Refugees Asylum In Europe:

Queering Asylum in Europe Carmelo Danisi, Moira Dustin, Nuno Ferreira, Nina Held, 2021-08-31 This two volume open access book offers a theoretically and empirically grounded portrayal of the experiences of people claiming international protection in Europe on the basis of their sexual orientation or gender identity SOGI It shows how European asylum systems might and should treat asylum claims based on people's SOGI in a fairer more humane way Through a combined comparative interdisciplinary socio legal human rights feminist queer and intersectional approach this book examines not only the legal experiences of people claiming asylum on grounds of their SOGI but also their social experiences outside the asylum decision making framework The authors analyse how SOGI related claims are adjudicated in different European frameworks European Union Council of Europe Germany Italy and UK and offer detailed recommendations to adequately address the intersectional experiences of individuals seeking asylum This unique approach ensures that the book is of interest not only to researchers in migration and refugee studies law and wider academic communities but also to policy makers and practitioners in the field of SOGI asylum Refugees Daniele Joly, Clive Nettleton, Hugh Poulton, 1992-12-10

Geographies of Asylum in Europe and the Role of European Localities Birgit Glorius, Jeroen Doomernik, 2019-10-03 This open access book describes how the numerous arrivals of asylum seekers since 2015 shaped reception and integration processes in Europe It addresses the structuration of asylum and reception systems and spaces and places of reception on European national regional and local level It also analyses perceptions and discourses on asylum and refugees their involvement and the consequences for policy development Furthermore it examines practices and policy developments in the field of refugee reception and integration The volume shows and explains a variety of refugee reception and integration strategies and practices as specific outcome of multilevel governance processes in Europe By addressing and contextualizing those multiple experiences of asylum seeker reception the book is a valuable contribution to the literature on migration and integration societal development and political culture in Europe

The Human Rights of Migrants in European Law Cathryn Costello, 2016 A critical discussion of EU and ECHR migration and refugee law this book analyses the law on asylum and immigration of third country nationals It focuses on how the EU norms interact with ECHR human rights case law on migration and the pitfalls of European human rights pluralism Refugees, Citizenship and Social Policy in Europe A. Bloch, C. Levy, 1999-04-30 Recently global and European migration in the post Cold War world have received much attention This edited collection is a comprehensive up to date account of the social policies of European welfare states towards refugees and asylum seekers It also examines the contested boundaries between refugees and asylum seekers and citizenship within European nation states and the European Union The State of the World's Refugees, 2000 Mark Cutts, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, 2000 Includes statistics Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees, Asylum Seekers, and Other Forcibly Displaced Persons Nancy J. Murakami, Mashura Akilova, 2022-11-25 This textbook provides theoretical and clinical knowledge needed by social workers and other practitioners involved in humanitarian emergency response. Social workers are well positioned to serve coordinating and leadership roles in this interdisciplinary field due to their holistic training. This book weaves together micro mezzo and macro levels of practice into integrated social work practice. Its historical account of humanitarian emergencies, coverage of social work frameworks and principles, and review of existing best practices at the clinical, community, and policy levels ground the reader in a field of social work that requires consideration of historical frameworks alongside innovative responses to the complexity of humanitarian emergencies. The contributors incorporate best practices as well as address gaps in awareness, knowledge, and skills that they have observed and studied worldwide. Some of the topics explored include Social Work with Displaced Children, Women, LGBTQI Asylum Seekers, Return and Reintegration of Displaced Populations, and Reconstruction in Post-conflict Societies, Culture Trauma, and Loss. Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees and Asylum Seekers, Clinical Social Work Practice with Forcibly Displaced Persons, Grounded in Human Rights and Social Justice Principles, Integrative Social Work Practice with Refugees, Asylum Seekers, and Other Forcibly Displaced Persons is adoptable as a primary text for MSW and doctoral elective courses on global social work or international social work practice with persecuted and forcibly displaced people. This textbook is targeted to clinical social work or policy courses as well and can be supplemental reading for required courses for migration and forced displacement majors. It is also useful for social workers or interdisciplinary practitioners working around the globe with displaced populations.

Reluctant Hosts: Europe and Its Refugees Danièle Joly, Robin Cohen, 2024-02-02. Now reissued with a new Preface by Robin Cohen and Danièle Joly, this book was originally published in 1989 at a time when the reality of a single European Community had begun to materialize the comfortable belief that many European countries offered havens for those fleeing persecution. This belief was undermined as governments sought to cope with xenophobic and racist sentiments by their indigenous populations. This book, with contributions from social scientists, policy makers, and representatives from many European countries, discusses the response of European governments to the increasing demands by asylum seekers, refugees, and exiles for admission, settlement, and protection issues which remain as pertinent today as when the book was originally published.

The Global Reach of European Refugee Law Hélène Lambert, Jane McAdam, Maryellen Fullerton, 2013-09-05. Examination of the worldwide emulation of key norms of European refugee protection through transnational processes and actors.

International Refugee Law H?ne Lambert, 2017-07-05. The essays selected and reproduced in this volume explore how international refugee law is dynamic and constantly evolving. From an instrument designed to protect mostly those civilians fleeing the worse excesses of World War II, the 1951 Refugee Convention has developed into a set of principles, customary rules, and values that are now firmly embedded in the human rights framework and are applicable to a far broader range of refugees. In addition, international refugee law has been affected by international humanitarian law and international criminal law and vice versa. Thus, there is a reinforcing dynamic in the development of these complementary areas of law At the same time in recent decades states have shown a renewed interest in managing migration thereby raising issues of how to reconcile such interests with refugee protection principles In addition the emergence of concepts of participation and responsibility to protect promise to have an impact on international refugee law Refugee Crisis in Europe and Turkey United States. Congress. Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe, 2017

Images of Immigrants and Refugees in Western Europe Leen d'Haenens, Willem Joris, François Heinderyckx, 2019-05-14 Perception and representation of newcomers and immigrants The topic of migration has become particularly contentious in national and international debates Media have a discernable impact on overall societal attitudes towards this phenomenon Polls show time and again that immigration is one of the most important issues occupying people's minds This book examines the dynamic interplay between media representations of migrants and refugees on the one hand and the governmental and societal reactions to these on the other Largely focusing on Belgium and Sweden this collection of interdisciplinary research essays attempts to unravel the determinants of people's preferences regarding migration policy expectations towards newcomers and economic humanitarian and cultural concerns about immigration's effect on the majority population's life Whilst migrants and refugees remain voiceless and highly underrepresented in the legacy media this volume allows their voices to be heard Contributors Leen d'Haenens KU Leuven Willem Joris KU Leuven Paul Puschmann KU Leuven Radboud University Nijmegen Ebba Sundin Halmstad University David De Coninck KU Leuven Rozane De Cock KU Leuven Valérie Mistiaen Université libre de Bruxelles Lutgard Lams KU Leuven Stefan Mertens KU Leuven Olivier Standaert UC Louvain Hanne Vandenberghe KU Leuven Koen Matthijs KU Leuven Kevin Smets Vrije Universiteit Brussel Jacinthe Mazzocchi UC Louvain Lorraine Gerstmans UC Louvain Lien Mostmans Vrije Universiteit Brussel and François Heinderyckx Université libre de Bruxelles Ebook available in Open Access This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content With thanks to the funding provided by Belspo Belgian Science Policy Office as part of the framework programme BRAIN Belgium Research Action Through Interdisciplinary Networks contract nr BR 165 A4 IM2MEDIATE

Refugees, Security and the European Union Sarah Léonard, Christian Kaunert, 2019-06-07 This book analyses the extent and the modalities of the securitization of asylum seekers and refugees in the EU It argues that the development of the EU asylum policy far from securitizing asylum seekers and refugees has led to the strengthening and codification of several rights for these two categories of persons However the securitization of terrorism and the links that have been constructed between asylum irregular migration and terrorism in the wake of the various terrorist attacks that have taken place in Europe in the last few years have had a significant impact on the ability of asylum seekers to gain access to asylum systems in the EU From a theoretical point of view the book develops an original analytical framework that draws upon and further develops security studies more precisely securitization theory by connecting it to the literature on policy venues and venue shopping It therefore makes a significant contribution to the debates on both securitization and migration

Empirically examining the entire development of the EU's policy towards asylum seekers and refugees from its origins in 1993 this book will be of great interest to students of European and EU politics refugees migration security terrorism and counter terrorism security studies and International Relations      Asylum Migration to the European Union Anita Böcker, Tetty Havinga, 1998 4 Plan of the study      The Right to Seek Refugee Status in the European Union Sylvie Da Lomba, 2004 In 2001 the 1951 United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees celebrated its 50th anniversary Whilst its fundamental contribution to refugee protection is undisputed the Convention has come under sustained criticism in recent years founded on its alleged inability to address the complexities and challenges of the world of today Yet the need for international protection worldwide persists regardless of changes in the international community and the Convention remains the cornerstone of refugee protection In that context it is critical that the asylum policy of the European Union fully realises the right to seek refugee status that may be inferred from the Convention provisions To that end the author examines and measures EU and EC instruments and proposals for legislation on asylum against standards set out in international refugee and human rights law The author argues that the influence of the European Union and its Member States must not be undermined and that any departure from international standards carries the risk of undermining the right to seek refugee status and refugee protection as a whole within and beyond the borders of the European Union The communitarisation of asylum operated by the Treaty of Amsterdam presents the European Union with the crucial challenge of remaining true to its humanitarian tradition and vision Book jacket      Refugees in Europe Joly, Lynette Kelly, Clive Nettleton, 1997      Integration of Refugee Students in European Higher Education Comparative Country Cases Ayselin YILDIZ, 2019-03-04 The book provides an overview and descriptive analysis of how selected countries Germany the Netherlands Spain Norway UK and Turkey have responded to the massive inflow of refugees as well as the policy practices they have developed concerning refugee students integration into higher education Seeking to encourage sustainable policy responses and national frameworks this report highlights these selected countries procedures to ensure access to higher education and also approaches to recognize foreign qualifications It also examines particular challenges in the case of each country The report limits its scope exclusively to refugee students excluding practices developed for refugee academics university staff The book offers a contribution to the existing literature on educational policy for refugees and encourages higher education institutions to remember their central role as a driving force for social development and integration      Asylum Determination in Europe Nick Gill, Anthony Good, 2018-12-05 Drawing on new research material from ten European countries Asylum Determination in Europe Ethnographic Perspectives brings together a range of detailed accounts of the legal and bureaucratic processes by which asylum claims are decided The book includes a legal overview of European asylum determination procedures followed by sections on the diverse actors involved the means by which they communicate and the ways in which they make life and death decisions on a daily basis It offers a contextually rich account that moves beyond doctrinal law to uncover the gaps and variances between formal policy and legislation and law as actually practiced The contributors employ a variety of disciplinary perspectives sociological anthropological geographical and linguistic but are united in their use of an ethnographic methodological approach Through this lens the book captures the confusion improvisation inconsistency complexity and emotional turmoil inherent to the process of claiming asylum in Europe

Haven or Hell? D. Joly, 2016-07-14 This book brings together in a systematic manner three discrete areas of interest pertaining to refugees Asylum is explored through studies on the evolution of legal instruments in Europe the harmonisation process of European policies and the broader spectrum of factors underpinning decisions on asylum Reception and settlement of refugees are analysed through a comparative study of national programmes in France and Britain and in addition a survey of local authority policies A typology for refugees is developed and tested by a comparison between Chilean and Vietnamese associations in France and Britain
