Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen,S. Ramadevi,2002-01-01 A comparative look at the professional development of teachers and teacher educators Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen,S. Ramadevi,2012-02-01 Reeducating the Educator focuses on community building within teacher education programs in Canada Israel Australia and the United States Maintaining that communities have to be built and sustained the contributors discuss possible theoretical frameworks underlying community building and change and suggest that there is a need for teacher educators to go beyond localized experiences and reach out to one another in a global discussion Because of the impact of local cultures and histories key questions and issues vary from one country to another and even from one faculty to another but the resulting global conversation provides a greater understanding of the professional development of teachers and teacher educators

Year in the Life of a Third Space Urban Teacher Residency Monica Taylor, Emily J. Klein, 2015-12-01 This book weaves together voices of faculty residents mentors administrators community organizers and students who have lived together in a third space urban teacher residency program in Newark as they reinvent math and science teaching and teacher education through the lens of inquiry Each chapter includes narratives from multiple perspectives as well as tools we have used within the program to support and build change providing readers with both real cases of how an urban teacher residency can impact school systems and concrete tools and examples to help the reader understand and replicate aspects of the process Capturing both the successes but also the tensions and challenges we offer a kaleidoscopic view of the rich complex and multi layered ways in which multiple stakeholders work together to make enduring educational change in urban schools Our third space NMUTR has been a fragile utopian enterprise one that has relied on a shared commitment of all involved and a deep sense of hope that working collaboratively has the potential even if not perfect to make a difference Connecting

High-Quality Educators with Urban Students Sharon Hartin Iorio, 2017-09-18 Recent national attention has focused on the benefits of school university community partnerships to increase the pipeline of highly qualified teachers for urban students but little has been published about large scale partnerships This book about one urban teacher education partnership is written for those who want to plan direct work in or study a full scale pre K 12 school university and community partnership The book offers a comprehensive approach to urban teacher education Topics cover 1 recruitment 2 a large scale Professional Development School model e g 400 candidates per semester and an early childhood residency graduate program 20 candidates per cohort two partnership programs embracing all university preservice teacher candidates 3 induction support for new teachers and finally 4 professional development for candidates and experienced in service teachers Each of the six chapters show how the separate parts of teacher education can be interrelated to build a stronger more cohesive integrated system to serve teachers and ultimately Pre K 12 students A review and reflection on a single teacher education partnership this easy to use book is clearly documented by interviews five year evaluation outcomes and a retrospective analysis that embraces sociocultural themes Multicultural Strategies for Education and Social Change Arnetha F. Ball, 2006 This book describes a different approach to teacher education designed to create carriers of the torch teachers who have a sense of efficacy and the attitudes dispositions and skills necessary to teach students from diverse racial ethnic and linguistic backgrounds Through her examination of teacher change and teacher education in two countries the United States and South Africa the author proposes new ways to prepare teachers for a rapidly changing global society Presenting the story of a dynamically successful program that was developed and implemented with over a hundred U S and South African teachers this book shows us how to facilitate the development of teachers who see literacy as a tool for understanding and building upon student diversity in their classrooms restructure teacher education programs to cultivate teachers who are committed to teaching socially and economically disenfranchised students foster teachers interest in understanding the historical cultural political and economic circumstances and resources that students bring to the classroom and empower teachers to become agents of change and develop their own voices on critical issues relat
