of art also shine a light on the role and importance of plants and flowers in everyday life They illustrate changing floral fashions as well as highlighting flowers in their various forms cut flowers pot plants and gardens And along the way you ll encounter many of Australia s most significant artists including John Glover Arthur Streeton Margaret Preston Grace Cossington Smith John Brack and Margaret Olley as well as some of Australia s most beautiful and sometimes intriguing native flora such as the waratah and Sturt s desert pea not to mention perennial garden favourites like roses sweet peas and daisies Spectacular intimate engaging and meticulously researched and full of interesting and quirky facts about the flowers and the artists themselves Blooms and Brushstrokes is a book for art flower and history lovers alike Rosalie Gascoigne Martin Gascoigne,2019-09-16 Rosalie Gascoigne 1917 1999 was a highly regarded Australian artist whose assemblages of found materials embraced landscape still life minimalism arte povera and installations She was 57 when she had her first exhibition Behind this late coming out lay a long and unusual preparation in looking at nature for its aesthetic qualities collecting found objects making flower arrangements and practising ikebana Her art found an appreciative audience from the start She was a people person and it pleased her that through her exhibiting

Hunting the Collectors Susan Cochrane,Max Quanchi,2014-11-10 This volume investigates Pacific collections held in Australian museums art galleries and archives and the diverse group of 19th and 20th century collectors responsible for their acquisition The nineteen essays reveal varied personal and institutional motivations that eventually led to the conservation preservation and exhibition in Australia of a remarkable archive of Pacific Island material objects art and crafts photographs and documents Hunting the Collectors benchmarks the importance of Pacific Collections in Australia and is a timely contribution to the worldwide renaissance of interest in Oceanic arts and cultures The essays suggest that the custodial role is not fixed and immutable but fluctuates with the perceived importance of the collection which in turn fluctuates with the level of national interest in the Pacific neighbourhood This cyclical rise and fall of Australian interest in the Pacific Islands means many of the valuable early collections in state and later national repositories and institutions have been rarely exhibited or published But as the authors note enthusiastic museum anthropologists curators collection managers and university based scholars across Australia and worldwide have persisted with research on material collected in the Pacific This volume is a very important one for anyone studying the art and material culture of the Pacific It focuses on collections now in Australia Even those well versed in museum collections from the Pacific will learn about many important but little known collectors as well as better known figures like the anthropologists F E Williams and Thomas Farrell the husband of Queen Emma This will be a treat for students and specialist alike Professor Robert L Welsch University of Dartmouth
