Reel Power Mark Litwak,1994 A comprehensive look at how today s Hollywood works who has the power and how deals are made Drawing on interviews with more than 200 Hollywood insiders writers directors performers agents producers and journalists Litwak leads us through the maze of Hollywood politics Well written and filled with case histories of specific films Reel Power ears down myths and reveals the inner workings of the Hollywood film business New Hollywood Renate Hehr,2003-06-11 The surprising successes of Bonnie and Clyde The Graduate and Easy Rider in the late 60 s marked a turning point in the history of American cinema A period of artistic renewal began of a kind that had never been possible before in America Reel Power Matthew Alford,2010-08-06 Hollywood is often characterised as a stronghold of left liberal ideals In Reel Power Matthew Alford shows that it is in fact deeply complicit in serving the interests of the most regressive US corporate and political forces Films like Transformers Terminator Salvation and Black Hawk Down are constructed with Defence Department assistance as explicit cheerleaders for the US military but Matthew Alford also emphasises how so called radical films like Three Kings Hotel Rwanda and Avatar present watered down alternative visions of American politics that serve a similar function Reel Power is the first book to examine the internal workings of contemporary Hollywood as a politicised industry as well as scores of films across all genres No matter what the progressive impulses of some celebrities and artists Alford shows how they are part of a system that is hard wired to encourage American global supremacy and frequently the use of state violence Multiple Authorship and the Myth of Solitary Genius Jack Stillinger,1991 This is a study of the collaborative creation behind literary works that are usually considered the work of a single author Stillinger examines case histories from Keats Wordsworth Coleridge Mill and T S Eliot as well as from American fiction plays and films to demonstrate that multiple authorship is a widespread phenomenon Rock Star/Movie Star Landon Palmer,2020-06-30 During the mid 1950s when Hollywood found itself struggling to compete within an expanding entertainment media landscape certain producers and studios saw an opportunity in making films that showcased performances by rock n roll stars Rock stars eventually found cinema to be a useful space to extend their creative practices and the motion picture and recording industries increasingly saw cinematic rock stardom as a profitable means to connect multiple media properties Indeed casting rock stars for film provided a tool for bridging new relationships across media industries and practices From Elvis Presley to Madonna this book examines the casting rock stars in films In so doing Rock Star Movie Star offers a new perspective on the role of stardom within the convergence of media industries While hardly the first popular music culture to see its stars making the transition to screen the timing of rock s emergence and its staying power within popular culture proved fortuitous for a motion picture business searching for its place in the face of continuous technological and cultural change At the same time a post star system film industry provided a welcoming context for rock stars who have valued authenticity creative autonomy and personal expression This book uses illuminating archival resources to demonstrate how rock stars have often proven themselves to be prominent film workers exploring this terrain of platforms old and new ideal media laborers whose power lies in the fact that they are rarely recognized as such Combining star studies with media industry studies this book proposes an integrated methodology for writing media history that combines the actions of individuals and the practices of industries It demonstrates how stars have operated as both the gravitational center of media production as well as social actors who have taken on a decisive role in the purposes to which their images are used

Motion Picture Biographies John Cones, 2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry
