Returns of Agricultural Statistics of British India and the Native State of Mysore, 1904 Index Catalogue of the Parliamentary Papers in the Public Reference Library Newcastle upon Tyne (England). Public libraries, Joseph Walton, 1915 Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission Martha Frederiks, Dorottya Nagy, 2021-06-22 This selection of texts introduces students and researchers to the multi and interdisciplinary field of mission history It appraises them with current discussions insights and theories The four parts of this book acquaint the readers with methodological considerations and recurring themes in the academic study of the history of mission Part one revolves around methods part two documents approaches while parts three and four consist of thematic clusters such as mission and language medical mission mission and education women and mission mission and politics and mission and art The text selection represents a wide variety of disciplines authors and backgrounds The texts were chosen because they address the complexities involved in studying the history of Christian mission Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission is suitable for course work and other educational purposes Indigenous Peoples of the British Dominions and the First World War Timothy C. Winegard, 2011-11-03 The first comprehensive examination and comparison of the indigenous peoples of the five British dominions during the First World War South West Africa Cases (Ethiopia and Liberia V. the Republic of South Africa) South Africa, 1964 German Rule, African Subjects Jürgen Zimmerer, 2021-06-11 Although it lasted only thirty years German colonial rule dramatically transformed South West Africa The colonial government not only committed the first genocide of the twentieth century against the Herero and Nama but in their efforts to establish a model colony and racial state they brought about even more destructive and long lasting consequences In this now classic study available here for the first time in English the author provides an indispensable account of Germany's colonial utopia in what is present day Namibia showing how the highly rationalized planning of Wilhelmine authorities ultimately failed even as it added to the profound immiseration of the African population Russian Rule in Samarkand 1868-1910 Alexander Morrison, 2008-09-11 Russian Rule in Samarkand examines the structures personnel and ideologies of Russian imperialism in Turkestan taking Samarkand and the surrounding region as a case study The creation of a colonial administration in Central Asia presented Russia with similar problems to those faced by the British in India but different approaches to governance meant that the two regimes often stood in stark contrast to one another While the Russian administration was characterised by corruption and inefficiency British rule in India was often more violent and its subjects much more heavily taxed Opening with the background to the political situation in Central Asia and a narrative of the Russian conquest itself the book moves on to analyse official attitudes to Islam and to pre colonial elites and the earliest attempts to establish a functioning system of revenue collection Uncovering the religious and ethnic composition of the military bureaucracy and the social background education and training of its personnel Alexander Morrison assesses the competence of these officers vis vis their Anglo

Indian counterparts Subsequent chapters look at the role of the so called native administration in governing the countryside and collecting taxes the attempt to administer the complex systems of irrigation leading from the Zarafshan and Syr Darya rivers and the nature and functions of the Islamic judiciary under colonial rule Based on extensive archival research in Russia India and Uzbekistan and containing much rare source material translated from the original Russian Russian Rule in Samarkand will be of interest to all those interested in the history of the Russian Empire and European Imperialism more generally
