Refractions Of Masculinity:

Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness, 2017-12-02 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804 1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sands novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sands fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sands novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority

Masculinity and the Paradox of Violence in American Fiction, 1950-75 Maggie McKinley, 2016-10-20 An examination of the relationship between violence and masculinity in works by Richard Wright Norman Mailer Saul Bellow James Baldwin and Philip Roth highlighting the inherent paradox whereby masculinity in this fiction is both asserted and undermined by acts of aggression

Politics of Chinese Language and Culture Bob Hodge, Kam Louie, 2012-11-12 An innovative text which adopts the tools of cultural studies to provide a fresh approach to the study of Chinese language culture and society The book tackles areas such as grammar language gender popular culture film and the Chinese diaspora and employs the concepts of social semiotics to extend the ideas of language and reading Covering a range of cultural texts it will help to break down the boundaries around the ideas and identities of East and West and provide a more relevant analysis of the Chinese and China

Andy Warhol's Blow Job Roy Grundmann, 2003 In this ground breaking and provocative book Roy Grundmann contends that Andy Warhol's notorious 1964 underground film Blow Job serves as rich allegory as well as suggestive metaphor for post war American society's relation to homosexuality Arguing that Blow Job epitomizes the highly complex position of gay invisibility and visibility Grundmann uses the film to explore the mechanisms that constructed pre Stonewall white gay male identity in popular culture high art science and ethnography Grundmann draws on discourses of art history film theory queer studies and cultural studies to situate Warhol's work at the nexus of Pop art portrait painting avant garde film and mainstream cinema His close textual analysis of the film probes into its ambiguities and the ways in which viewers respond to what is and what is not on screen Presenting rarely reproduced Warhol art and previously unpublished Ed Wallowitch photographs along with now iconic publicity shots of James Dean Grundmann establishes Blow Job as a consummate example of Warhol's highly insightful engagement with a broad range of representational codes of gender and sexuality Roy Grundmann is Assistant

Professor of Film Studies at Boston University and a contributing editor of Cineaste War-torn Tales Danielle Hipkins, Gill Plain, 2007 This book is the outcome of a successful workshop held in Leeds in September 2003 and explores the effects of World War II on the representation of gender in post war literature film and popular culture juxtaposing Western European experience with US Soviet and Japanese It aims to outline the different ways in which these representations evolved in post war attempts both to re establish social order and reconstruct national identity It gives the reader an overview of the similarities and differences that have emerged in the representation of war and gender in different cultures and media as a result of social expectations political change and individual artistic innovation The essays are linked by their concern with three key questions how are emotion and gender represented in relation to the experience of war what is the impact of war on the dynamic between the genders and as the memory of war recedes is it possible to identify chronological shifts in the artistic response to the conflict Philip Roth in Context Maggie McKinley, 2021-07-22 Written by leading scholars on Philip Roth from around the globe this book offers new insight into the various contexts that inform his body of work It opens with an overview of Roth s life and literary influences before turning to important critical geographical theoretical cultural and historical contexts It closes with focused meditations on the various iterations of Roth s legacy from the screen to international translations of his work to his signature stylistic imprint on American letters Together all of these chapters reveal Roth s range as a writer as he interrogates American national identity and history and explores the dimensions of the individual self Jyväskylä studies in the arts, 1995 The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Gender & Education Madeleine Arnot, Mairtin Mac An Ghaill, 2006-09-27 This new Reader brings together classic pieces of gender theory as well as examples of the sophistication of contemporary gender theory and research methodologies in the field of education Leading international gender researchers address current debates about gender power identity and culture and concerns about boys and girls schooling gender achievement patterns the boys education debate and gender relationships in the curriculum the classroom and youth cultures The Reader is divided into six sections which reflect contemporary concerns about Gender and Education Gender and Educational Theory Difference and Power Identity Work Knowledge and Pedagogy Reflexivity and Risk Gender and Citizenship A specially written Introduction from the editors both experts in feminist and masculinity research provides a much needed context to the current educational climate Undergraduates postgraduates and academics interested in education gender studies and women s studies will find this a stimulating and important resource The analysis of the gender dimensions of the curriculum teaching and alternative pedagogies also provide important insights for practitioners wishing to promote gender equality Routledge Handbook of Street Culture Jeffrey Ross, 2020-10-05 Discussions of street culture exist in a variety of academic disciplines yet a handbook that brings together the diversity of scholarship on this subject has yet to be produced The Routledge Handbook of Street Culture integrates and reviews current scholarship regarding the history types and contexts of the concept of street culture It is comprehensive and international in its treatment of the subject of street culture Street culture includes many subtypes situations locations and participants and these are explored in the various chapters included in this book Street culture varies based on numerous factors including capitalism market societies policing ethnicity and race but also advances in technology The book is divided into four major sections Actors and street culture Activities connected to street culture The centrality of crime to street culture and Representations of street culture Contributors are well respected and recognized international scholars in their fields They draw upon contemporary scholarship produced in the social sciences arts and humanities in order to communicate their understanding of street culture The book provides a comprehensive and accessible approach to the subject of street culture through the lens of an inter and or multidisciplinary perspective It is also intersectional in its approach and consideration of the subject and phenomenon of street culture

Young Black Street Masculinities Brendan King,2022-02-12 This book describes how young Black men on a disadvantaged housing estate in London navigate the estate s expectations for their behaviour as they operate within a street code that endorses violence knife carrying and challenging masculinity This street code informs the men s masculine identities by promoting values of misogyny violence and the possession of expensive material objects while subduing any performance or features deemed as weak or feminine Chapters detail the daily pressure on young men to gain respect and perform the estate s street code while also providing examples of young men who have escaped or rejected its influence King also outlines how youth workers can support those trapped by the estate s street code by embodying personalised or caring masculinity features that seek to transform the dominant masculinity

Love's Refraction Jillian Deri,2015-01-01 In Love s Refraction Jillian Deri explores the distinctive question of how and why polyamorists people who practice consensual non monogamy manage jealousy Her focus is on the polyamorist concept of compersion taking pleasure in a lover s other romantic and sexual encounters

New Versions of Pastoral David James,Philip Tew,2009 Bringing together both established and emerging scholars of the long nineteenth century literary modernism landscape and hemispheric studies and contemporary fiction New Versions of Pastoral offers a historically wide ranging account of the Bucolic tradition tracing the formal diversity of pastoral writing up to the present day Dividing its analytic focus between periods the volume contextualizes a wide range of exemplary practitioners genres and movements contributors attend to early modernism s vacillation between critiquing and aestheticizing the rise of primitivist nostalgia the ambiguous mythologization of the English estate by the twentieth century manor house novel and the post national revisiting of the countryside and its sovereign status in contemporary imaginings of regional life

The Dressing Room Desirée J. Garcia,2025-01-14 A recurrent and popular setting in American cinema the dressing room has captured the imaginations of filmmakers and audiences for over a century In The Dressing Room Backstage Lives and American Film the only book length study of the space author Desirée J Garcia explores how dressing rooms are dynamic realms in which a diverse cast of performers are made and exposed Garcia analyzes the backstage film which spans film history modes and genre to show how dressing rooms have been a useful space for filmmakers to examine the performativity of American life From the Black maid to the wife and mother to the leading man dressing rooms navigate shape and challenge society's norms The stakes are high in dressing rooms Garcia argues because they rehearse larger questions about identity and its performance negotiating who can succeed and who cannot and on what terms

Masculinity in the Modern West Christopher E. Forth, 2008-09-16 Across the Western world crisis is the word most commonly used to describe the state of masculinity today but how new is this idea Can we identify a time when masculinity was actually stable and secure Masculinity in the Modern West engages with these questions by examining how traditional ideals about male physical prowess have clashed with the lifestyle changes that accompanied the rise of modern civilization since 1700 In countries like America Britain France Germany and Russia modernity bolstered male dominance in commerce politics technology and the world of ideas yet images of masculinity have continued to be haunted by the negative effects that polite cerebral consumerist and sedentary lifestyles might have on the minds and bodies of men Modernity thus exercises a double logic that supports male privilege while diminishing the physical difference used to legitimate that privilege By focusing on the male body this wide ranging study proposes that crises of masculinity may be structural and thus inescapable features of life in our world Marriage Curt Hamner, John Trent, Rebekah J. Byrd, Eric L. Johnson, Erik Thoennes, 2018-11-06 Never has the sacred covenant of marriage been more maligned than it is today It can be difficult to know how to respond to a culture that is becoming more and more antagonistic to biblical beliefs about marriage And this is a topic worth getting right Marriage was given to us as a picture of the triune God in relationship with his people which means what we believe about marriage is indissolubly tied to what we believe about God and his creating and saving purposes Therefore it is more important now than ever that we think theologically and carefully about what marriage is and how we live faithfully in it Marriage Its Foundation Theology and Mission in a Changing World is the much needed work on marriage for this generation and the next Rooted in a scriptural understanding of marriage it thoughtfully engages the issues surrounding marriage being debated today and lays the groundwork for the crucial conversations of our day Each section contains chapters from trusted theologians as well as experienced practitioners who work with couples daily Rediscover the beauty of God's design for marriage and be strengthened to stand firm amidst any challenges the world may bring Dividing Paradise Jennifer Sherman, 2021-03-23 How rural areas have become uneven proving grounds for the American Dream Late stage capitalism is trying to remake rural America in its own image and the resistance is telling Small town economies that have traditionally been based on logging mining farming and ranching now increasingly rely on tourism second home ownership and retirement migration In Dividing Paradise Jennifer Sherman tells the story of Paradise Valley Washington a rural community where amenity driven economic growth has resulted in a new social landscape of inequality and privilege with deep fault lines between old timers and newcomers In this complicated cultural reality class blindness allows privileged newcomers to ignore or justify their impact on these towns papering over the sentiments of anger loss and disempowerment of longtime locals Based on in depth interviews with individuals on both sides of the divide this book explores the causes and repercussions of the stark inequity that has become commonplace across the United States It exposes the mechanisms by which inequality flourishes and by which Americans have come to believe that disparity is acceptable and deserved Sherman who is known for her work on rural America presents here a powerful case study of the ever growing tensions between those who can and those who cannot achieve their visions of the American dream Refractions of Masculinity John Richardson,1995-01-01 Mit finn Zusammenfass Black Manhood in James Baldwin, Ernest J. Gaines, and August Wilson Keith Clark,2004-01-22 Explores the novels short stories and plays of three African American writers to demonstrate how they challenged classic portrayals of black men in earlier literature Discusses how the identity of black men changed from one equated with victimization isolation and patriarchy to one of community camaraderie and intimacy Painted and Photographed Portraits in Finland 1839-1870 Unto Käyhkö,1995
