disputes over their use One only has to recall examples s Coastal Ecosystems of the Tropics - Adaptive Management Velmurugan Ayyam, Swarnam Palanivel, Sivaperuman Chandrakasan, 2019-10-11 The coastal areas of the tropics are rich in biodiversity natural resources and place of intensive developmental activities as it provides livelihood to millions of people At the same time evidences suggest that several unique coastal ecosystems viz mangroves wetlands salt marshes corals estuaries sand dunes and agro ecosystem are vulnerable to natural disasters and events associated with global climate change In recent times degradation of land water and genetic erosion besides threat to native flora and fauna have been increasing due to unsustainable developmental activities Therefore a paradigm shift in deriving livelihood through conventional methods developmental strategies conservation practices are required for balanced and sustainable growth of the coastal areas This publication strives to cover the status of different natural resources of the coastal region various aspects of degradation process production need and restorative methods besides new technological options and its socio economic implications with case examples Special focus is given to bring out the scope and potential of mangrove based farming integrated and organic farming and its value addition besides the role of coastal vegetations as bioshield in protecting these regions from sea erosion cyclones and tsunami As the tropical coastal areas are vulnerable to climate change events this book also covers the recent weather pattern impacts of climate change and climate resilient technologies besides intuitional linkages and policy framework aimed at balancing development and environmental concerns Building a Regime for the Waters of the Euphrates-Tigris River Basin Aysegul Kibaroglu, 2021-10-18 Due to a variety of reasons water resources on the globe are becoming scarcer The degree of water scarcity and its political economic and social implications are felt more severely in regions like the Middle East The Euphrates Tigris river basin is one of the major sources of water but also a source of tension in the region Unless cooperation is achieved among the riparian countries namely Turkey Syria and Iraq in the areas of management allocation and utilisation of the waters of the Euphrates Tigris basin growing scarcity may result not only in conflict but also in further devastation of an extremely vital source Recently water has become a subject matter of international law and formal and informal deliberations in international conferences have produced general principles and norms for using and managing water resources effectively Hence this book is an attempt to put together a meaningful set of principles norms rules and decision making procedures of a region specific regime framework for effective utilisation of the waters of the Euphrates Tigris river basin with a view to promoting cooperation among the riparian countries Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy K. Hanson, G. Kararach, T. Shaw, 2012-04-05 Covers topical issues for Africa s development economics and politics of climate change water management public service delivery and delivering aid The authors argue that these issues should be included in the post MDG paradigm and add an important voice to recent moves by academics and practitioners to engage with each other Dictionary Catalog of the Department Library United States.
