State Commission of Prisons,1911 Coxsackie Joseph F. Spillane,2014-05-29 Even handed and free of jargon a revealing account of how our criminal justice system operates on the ground level Edward D Berkowitz author of Mass Appeal Joseph F Spillane examines the failure of progressive reform in New York State by focusing on Coxsackie a New Deal reformatory built for young male offenders Opened in 1935 to serve adolescents adrift Coxsackie instead became an unstable and brutalizing prison From the start the liberal impulse underpinning the prison s mission was overwhelmed by challenges it was unequipped or unwilling to face drugs gangs and racial conflict Spillane draws on detailed prison records to reconstruct a life behind bars in which ungovernable young men posed constant challenges to racial and cultural order The New Deal order of the prison was unstable from the start the politics of punishment quickly became the politics of race and social exclusion and efforts to save liberal reform in postwar New York only deepened its failures In 1977 inmates took hostages to focus attention on their grievances The result was stricter discipline and an end to any pretense that Coxsackie was a reform institution In today s era of mass incarceration prisons have become conflict ridden warehouses and powerful symbols of racism and inequality This account challenges the conventional wisdom that America s prison crisis is of comparatively recent vintage showing instead how a racial and punitive system of control emerged from the ashes of a progressive ideal Should be required reading for historians of juvenile and criminal corrections Presents a compelling cautionary tale that contemporary would be reformers ignore at their peril while offering important new insights for scholars
