Natives and Strangers Leonard Dinnerstein, Roger L. Nichols, David M. Reimers, 1979 Concentration on the different immigrant waves Irish Poles Italians Germans Mexicans and their impact on America and the impact on US Gov Indian relations Natives and Strangers Leonard Dinnerstein, 1981 Natives and Strangers Leonard Dinnerstein, Roger L. Nichols, David M. Reimers, 1990 Brought completely up to date to reflect recent scholarship and the new wave of immigration to the United States in the last decade the second edition of this immensely popular book highlights a much neglected dimension of the American past by giving a unique focus to the history of the nation's minority groups Within the context of the country's economic development the authors show how blacks Indians and immigrant minorities helped transform an agrarian society into the modern industrial urban nation of the 1990s Remarkable in the breadth of its coverage this is the first survey that integrates the experiences of racial religious and ethnic minorities to present an overall sense of American history while illuminating major trends in the growth of the United States The Second Edition includes entirely new material on Indian efforts to retain their cultural independence and their attempts to shape relations with the majority society The book also new data on recent refugees and current immigration legislation Written in the same clear straightforward style that made the previous edition so popular the Second Edition which features many well chosen illustrations will be essential reading for students of American ethnic history

Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2000 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own
