Preaching The Parables Series Iii Cycle B:

Preaching the Parables Dallas A. Brauninger, 2003 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary persons with mundane concerns about the kingdom of God and because these simple stories contain universal truth that transcends time and culture they still strike a powerful chord with us nearly two millennia later Preaching the Parables provides a gold mine of background material on each of the eighteen parables appearing in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary Dallas Brauninger brings a fresh imaginative approach to these familiar texts probing them to reveal what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for us today Preaching the Parables is more than just a sermon preparation resource it is also stimulating reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of how God speaks to us through the parables Modeled on the format of Brauninger's popular Preaching the Miracles series each chapter in Preaching the Parables includes five sections Text the entire parable text is reproduced eliminating the need to flip back and forth to a Bible What's Happening a synopsis of points of action within the story defining its movement conflict and change or resolution Spadework significant terms are examined through a survey of Hebrew and New Testament writings Parallel Scripture similarities and differences with parallel stories in the other Gospels are highlighted where the story is unique parallel words and concepts are examined Chat Room readers are creatively engaged in a variety of imaginary online exchanges ranging from interviews with parable characters to browsing ideas to self driven conversations This permission giving resource encourages the reader to develop questions for the text It is the kind of yeast that gives rise to new shades and flavors of meaning Preaching the Parables nourishes a fresh receptivity to the speaking of the Spirit of God in the lectionary passage and in life Nancy B Rohde Interim Pastor Charlevoix United Church of Christ Charlevoix Michigan What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text The succinct but substantive Spadework Parallel Scripture and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables Brauninger's writing will afford the reader many Ahas Diana Coberly Pastor First Congregational United Church of Christ Great Bend Kansas Dallas A Brauninger a cum laude graduate of Albion College received her Master of Divinity degree and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer she has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska Brauninger is the recipient of denominational honor for outstanding ministry to persons with disabilities and their families and she is the editor of That All May Worship And Serve her denomination's national disabilities ministry newsletter She and her husband both ordained ministers in the United Church of Christ live in Friend Nebraska

Preaching the Parables, Series III, Cycle B Dallas A. Brauninger, 2005 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary people with common problems yet because these simple stories contain universal truths that transcend time and culture they still strike a powerful chord and provide us with important lessons about God's kingdom Preaching the Parables offers a gold mine of informative background material on each of the seven parables appearing in Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary Dallas

Brauninger probes these familiar texts with a fresh imaginative viewpoint revealing what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for modern living Preaching the Parables is much more than just a sermon preparation resource it s also an excellent Bible study tool exploring questions like What dimension of the soul that needs tending does the parable address What is the parable s surprise What moves us into hope How does its point become obvious How do its characters relate to us today Brauninger identifies points of action examines significant terms and engages in imaginary exchanges with a variety of characters The complete text of each parable is also included along with an analysis highlighting similarities and differences in parallel passages And there s a convenient word study index for locating key concepts from parables in all three lectionary cycles What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text The succinct but substantive Spadework Parallel Scripture and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables Brauninger s writing will afford the reader many Ahas Diana Coberly Pastor First Congregational United Church of Christ Great Bend Kansas This permission giving resource encourages the reader to develop questions for the text It s the kind of yeast which gives rise to new shades and flavors of meaning Preaching the Parables nourishes a fresh receptivity to the speaking of the Spirit of God in the lectionary passage and in life Nancy B Rohde United Church of Christ minister Charlevoix Michigan Dallas A Brauninger a cum laude graduate of Albion College holds M Div and honorary D Div degrees from Chicago Theological Seminary She is the author of numerous CSS preaching and worship resources including the Preaching the Miracles series and the Lectionary Worship Aids series Co pastor with her husband Robert of a congregation in Burwell Nebraska Brauninger is currently engaged in the Pastoral Excellence Program of the United Church of Christ s Nebraska Conference

Preaching the Parables William E. Keeney, 1995 Parables provide insights and lessons which are timeless When they are employed in preaching the hearer receives images that are easy to remember Preaching the Parables provides a means of communicating the teachings of Jesus for modern Christians With each parable Keeney includes a Scripture Text so readers don t have to refer to the Bible b Theme c Context 1 of the church year 2 of the passage or verse 3 of the other lections for the day 4 of the scriptures 5 of the pericope d Contemplation e Homily Hints f Point of Contact g Points to Ponder h Illustrative Materials William Keeney holds a Ph D from Hartford Seminary Hartford Connecticut He has been Assistant to the President and professor of Bible and Religion at Bluffton College Bluffton Ohio and Provost and professor of Bible and Religion at Bethel College in Kansas He has also taught Peace and Conflict Studies at Kent State University Kent Ohio In addition to teaching he has served pastorates in Connecticut Kansas and Ohio

Preaching the Parables William E. Keeney, 1996-01-01 Though based in the culture of first century Palestine the parables Jesus told use everyday situations to illustrate timeless lessons and they offer vivid easy to remember imagery So putting the parables in a context modern Christians can understand is a powerful way to communicate the teachings of Jesus This book helps preachers prime the pump with a wealth of informative material on each of the seven parables appearing in Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary Keeney's stimulating exegesis commentary and illustrations leads readers to draw their own insights and applications from these fascinating stories. The material for each parable includes the scripture text, a discussion of its context in the church year and related scripture passages, a list of key words, a contemplation of issues the parable addresses, homily hints, outlines, and ideas for preaching points of contact, several creative illustrations.

Preaching the Parables Dallas A. Brauninger, 2004-06 Jesus used his parables to teach ordinary persons with ordinary quandaries yet because these simple stories contain universal truths that transcend time and culture they still provide us with powerful lessons. Preaching the Parables provides a gold mine of background material on each of the fourteen parables appearing in Cycle A of the Revised Common Lectionary. Dallas Brauninger brings a fresh imaginative approach to these familiar texts, probing them to reveal what they tell us about God and inviting further reflection on what they mean for modern living. Much more than just a sermon preparation resource, Preaching the Parables explores questions like: What dimension of the soul that needs tending does the parable address? What is the parable's surprise? What moves us into hope? How does its point become obvious? How do its characters relate to us today? Brauninger identifies points of action, examines significant terms, and engages in imaginary exchanges with a variety of characters. The complete text of each parable is also included along with an analysis highlighting similarities and differences in parallel passages. Modeled on the format of Brauninger's popular Preaching the Miracles series, each chapter includes five sections: Text, What's Happening, Spadework, Parallel Scripture, and Chat Room. What a refreshingly helpful way to exegete the text. The succinct but substantive Spadework, Parallel Scripture, and Chat Room sections provide the preacher with an exciting array of ways to understand and give meaning to the parables. Brauninger's writing will afford the reader many Ahas. Diana Coberly, Pastor, First Congregational United Church of Christ, Great Bend, Kansas. Dallas A. Brauninger, a cum laude graduate of Albion College, received her Master of Divinity degree and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary. She is the author of numerous CSS worship resources, including the Preaching the Miracles series and the Lectionary Worship Aids series. Co-pastor with her husband Robert of a congregation in Burwell, Nebraska. Brauninger is currently engaged in the Pastoral Excellence Program of the United Church of Christ's Nebraska Conference. Preaching the Parables John R.

Brokhoff, 1987-06 The parables of Jesus are timeless stories and with the current popularity of narrative preaching the parables are a familiar topic in the contemporary pulpit. But preaching on the parables is not as easy as it looks at first glance. Should we simply tell the parable in our own words and let it stand on its own feet, or is its lesson most effectively communicated by constructing a sermon around the central theme? Or should the preacher spiritualize the parable by probing for allegorical meaning? Master homiletician John Brokhoff aids preachers in answering these key questions with rigorous and enlightening background information on parables from Mark and John appearing in Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary. He offers not only exegesis and interpretation for each passage but also rich material for sermon development.

suggested outlining approaches and preaching illustrations Parables included are The Doorkeeper Mark 13 32 37 The Good Shepherd John 10 11 18 The True Vine John 15 1 8 A Strong Man Mark 3 20 25 The Miracle Seed Mark 4 26 34 Bread To Eat John 6 35 41 51 Eat The Bread John 6 51 58 A popular preacher teacher and writer John R Brokhoff served as Professor of Homiletics at Candler School of Theology Emory University from 1965 to 1979 Prior to that he pastored Lutheran congregations in Virginia Georgia North Carolina and Pennsylvania Brokhoff is the recipient of the George Washington medal from the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge Pennsylvania and is the author of many CSS titles including This You Can Believe and Pray Like Jesus Parables for Preachers: Year B. The Gospel of Mark Barbara E. Reid, 1999 The parables of Jesus are puzzling sayings and stories with world transforming potential Parables for Preachers offers an understanding of how parables work and a fresh variety of possible meanings not only for Jesus s original audience and for the early Christians for whom Matthew Mark and Luke wrote but also for contemporary Christians as well The Gospel parables are analyzed in the order in which they appear in the Lectionary making this book an indispensable resource for preachers teachers catechists liturgy planners and Bible study groups Barbara Reid is Professor of New Testament at Catholic Theological Union Chicago She is the author of Matthew in the New Collegeville Bible Commentary series as well as Choosing the Better Part Women in the Gospel of Luke both published by Liturgical Press Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series II: Cycle B Perry H. of Christian teaching this book highlights the many variations and points of conflict across Middle English renditions of the same story In parables related to labour social inequality charity and penance the book locates a creative theological discourse through which writers attempted to re construct Christian belief and practice Analysis of these diverse retellings reveals not what a given parable meant in a definitive sense but rather how Middle English parables inscribe the ideologies power structures and cultural debates of late medieval Christianity Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997

Preaching Through the Christian Year: Year C Fred B. Craddock, John H. Hayes, Carl R. Holladay, Gene M. Tucker, 1994-11-01 This is the third and final volume in the comprehensive three volume set of commentaries on all of the lectionary texts for Sunday reading including the Psalms and for special days in all communions treating the readings for each year in a single volume The three volumes are based on The Common Lectionary 1992 together with other readings kept in the Episcopal Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches A complete index of texts is included in each volume making it useful for those who do not follow the lectionary or who are looking for commentaries on specific texts Continuing acclaim for the series There is no better one volume resource for the weekly task of preparing sermons grounded in biblical faith Over the course of the past year the four authors have become my good and trusted friends as they helped me find something to say that is both lively and true to the text The Rev Barbara Brown Taylor Grace Calvary Episcopal Church Clarkesville Georgia Simply put the best commentary series on the best lectionary An unusual blend of biblical and homiletical skills James F White Professor of Liturgy University of Notre Dame Its exegeses are well written and extremely helpful in preparing sermons I and my congregation are appreciative of this source I look forward to reading the next volume in the series and in the meantime I find myself continuing to browse through study reflect upon write in the margins of and otherwise use the previous volume The Rev Rebecca L Spencer Central Congregational Church Providence Rhode Island Professors Craddock Hayes Holladay and Tucker have already established themselves as insightful and helpful interpreters of the scriptures These volumes significantly broaden their previous contributions by embracing all the alternatives offered by the recent revision of The Common Lectionary The publishing values the convenience of a single volume a binding that lays flat and clear readable type make this an indispensable addition or replacement for the preacher s library The Rev Patrick J Willson St Stephen s Presbyterian Church Fort Worth Texas The authors of the outstanding series teach at Candler School of Theology Emory University All have published extensively in their respective fields of endeavors Fred B Craddock Professor of Preaching and New Testament John H Hayes Professor of Old Testament Carl R Holladay Professor of New Testament Gene M Tucker Professor of Old Testament Preaching Parables to Postmoderns Brian Stiller, 2005-01-01 Preachers in their call to preach the Scriptures are not only charged with the responsibility of speaking its truth but of speaking in such a way that people of this age and culture understand To do this the preacher builds a bridge between today s people and the gospel of both testaments For some this task is more difficult than for others Preaching to those living in an inner city housing project is far removed from an outpost mission in the two thirds world Each community has its own way of thinking and attaches different values to symbols of its own making For those called preach to a generation raised on MTV and late night comedians or those rooted in various economic cultures from government sponsored jobs overseen by union bosses to entrepreneurial dot com companies or generations stretching from high school students to freedom fifty fivers the task is enormous When one adds to that the complexity of a radical shift in underlying intellectual and cultural assumptions the task of preaching becomes even more complicated

Preaching the Gospels Without Blaming the Jews Ronald James Allen, Clark M. Williamson, 2004-01-01 In this commentary on the Gospel readings in the Revised Common Lectionary Allen and Williamson call attention to ways in which the lections are continuous with the theology values and practices of Judaism and reflect critically on the caricatures in the readings They explain the polemics in their first century setting but criticize them historically and theologically They also suggest ways that preachers can help their congregations move beyond these contentious themes to a greater sense of kinship and shared mission with Judaism

BOOK JACKET

The Parables Dr. Paul Simpson Duke, 2010-09-01 Many resources have been written to offer assistance in exploring and understanding the lectionary texts for the purpose of preaching However few have sought to provide this kind of preaching commentary on texts that do not follow the lectionary's grouping For those whose preaching does not customarily follow the lectionary and for those who depart from the lectionary text during certain periods of the year little guidance has been offered for how to select and preach on important biblical texts

The Parables A Preaching Commentary the third book in The Great Texts series gives guidance to preachers on preaching about this central part of faith The principles by which volumes in The Great Texts series have been chosen are primarily two fold Thematic Texts on certain overarching themes or ideas of the Christian faith are brought together Biblical traditional Texts have long been recognized as belonging together and as being particularly beneficial to the work of preaching
