experimentations with nationalisms of various kinds religious linguistic religious linguistic composite plural and exclusivist In all the region s major states officially promulgated nationalism at various times has been fiercely contested by minority groups intent on preserving what they see as the pristine purity of their own cultural inheritance This volume examines the perspective of minority identities as they negotiate their terms of co existence accommodation and adaptation with several other competing identities within the framework of the nation state in South Asia It examines three different kinds of minority articulations cultural conclave with real or fictitious attachments to an imaginary homeland the identity problems of dispersed minorities with no territorial claims and the aspirations of indigenous communities tribes or ethnicities The essays in this volume offer a rich menu the evolution of Naga nationalism the construction of the territory less Sylheti identity the debates over Pashtun nationalism in Pakistan the evolution of Muslim nationalism in Sri Lanka the politics of religious minorities in Bangladesh and Pakistan the making of minority politics in India and questions of Islam and nationalism in colonial India It is an eclectic mix for students of nationalism politics modern history and anyone interested in the evolution of South Asia This book was published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture

Government Policies and Ethnic Relations in Asia and the Pacific Michael E. Brown, Sumit Ganguly, 1997-10-20 Efforts to contend with tensions inherent in multiethnic societies case studies of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia Ethnic conflict one of the most serious and widespread problems in the world today can undermine efforts to promote political and economic development as well as political economic and social justice It can also lead to violence and open warfare producing horrifying levels of death and destruction Although government policies on ethnic issues often have profound effects on a country the subject has been neglected by most scholars and analysts This volume analyzes different policies governments have pursued in their efforts to contend with the tensions inherent in multiethnic societies The book focuses on Asia and the Pacific the most populous and economically vibrant part of the world The heart of the book is a set of case studies of government policies in sixteen countries India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia The studies consider a wide range of political economic educational linguistic and cultural policies and how these policies have evolved over time Using a broad comparative perspective to assess the effectiveness of different governmental approaches the authors offer policy recommendations that cut across individual countries and regions

Regional Powers and Small State Security K. M. De Silva, 1995 Regional Powers and Small State Security recounts India s involvement in the affairs of its much smaller neighbor Sri Lanka over the question of Tamil separatists in the northern and eastern parts of the island

Ethnic and Racial Minorities in Asia Michelle Ann Miller, 2014-02-25 Ethnic and Racial Minorities in Asia explores the relationship between ethnic minority rights and citizenship in Asia Occupying a prominent place on the global map of conflict Asia is one of the most ethnically diverse and racially divided regions in the world It is also the scene of some of the most contrasting state responses to ethnic and racial conflicts ranging from violent military repression and coercion on the one hand to offers of autonomy and other forms of self rule aimed at granting minorities more equal and inclusive citizenship on the other This volume combines conceptual debates about citizenship with case studies of ethnic minorities from across the Asian region with a particular emphasis on Southeast Asia The contributing authors question the nature of citizenship in the broader sense of identity belonging and the rights and responsibilities of ethnic minorities in relation to sovereign nation states They examine a wide range of key issues including minority rights claims ethnic and racial conflict citizenship constructions and representations of identity post colonialism and human security This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Ethnicities and Nations Remo Guidieri, Francesco

Pellizzi, Stanley Jeyaraja Tambiah, 1988 Ethnic Subnationalist Insurgencies in South Asia Jugdep S.

Chima, 2015-03-24 This book provides a micro historical analysis of the emergence and contemporary dynamics of recent ethnic sub nationalist insurgencies in South Asia Using comparative case studies it discusses the causes of each insurgency analyses the trajectory and dynamics of each including attempts at resolution and highlights the wider theories of ethno nationalist insurgency and mobilization Bringing together an international group of contributors the book covers insurgencies in India Sri Lanka Pakistan Nepal and Bangladesh It questions why ethnic sub nationalist insurgencies occurred at particular points in time and not at others and explores the comparative trajectories of these movements The book goes on to discern reappearing patterns of conflict escalation de escalation through the method of comparative process tracing It argues that while identity is a necessary factor for insurgency it is not a sufficient one Instead ethnic mobilization and insurgency only emerge when it is activated by tension emerging from political competition between ethnic and central state elites These elite led dynamics when combined with favourable socio economic and political conditions make the ethnic masses primed to accept the often symbolically rich appeals from their leaders to mobilize against the central state Providing an important study on ethno nationalist insurgencies in South Asia the book will be of interest to those working in the fields of South Asian Politics Security Studies and Ethnic Conflict Multination States in Asia Jacques Bertrand, Andre

Laliberte, 2010-03-22 As countries in Asia try to create unified polities many face challenges from minority groups within their own borders seeking independence This volume brings together international experts on countries in all regions of Asia to debate how differently they have responded to this problem Why have some Asian countries for example clamped down on their national minorities in favour of homogeneity whereas others have been willing to accommodate statehood or at least some form of political autonomy Together they suggest broad patterns and explanatory factors that are rooted in the domestic arena including state structure and regime type as well as historical trajectories In particular they find that the paths to independence as well as the cultural elements that have been selected to define post colonial identities have decisively influenced state strategies Southeast Asian Journal of Social Science ,1988 International Security Studies□Volume 3□Number 2□Winter 2017□ TAO Jian,2017-12-01 Taking Ethno-Cultural Diversity Seriously in Constitutional Design Solomon A. Dersso,2012-11-08 Despite decades of nation building exercise ethnic based claims for substantive equality justice and equitable political inclusion and socio economic order continue to result in communal rivalries These are claims that define and represent the issue of minorities in Africa of which these conflicts are manifestations Although ethnic conflicts in Africa have been a subject of a large number of studies the potential and role of norms on minority rights to address claims that ethno cultural groups raise has not received the attention it deserves Based on materials from normative political theory and international human rights law and using an empirical and prescriptive analysis this book defends a robust system of minority rights built around culture equality and self determination This is employed to elaborate an adequate constitutional design providing policy frameworks multilingual language policy recognition and affirmation of cultural diversity structures that ensure just representation and participation of members of all groups and norms that guarantee substantive equality and the rights to language religion and culture The study then proffers two cases studies South Africa and Ethiopia to ascertain how such constitutional design might be translated into actual policy frameworks institutions and norms The Nature of Asian Politics Bruce Gilley,2014-09-15 The Nature of Asian Politics is a broad and thematic treatment of the fundamental factors that characterize politics in the fourteen key countries of Southeast and Northeast Asia Bruce Gilley begins with an overview of state society relations then moves on to the fundamental questions of development and democracy and finally shifts to an exploration of governance and public policy in the region This book proposes an Asian governance model that is useful for understanding politics from Japan to Indonesia By reviving an earlier paradigm known as oriental despotism and applying it to political theories on the Asian region this book is likely to attract wide debate among students of Asian politics and among Western policy makers seeking to engage the region

The Madhesi Upsurge and the Contested Idea of Nepal Kalpana Jha,2017-03-20 This book is set against the burning issue of ethnic uprisings in the Madhes region of Nepal and analyses debates on the idea of contemporary Nepal The limited view of Nepal as a primarily hill nation with Nepali speaking people ignores the vast ethnic and linguistic diversity of the country It has particularly rendered stateless the Madhesi community which inhabits the plains bordering India and shares closer cultural affinity and marital ties across the border Increasing demands for ethnic and territorial autonomy by the Madhesis suggest the need for redefining the idea of Nepal and establishing Madhesi identity as Nepali identity while at the same time addressing the deeply contested idea of regional versus social identity in the region This book uses narratives from the Madhesi community including from prominent Madhesi analysts and activists to define their identity as well as their aspirations in a democratic Nepal It also provides a perspective on the internal dynamics of caste and language of this region and their possible impact on consolidating ethnic identities in Nepal
