A Companion to the Literatures of Colonial America Susan Castillo,Ivy Schweitzer,2008-04-15 This broad introduction to Colonial American literatures brings out the comparative and transatlantic nature of the writing of this period and highlights the interactions between native non scribal groups and Europeans that helped to shape early American writing. Situates the writing of this period in its various historical and cultural contexts including colonialism, imperialism, diaspora, and nation formation. Highlights interactions between native non scribal groups and Europeans during the early centuries of exploration. Covers a wide range of approaches to defining and reading early American writing. Looks at the development of regional spheres of influence in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Serves as a vital adjunct to Castillo and Schweitzer's The Literatures of Colonial America: An Anthology (Blackwell Publishing, 2001).

Revelation in the Vernacular Jean-Pierre Ruiz, 2023-12-05. Association of Catholic Publishers 2022 Excellence in Publishing Awards First Place Theology. Catholic Media Association Honorable Mention in Theology. Morality, Ethics, Christology, Mariology, and Redemption. Unveiling divine mysteries across continents and centuries. Revelation in the Vernacular retrieves a hermeneutics of the vernacular that is rooted in lo cotidiano in everyday life and experience. Traversing time and geography, Ruiz remaps a theology of revelation done latinamente beginning with sixteenth-century encounters of Spanish colonizers with Indigenous peoples in the Caribbean. Drawing on the theology of the Incarnation articulated by Fray Luis de León (1527-91), he offers rich resources for interreligious engagement by believers in today's religiously diverse world. Through an analysis of the documents of the 2019 Amazonian Synod, including Querida Amazonia, the Postsynodal Exhortation by Pope Francis, he explores a culture of encounter and dialogue that has been a hallmark of this pontificate. From the inscriptions in the caves of la Isla de Mona through the writings of the Latin American Bishops' Conference (CELAM), this book establishes a solid basis on which to discern the Seeds of the Word in our times.

Between Encyclopedia and Chorography Anna Boroffka, 2022-10-03. During the early modern period, regional specified compendia which combine information on local moral and natural history, towns, and fortifications with historiography, antiquarianism, images, series, or maps, gain a new agency in the production of knowledge. Via literary and aesthetic practices, the compilations construct a display of regional specified knowledge. In some cases, this display of regional knowledge is presented as a display of a local cultural identity and is linked to early modern practices of comparing and classifying civilizations. At the core of the publication are compendia on the Americas, which research has described as chorographies, encyclopedias, or more recently, cultural encyclopaedias. Studies on Asian and European encyclopedias, universal histories, and chorographies help to contextualize the American examples in the broader field of an early modern and transcultural knowledge production which inherits and modifies the ancient and medieval tradition.
