The New Reform Judaism Dana Evan Kaplan, 2020-04-01 This is the book that American Jews and particularly American Reform Jews have been waiting for a clear and informed call for further reform in the Reform movement In light of profound demographic social and technological developments it has become increasingly clear that the Reform movement will need to make major changes to meet the needs of a quickly evolving American Jewish population Younger Americans in particular differ from previous generations in how they relate to organized religion often preferring to network through virtual groups or gather in informal settings of their own choosing Dana Evan Kaplan an American Reform Jew and pulpit rabbi argues that rather than focusing on the importance of loyalty to community Reform Judaism must determine how to engage the individual in a search for existential meaning It should move us toward a critical scholarly understanding of the Hebrew Bible that we may emerge with the perspectives required by a postmodern world Such a Reform Judaism can at once help us understand how the ancient world molded our most cherished religious traditions and guide us in addressing the increasingly complex social problems of our day Jewish Bible Theology Isaac Kalimi, 2012-01-01 This volume the first of its sort takes issue with scholars who believe that the terms biblical theology and Jews contradict rather than approximate each other Without saying so they automatically confirm Otto Procksch's assertion that alle Theologie ist Christologie In recent decades however there is increasing interest in earlier and current Jewish biblical theologies A new generation of Jewish scholars demonstrate great interest in and actively engage in Hebrew Bible theology They strive to make Jewish biblical theology a legitimate subdiscipline of biblical studies and develop it separately and independently from the Christian theology Also many Christian scholars are interested in understanding the Hebrew Bible Old Testament and its various themes from Jewish theological perspectives Thus in response to continual interest from all sides Isaac Kalimi presents this volume for the benefit of all Jewish Bible Theology comprises a number of essays that raise substantial methodological and historical questions while others focus on particular topics from the Torah Prophets and Writings Altogether they reflect fresh and current thinking on important issues in Jewish religious and intellectual world views

Jewish Influence on Christian Reform Movements Louis Israel Newman,1925 Thirty years of American Zionism Louis Lipsky,1927 Our Jewish Neighbors ,1927 Selected Works of Louis Lipsky: Thirty years of American Zionism Louis Lipsky,1927 The Americanization of Zionism, 1897-1948 Naomi Wiener Cohen,2003 The author demonstrates the uniqueness of American Zionism through a 50 year historical overview of the Jewish community in the United States and its relationship to its own government to European events and to political developments in the yishuv

Perspectives In Jewish Population Research Stephen M Cohen,Jonathan S Woocher,Bruce A Phillips,2019-07-11 Addressing methodological and substantive research problems common to local Jewish population studies the contributors to this book present the most recent research findings on such problems as how to design studies that will make a contribution to social science knowledge as well as have a strong impact on the planning process methods of sampling that will optimize the trade offs between costs and accuracy how to develop a comparative framework so that results from individual communities may be fruitfully understood in a larger context and which questions should be asked in surveys and how Detailed essays discuss every step of the research process The book includes a compendium of findings from several recent population studies as well as an annotated inventory of questionnaire items all of which should prove useful to researchers and communities planning to undertake Jewish population studies Zionism: Problems and Views Paul Goodman,Arthur D.
