PHILLIPS, Philip Warren THAYER, 1956 Nationalism and progress in free Asia, ed Philip Warren Thayer, Nationalism and Progress in Free Asia Johns Hopkins University, 1956 Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare, 2012 Driven by Growth James William Morley, 2015-04-08 A thoroughly revised and updated edition of the highly regarded 1993 book Driven by Growth this work presents the political economic evolution of the Asia Pacific countries with overviews of the impact of economic development on political change This new edition now includes chapters on Burma and Vietnam New authors have been added and all the original chapters have been revised Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare American University (Washington, D.C.). Special Operations Research Office, Paul A. Jureidini, 1962 Asia Milton W. Meyer, 2000-01-01 This comprehensive introduction to Asia offers readers a clear overview of the continent from ancient times to the present The North And South Korean Political Systems Sung Chul Yang, 2019-09-12 A comparative look at North and South Korea's political and economic institutions and processes and an examination of their evolution since 1945 Problems such as leadership succession democratization nuclear weapons education and reunification are explored Rethinking the Russo-Japanese War, 1904-5, 2007-05-17 Despite the growing number of publications on the Russo Japanese War an abundance of questions and issues related to this topic remain unsolved or call for a reexamination This 30 chapter volume the first in the two volume project Rethinking the Russo Japanese War provides a comprehensive reexamination of the origins of the conflict the various dimensions of the nineteen month conflagration the legacy of the war and its place in the history of the twentieth century Such an enterprise is not only timely but unique It has benefited from a multinational team of thirty two scholars from twelve nations representing a broad disciplinary background The majority of them focus on topics never researched before and without exception provide a novel and critical view of the war This reexamination is of course facilitated by a century long perspective as well as an impressive assortment of primary and secondary sources many of them unexplored and in a number of cases unavailable earlier The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices

Southeast Asian Tribes, Minorities, and Nations, Volume 1 Peter Kunstadter, 2017-03-14 A major source of political instability in Southeast Asia has been ethnic diversity and the lack of congruence between ethnic distributions and national boundaries Here twenty specialists base their papers largely on original field work in Burma China India Laos Malaysia Thailand and Vietnam Contrary to the usual picture of tribal people as isolated homogeneous stable and conservative the papers show tribesmen are often a dynamic force in the modern history of Southeast Asian states Descriptions of tribal life and government programs together with charts tables maps and photographs give a wealth of data Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Pacific Historical Review Anna Marie Hager, 1976 Party Politics in Southeast Asia Dirk Tomsa, Andreas Ufen, 2013 Contributing to the growing discourse on political parties in Asia this book looks at parties in Southeast Asia's most competitive electoral democracies of Indonesia Thailand and the Philippines It highlights the diverse dynamics of party politics in the region and provides new insights into organizational structures mobilizational strategies and the multiple dimensions of linkages between political parties and their voters The book focuses on the prominence of clientelistic practices and strategies both within parties as well as between parties and their voters It demonstrates that clientelism is extremely versatile and can take many forms ranging from traditional personalized relationships between a patron and a client to the modern reincarnations of broker driven network clientelism that is often based on more anonymous relations The book also discusses how contemporary political parties often combine clientelistic practices with more formal patterns of organization and communication thus raising questions about neat analytical dichotomies Straddling the intersection between political science and area studies this book is of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Southeast Asian politics and political scientists and Asian Studies specialists with a broader research interest in comparative democratization studies

Modern Nationalism: Towards a Consensus in Theory

Konstantin Symmons-Symonolewicz, 1968

The Dynamics of the Western New Guinea Problem Robert C. Bone, 2009

Considering its importance the dispute between Indonesia and the Netherlands over Western New Guinea Irian Barat has received little scholarly attention Highly tendentious treatment has characterized most writing concerning the issue and those who would seek a full and unvarnished account have been little instructed In so far as the press has been concerned with the problem its attention has been largely focused on U N debates and on current statements by the spokesmen of the countries involved Slight effort has been made either by journalists or by those who have professed a more scholarly approach to dig into the relevant historical background or to give any full account of the contemporary factors which shape this problem In what is the first major study of the dispute Dr Robert C Bone has to a remarkable degree offset these deficiencies His report is by far the most substantial and thorough yet to appear and it is the precursor to a considerably more comprehensive monograph on this subject to be printed in 1960 Having a substantial knowledge of the modern history and contemporary politics of Indonesia and the Netherlands with at least two years of residence in each of these countries and a command of both their languages and having devoted two years of sustained research to the problem of Western New Guinea he is perhaps uniquely qualified to write this study George McT Kahin About the Author Prior to embarking on an academic career Robert C Bone served as Political Officer in the American Embassy in The Hague from 1947 to 1949 and as Senior Political Officer in the American Embassy in Djakarta from 1951 to 1953 In 1954 he resigned from the Foreign Service and entered Cornell University as a fellow in its Southeast Asia Program From January through September 1956 he carried out research in the Netherlands under a fellowship from the Ford Foundation He received his Ph D degree from Cornell University in 1957 and has since then been Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science at Tulane University
