Immigrant Acts Lisa Lowe,1996 Argues that understanding Asian immigration to the United States is fundamental to understanding the racialized economic and political foundations of the nation Lowe discusses the contradictions whereby Asians have been included in the workplaces and markets of the U S nation state yet through exclusion laws and bars from citizenship have been distanced from the terrain of national culture In this uniquely interdisciplinary study Lowe examines the historical political cultural and aesthetic meanings of immigration in relation to Asian Americans back cover

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman,Brad J. Porfilio,2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and dis ability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production

Spring, 2001 A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EDUCATION OF DOMINATED CULTURES IN THE U S ECO-FEMINISM NATURE-WOMEN SOLIDARITY Gülhan KARADAĞ AĞKURT, With the industrialization and capitalist exploitation system affecting nearly every part of the world the image of Mother Earth once closely connected with nature and revered by ancient civilizations has almost disappeared Women once the wise stewards of the earth have become the first victims of nature's destruction now owning only about 1% of the land under patriarchy For women working in small family run businesses based on subsistence economies and dependent on the land the protection of the land has become synonymous with the preservation of the life they are a part of However ecofeminists continue to be inspired by the privileged position women once held in ancient civilizations and are working to restore the destroyed nature acting as if they are its protectors Although the environmental threat which has become a global issue is often equated with the pollution of the material environment unless it is seen as a result of spiritual pollution and insatiable greed which approaches natural heritage from a materialistic and profit driven perspective real solutions will not go beyond a utopia White Man's Work Joseph O. Jewell, 2023-11-07 In the financial chaos of the last few decades increasing wealth inequality has shaken people's expectations about middle class stability At the same time demographers have predicted the browning of the nation's middle class once considered a de facto white category over the next twenty years as the country becomes increasingly racially diverse In this book Joseph O Jewell takes us back to the turn of the twentieth century to show how evidence of middle class mobility among Black Mexican American and Chinese men generated both new anxieties and varieties of backlash among white populations Blending cultural history and historical sociology Jewell chronicles the continually evolving narratives that linked whiteness with middle class mobility and middle class manhood In doing so Jewell addresses a key issue in the historical sociology of race how racialized groups demarcate defend and alter social positions in overlapping hierarchies of race class and gender New racist narratives about non white men occupying middle class occupations emerged in cities across the nation at the turn of the century These stories helped to shore up white supremacy in the face of far reaching changes to the nation's racialized economic order Deculturalization

and the Struggle for Equality Joel H. Spring, 2007 Providing a history of Anglo American racism and school policies affecting dominated groups in the US this text looks at educational practices related to deculturalisation and segregation It is for Foundations of Education Multicultural Education or any course that seeks to expand student notions of the US education
