Behind the Bits Frank M. Oppenheim, Helen Swift, 1998 Behind the Bits provides a broad overview of the media field addressing all areas but focusing on television and the driving forces behind it The authors unveil the interlocking network that structures power in the media world business government and the increasingly concentrated upper echelons of the media itself Beginning with an examination of truth in advertising the discussion moves to an analysis of news editing and the different forces behind the release of information to the public through the media Also analyzed is the increasing effect of electronic technology on the media and where it may be headed in the next century The book's practical nature provides questions for discussion with each chapter and suggestions for a more critical evaluative attitude toward the media

Crafting Contemporary Documentaries and Docuseries for Global Screens Phoebe Hart, 2024-01-08 This book explores the industrial and personal challenges faced by filmmakers in bringing the current worldwide craze for documentary films and series to screens small and large Utilizing a number of case studies drawn from in depth interviews with acclaimed documentary directors producers and screenwriters from around the world Phoebe Hart offers a thematic analysis to reveal the risks and opportunities for practitioners Hart examines these themes in the context of current scholarship to provide insight into the modes and methods of making factual screen content as she engages with the documentary form and the marking of it acquisition of mastery and inspiration and specific rituals and habits of practice From the unique vantage point of being a practitioner that is being both a successful documentary filmmaker and a recognized screen researcher and teacher Hart ultimately argues for greater support of filmmakers and pursuit of a deeper understanding of creative processes

Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001 ,2001 The Environmental Documentary John A. Duvall, 2017-05-18 The Environmental Documentary provides the first extensive coverage of the most important environmental films of the decade including their approach to their topics and their impacts on public opinion and political debate While documentaries with themes of environmental activism date back at least to Pare Lorenz's films of the 1930's no previous decade has produced the number and quality of films that engage environmental issues from an activist viewpoint The convergence of high profile issues like climate change fossil fuel depletion animal abuse and corporate malfeasance has combined with the miniaturization of high quality recording equipment and the expansion of documentary programming to produce an unprecedented number of important and influential documentary productions The text examines the processes of production and distribution that have produced this explosion in documentaries The films range from a high profile Hollywood production with theatrical distribution like An Inconvenient Truth to shorter independently produced films like The End of Suburbia that have reached a small audience of activists through video distribution interviews with many of the filmmakers and word of mouth Photography and Australia Helen Ennis, 2007 Photography and Australia focuses on those aspects of photographic practice that can be considered distinctively Australian It argues that the colonial experience has been crucial in shaping photographers concerns Places In the Heart Susan Kurosawa, 2012-03-01 It can be as intangible and fleeting as watching an iceberg crowded with basking seals slide by or a deep and powerful childhood memory of spine tingling excitement as a holiday destination is reached Either way the heart is touched An indelible impression is made that place that moment lives forever PLACES IN THE HEART spans the globe and embraces several decades Memories of golden childhoods celebrations of special corners of Australia love affairs with foreign fields pilgrimages back to mother countries and passion for unique cuisines result in a rich mix of anecdote memoir history social comment and fun This collection of travel writing
