Reflections on Reformational Theology Kimlyn J. Bender, 2021-07-29 The essays in this volume examine some of the fundamental doctrinal convictions of Martin Luther and the Reformation legacy as well as the maturation and development of these convictions in the theology of Karl Barth. The broad evangelical vision that spans its various confessional tributaries is presented in the essays of this volume. Together these studies serve as a cumulative argument for the ongoing coherence, meaning, and consequence of that vision, one that at its heart is constructive and ecumenical rather than narrowly polemical. Kimlyn J. Bender examines a variety of topics such as the relation of Christ and the Church as understood in the theology of Luther and Barth, the centrality of Christ to an understanding of all the solas of the Reformation, the place and significance of the Reformers in Barth's own thought, and Barth's theology in conversation with distant descendants of the Reformation often neglected, including Baptists in America, Pietists in Europe, and Barth's own complicated relationship with Kierkegaard. Bender concludes his discussion by presenting constructive proposals for a Church and university on the way and thus ever reforming.

A Time for Reflection Jason Cannon, 2025-02-04 A fascinating look back at the incredible lives and careers of baseball Hall of Famers Willie McCovey and Billy Williams. Professional baseball has featured a bevy of superstars over the past century and a half, but only a few of them have impacted their sport and cities as deeply as Willie McCovey and Billy Williams. Born just a handful of miles apart in 1938, they grew up in and around one of the sport's true cradles, Mobile, Alabama, on their way to producing two iconic careers in Major League Baseball. In A Time for Reflection: The Parallel Legacies of Baseball Icons Willie McCovey and Billy Williams, Jason Cannon examines these two legends of the game. Overcoming the heinous racism of the Jim Crow South as part of the second generation of African American major leaguers who followed in the footsteps of Jackie Robinson, they became two of baseball's all-time greatest players. Off the field, they took impactful stands for racial progress that continue to resonate today. Their personal resolve, leadership in the clubhouse, and dedication to their baseball communities endeared them to teammates and fans alike. Featuring original interviews with family members, friends, teammates, and Williams himself, A Time for Reflection brings to life their monumental accomplishments on the diamond while also detailing how McCovey and Williams grew into pillars of San Francisco and Chicago and inspired future generations of ballplayers.

Reflection in Action Kimberly A. Kline, 2023-07-03 This guidebook aims to stimulate student affairs professionals and higher education faculty alike to adopt new approaches when discussing sensitive or controversial topics with their students. It provides teachers and professionals with a critical social understanding of social justice, social agency, reflection, and actionable knowledge to develop new and effective skills, practice them in safe spaces, and apply them in the field. It offers tools that are equally applicable in a classroom or cocurricular setting. The exceptional teachers, scholars, and professionals contributing to this volume provide a diverse and alternative lens through which to examine the intersection of social justice, education, and professional practice.

The text is organized in three overarching themes Part One Existing Theories Examining Claims and Proposing New Understandings Part Two Concrete Tools and Safe Spaces for Practicing Difficult Dialogues in Professional Practice and Part Three Professional Development Action Research and Social Agency In Part Four Moving Forward the book concludes with a chapter on implications for daily life and practice The action oriented research model provides strategies and frameworks for using social science research to engage in critical social and educational problem solving The emphasis is on moving colleges and universities to widen their moral and ethical lenses beyond understanding diversity to developing multicultural competence and enriching their campus communities Written for faculty in higher education and student affairs professionals along with master s and doctoral students in these fields this book provides a framework that is grounded in research and sound pedagogies and theories

Refusals and Reflections ,2024-11-04 Though qualitative research methods shape scholarship around the globe and institutions worldwide offer qualitative coursework there is very little explicit discussion on how to effectively teach qualitative research Instead a standard approach is for instructors to gain in depth expertise in qualitative methodologies with little or no pedagogical training The effect is a continuous and nearly exclusive emphasis on content knowledge that undermines the preparation of novice researchers as both teachers and learners This book works to fill that gap by offering perspectives strategies and applications from instructor and student perspectives based on a semester long class emphasizing social justice in qualitative research This edited volume offers sections on pedagogical strategies students responses to and applications of those concepts and then instructor reflections The goal is to offer an important starting point for explicit discussions on how qualitative research might be taught and learned in addition to how it might be thoughtfully and ethically conducted Contributors are Erica T Campbell Sun Young Gu Kelsey H Guy Aimee J Hackney April M Jones Alison N Kearley Caran Kennedy Amon Neely Cowan Allyson Pitzel Diana Quito Erin E Rich Stephanie Anne Shelton Ashley Salter Virgin and Venus Trevaee Watson

Deep South Allison Davis,Burleigh Bradford Gardner,Mary R. Gardner,2009 First published in 1941 Deep South is the cooperative effort of a team of social anthropologists to document the economic racial and cultural character of the Jim Crow South through a study of a representative rural Mississippi community Researchers Allison Davis Burleigh B Gardner and Mary R Gardner lived among the people of Natchez Mississippi as they investigated how class and caste informed daily life in a typical southern community This Southern Classics edition of their study offers contemporary students of history a provocative collection of primary material gathered by conscientious and well trained participant observers who found then as now intertwined social and economic inequalities at the root of racial tensions Expanding on earlier studies of community stratification by social class researchers in the Deep South Project introduced the additional concept of caste which parsed a community through rigid social ranks assigned at birth and unalterable through life a concept readily identifiable in the racial divisions of the Jim Crow South As African American researchers Davis and his wife Elizabeth along with his assistant St Clair Drake were able to gain unrivaled access to the black community in rural Mississippi unavailable to their white counterparts Through their interviews and experiences the authors vividly capture the nuances in caste enforcing systems of tenant landlord relations local government and law enforcement But the chief achievement of Deep South is its rich analysis of how the southern economic system and sharecropping in particular functioned to maintain rigid caste divisions along racial lines In the new introduction to this edition Jennifer Jensen Wallach situates this germinal study within the field of social anthropology and against the backdrop of similar community studies of the era She also details the subsequent careers of this distinguished team of researchers Studies in Short Fiction ,1977 Rearview Mirror Reflections Frances Wright,2013-03-15

Rearview Mirror Reflections depicts the family biographical reflections of one who was born and reared in the Deep South during the late 1940s This narrative presents a collection of illuminating short stories and incidents that reveals the delightful difficult and sometimes complicated experiences of my childhood These informative reflected stories events people and places were collected as the remembrance of them flowed from my richly endowed memories However the presentation of them will not always be arranged in the order in which these experiences occurred Life has a way of beckoning at us from our past Reflections of it show up as bright as the noonday sun alluding to the fact that it has in some way shaped our present day Experiences and lessons learned stare toward us with clear perceptions of those former days The joys and the sorrows of our family still stand out as markers of progressiveness and accomplishments Nowhere has it been known of as having a childhood such as ours As I was growing up I did not have anything to compare my life with So I simply accepted things as they were Nevertheless my growing up years holds many fond memories that I would not have traded for anything else Therefore many of my reflections may seem somewhat amusing and maybe incredible to believe by some or even a bit absurd Nevertheless they all identify my youth as I reflect upon my childhood It is my hope that you will enjoy reading my family biographical reflections as well as I did in sharing them with you Reflection Point Emily March,2013-03-26 In beloved author Emily March s novel about a special place and its remarkable residents a woman betrayed by life discovers the healing power of love in Eternity Springs Savannah Moore arrives in Eternity Springs alone determined to put her troubled past behind her Her handcrafted soap shop fits right in with the magic of this warm and welcoming community but the sexy suspicious local sheriff promises to upset her hard won happiness Zach Turner knows this woman means trouble Maybe to his town Possibly to his friends Definitely to his heart Something about this simmering Southern beauty does crazy things to his committed bachelor status taunting him with possibilities far beyond his dedication to his sometimes dangerous job So when Savannah s dark past follows her to town wreaking havoc with both their lives Zach will fight for all he s worth for a love he can t afford to lose Includes an excerpt from Emily March s Eternity Springs novel Miracle Road Praise for Emily March and Reflection Point Eternity Springs is a small town in the Colorado Rockies populated with people I delight in visiting again and again New York Times bestselling author Susan Mallery With passion romance and revealing moments that

Rambles of a Runaway from Southern Slavery Henry Goings, 2012-03-05

Rambles of a Runaway from Southern Slavery tells of an extraordinary life in and out of slavery in the United States and Canada Born Elijah Turner in the Virginia Tidewater circa 1810 the author eventually procured freedom papers from a man he resembled and took the man's name Henry Goings His life story takes us on an epic journey traveling from his Virginia birthplace through the cotton kingdom of the Lower South and upon his escape from slavery through Tennessee and Kentucky then on to the Great Lakes region of the North and to Canada His Rambles show that slaves were found not only in fields but also on the nation's roads and rivers perpetually in motion in massive coffles or as solitary runaways A freedom narrative as well as a slave narrative this compact yet detailed book illustrates many important developments in antebellum America such as the large scale forced migration of enslaved people from long established slave societies in the eastern United States to new settlements on the cotton frontier the political economic processes that framed that migration and the accompanying human anguish Goings's life and reflections serve as important primary documents of African American life and of American national expansion the Civil War and Reconstruction This edition features an informative and insightful introduction by Calvin Schermerhorn

The Plague Years Michael Titlestad, Karl van Wyk, Grace A. Musila, 2022-08-15 The Plague Years collects scholarly and essayistic reflections on literary visual and sonic representations of the COVID 19 and other pandemics These are placed alongside poetry and short fiction written in the first two years of quarantine or isolation This range expresses the intellectual and imaginative struggle and ingenuity entailed in coming to terms with the rampant spread of disease and its emotional cultural and political consequences The contributions are from diverse contexts Africa from Egypt to South Africa China Japan the US and Scandinavia They consider some of the array of contemporary engagements poems translated from Mandarin about the traumas of the frontline Chinese calligraphic poetry printed on cartoons of PPE comments on the literary history of representing epidemics and pandemics political analyses of the post truth present and the role of life writing and gaming in an interrupted world Given the generative and creative obliquity of many of its parts this collection shifts how one thinks about the diseased present and the archival pasts on which it draws The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of English Studies in Africa Approaches to Teaching Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Lynn Domina,2024-07-13 One of the most commonly taught slave narratives Harriet Jacobs s Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl is rightly celebrated for its progressive and distinctive appeals to dismantle the dehumanizing system of American slavery Depicting the abuse Jacobs experienced her years in hiding and her escape to the North the work evokes sympathy for Jacobs as a woman and a mother Today it continues to inform readers about gender and sexuality power and justice and Black identity in the United States Part 1 of this volume Materials discusses different editions of the work and suggests background readings The essays in part 2 Approaches explore Jacobs s literary techniques and influences drawing on autobiography theory medical humanities and theology among other perspectives Contributors also propose pairings with historical and recent literary works as well as teaching approaches involving visual arts geography archives digital humanities and service learning Paws for Reflection M.R.
