Reform Of Baptism And Confirmation In American Lutheranism:

The Reform of Baptism and Confirmation in American Lutheranism Jeffrey A. Truscott, 2003-10-28 This resource examines the historical and theological background of the rites used for baptism and confirmation in the Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism

Johnson,2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kieran McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul

Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come. The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West. It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation. Maxwell E. Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church, including two chapters that explore the pre-Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail. Revisiting the theology of baptism, this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions. Finally, recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches, particularly Lutheran, as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics, made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today. Maxwell E. Johnson, PhD, is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water: Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation (Liturgical Press, 1995) and the revised and expanded edition of E. C. Whitaker: Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy (Liturgical Press and S. P. C. K., 2003), to which this study serves as a companion volume.

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10. The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political, social, cultural, and religious process. Most historians agree, however, that in the framework of this process, it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church, decadent and irrelevant in many ways, that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion. Among these reforming religious and theological forces, the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one. It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther (1483-1546) that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond. Today, Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia, Papua New Guinea, Madagascar, and Surinam. The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues, historical developments of Lutheranism, worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement, and activities of worship and liturgy, spirituality, social ethics, interreligious and Jewish relations, Lutheranism and the arts, theology, and important representatives of Lutheranism. This is done through a detailed chronology, an introductory essay, an appendix of Lutheran Churches, a bibliography, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism.

The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015. The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial and liturgical theology, examining the body of Christ in action. Maxwell E. Johnson provides in this volume historical and doctrinal thinking on a diversity of liturgical subjects under the umbrella of Lutheran liturgical theology in ecumenical conversation. From baptismal spirituality to Eucharistic concerns, the volume offers a robust account of the liturgical, sacramental, and spiritual practices of the church for scholars, students, pastors, and others who seek to minister in an ecumenical context with increased understanding and insight Introduction to Christian Liturgy Frank C. Senn, 2012

Wood, 2009-07-01 Most Christians would say that baptism is the one sacrament Christians of all denominations share that it is the source of ecumenical unity among all Christian churches But how true is that Is there really one baptism as we profess in the Nicene Creed If we disagree about what baptism does can we really say that baptism unites us To address this central question Susan Wood brings together the history and theology of baptism systematic sacramental and liturgical focusing especially on the divergent paths taken in the understanding of the sacrament since the Reformation Founded not only in her study of theology but also in her years of participation in ecumenical dialogues her perspective will illuminate this problem for readers and point the way toward deeper understanding Baptism Today Thomas F. Best, 2008 Our common belonging to Christ through baptism creates a bond that transcends the historic and theological differences among the churches and the mutual recognition of baptism has emerged as a cornerstone of the modern ecumenical movement Yet significant differences some threatening the search for the unity of the Church remain This book explores the significance of baptism for the churches and the ecumenical movement today Descriptive articles explain the understanding and practice of baptism within a wide range of Christian churches and confessions these are complemented by baptismal liturgies from many churches examples of mutual recognition agreements and reflections on topics such as the role of baptism in increasingly secularized societies The volume is enhanced by survey articles by prominent liturgists reviewing the current opportunities and challenges facing the churches in the area of baptism This book will be an important resource for all who wish to explore the understanding and practice of baptism and its role in the life of the churches and of the ecumenical movement today The Spirit in Worship-Worship in the Spirit Teresa Berger, Bryan D. Spinks, 2009-12-01 The Spirit in Worship Worship in the Spirit represents an essential contribution from the field of liturgical studies to the vibrant retrieval of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in contemporary theology The fifteen authors of this volume are scholars and practitioners from a wide range of traditions including Pentecostal and charismatic communities as well as voices from outside the modern West Together they articulate a richly diverse understanding of the presence of the Holy Spirit grounded both in the practice of worship and in the scholarly reflection that attends to this practice of faith Contributors include N T Wright Bishop of Durham U K Paul F Bradshaw University of Notre Dame Teresa Berger Yale University Maxwell E Johnson University of Notre Dame Teresa Berger is professor of liturgical studies at Yale s Institute of Sacred Music and at Yale Divinity School She holds doctorates in both dogmatic theology and liturgical studies

Her recent books include Women's Ways of Worship 1999 and Fragments of Real Presence 2005. She is also coproducer of the interactive CD ROM Ocean Psalms. Bryan D Spinks DD Dunelm UK is Goddard Professor of Liturgical Studies and Pastoral Theology at Yale Divinity School. He is the author of numerous books and articles and is coeditor of the Scottish Journal of Theology. Spinks is a former consultant to the Church of England Liturgical Commission, president emeritus of the Church Service Society of the Church of Scotland and a fellow of the Royal Historical Society. A Communion Sunday in Scotland ca. 1780 Robin A. Leaver, 2009-11-02. Sources for 17th, 18th and early 19th century Eucharistic practices in the Church of Scotland are scarce in part because each minister was free to draw up the form and content of the services he conducted. In addition, many 19th and 20th century liturgical scholars chose to dismiss this form of public worship instead focusing on the earlier tradition of the Book of Common Order. A Communion Sunday in Scotland ca. 1780 Liturgies and Sermons addresses the dearth of these liturgical studies by presenting a modern edition of a late 18th century published account of Communion Sunday in the Church of Scotland. Robin A. Leaver edits and annotates several sermons, prayers and congregational songs by the Reverend John Logan 1747-1788 together with relevant background information and comparative documents. Citing Logan's sermons, liturgies and psalms as a representative model, Leaver demonstrates that there was a developed liturgical structure and form in the Church of Scotland in which preaching, psalmody and prayer expressed Calvinist Presbyterian theology within established patterns of worship. Leaver also provides an overview of Scottish Eucharistic practices from the 16th to the 19th centuries. Appendixes offering a list of Scottish Psalm Tunes and a translation of the Palatine Liturgy 1563 are followed by a comprehensive bibliography, making this a valuable reference. Music and Theology Daniel Zager, 2006-12-13. The scholar Robin A. Leaver holds a unique place in sacred music scholarship because of his training in both music and theology. He has written widely, bringing acute insights on a variety of musical repertoires and topics related to Martin Luther, sixteenth century psalmody, hymnody and the sacred music of Johann Sebastian Bach. In Music and Theology, twelve scholars influenced by Leaver's work contribute essays in diverse areas of sacred music history and philosophy, focusing on the intersection of music and theology. Ranging chronologically from the twelfth century writer and composer Hildegard of Bingen 1098-1179 to present day considerations of American church music and worship, the volume provides thought-provoking new work for all who study church music. Reflecting the prominent emphasis in Leaver's own scholarship, eight chapters deal with the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, including his organ music, sacred cantatas and passion settings. A final chapter provides a chronological listing of Leaver's own voluminous writings on music and theology. Eucharistic Body Frank C. Senn, 2017-08-15. Building on his previous work on embodied liturgy, Frank C. Senn explores the relationship between the sacramental body and blood of Christ, the ecclesial body of Christ and the body of the communicant. Drawing on the richness of the eucharistic traditions and his own life experiences, this book expands our understandings of the Eucharist to include pilgrimage to the altar, ad altare Dei, a life of gratitude, anaphora, cosmology and praise, preface and Sanctus, body.
