A Grammar of Murder Karla Oeler, 2009-12-15 The dark shadows and offscreen space that force us to imagine violence we cannot see The real slaughter of animals spliced with the fictional killing of men The missing countershot from the murder victim s point of view Such images or absent images Karla Oeler contends distill how the murder scene challenges and changes film Reexamining works by such filmmakers as Renoir Hitchcock Kubrick Jarmusch and Eisenstein Oeler traces the murder scene s intricate connections to the great breakthroughs in the theory and practice of montage and the formulation of the rules and syntax of Hollywood genre She argues that murder plays such a central role in film because it mirrors on multiple levels the act of cinematic representation Death and murder at once eradicate life and call attention to its former existence just as cinema conveys both the reality and the absence of the objects it depicts But murder shares with cinema not only this interplay between presence and absence movement and stillness unlike death killing entails the deliberate reduction of a singular subject to a disposable object Like cinema it involves a crucial choice about what to cut and what to keep

Film Study Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

The X List Jami Bernard,2009-04-20 National Society of Film Critics dares to go where few mainstream critics have gone before to the heart of what gets the colored lights going as they say in A Streetcar Named Desire Here is their take on the films that quicken their and our pulses an enterprise both risky and risque an entertaining overview of the most arousing films Hollywood has every produced But make no mistake about it This isn't a collection of esoteric critic's choice movies The films reflect individual taste rubbing against the grain of popular wisdom And because of the personal nature of the erotic forces at play these essays will reveal more about the individual critics than perhaps they have revealed thus far to their readers The Society is a world renowned marquee name organization embracing some of America's most distinguished critics more than forty writers who have followings nationally as well as devoted local constituencies in such major cities as New York Chicago Los Angeles Boston Philadelphia Atlanta and Minneapolis Yes The X List will have something for every lover of film and for every lover

Citizen Sarris, American Film Critic Emanuel Levy,2001 This collection of essays pays tribute to Andrew Sarris the most influential film critic in American film history A noted film personality Sarris occupies a unique position walking the line between popular journalism and more academic scholarship He began his career in the 1950s with a passion for film and an eloquent style of prose that led him to become a prominent voice in the film world As a writer and editor for the Village Voice at its prime Sarris reached and educated a whole generation of readers and became respected by academics and critics all over the world The thirty eight essays assembled here and arranged according to major themes demonstrate the amazing impact Sarris has had on every aspect of the film world fellow critics filmmakers readers and American popular culture Contributors include noted critics Leonard Maltin and Molly Haskell film scholars David Bordwell and James Naremore and directors Martin Scorsese Robert Benton and John Sayles

Proceedings of the 2023 2nd International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2023) Mohd Fauzi bin Sedon,Intakhab Alam Khan,Mehmet CÜNEYT BİRKÖK,KinSun Chan,2023-06-29 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc

General History of Chinese Film I Ding Yaping, 2021-10-25 The early years of the history of Chinese film have lately been the subject of resurgent interest and a growing body of scholarship has come to recognise and identify an extraordinarily diverse and complex period This volume explores the development of Chinese film from 1896 to 1949 The volume covers the screening of foreign films in Shanghai Hong Kong and other coastal cities in China the technological and industrial development of Chinese national cinema key filmmakers and actors of early Chinese cinema changing modes of representation and narration as well as the social and cultural contexts within which early Chinese films were produced and circulated The relationship between the War of Resistance against Japan and the Chinese civil war and Chinese film is also explored The book will be essential reading for scholars and students in film studies Chinese studies cultural studies and media studies helping readers develop a comprehensive understanding of Chinese film

Conversations with Stanley Kauffmann Stanley Kauffmann, 2003 This collection of interviews with Stanley Kauffmann b 1916 provides a virtual history of the journalistic practice of criticism in twentieth century America His creative life spans seven decades and since 1958 he has been a film and drama critic for the New Republic the New York Times and Saturday Review He also has been an actor stage manager playwright novelist and editor Along with Dwight Macdonald Andrew Sarris and John Simon he is one of the potent influential critics included in the New York school of twentieth century American criticism The Los Angeles Times called him the Dean Swift of our country s criticism Susan Sontag proclaimed him one of our national treasures In this collection of interviews conducted by Charlie Rose Dick Cavett and others he speaks both of the role of theater and film criticism in American culture and of the crisis he perceives within it With wit and erudition Kauffmann discusses many subjects film directors who emerged during his long tenure at the New Republic e g Martin Scorsese and Federico Fellini actors who performed on both stage and screen novels and their film adaptations and the fractious relationship between Hollywood and the independent film movement The precision and concise phrasing of Kauffmann s writing chime also in his brilliant conversations as he speaks of sex taste realism the rise of film festival culture and government subsidy of the arts The volume ends with a conversation from 1998 in celebration of Kauffmann s forty year tenure at the New Republic where he continues to publish film reviews every week The collection reveals this critic s sense of cultural mission by showing how Kauffmann applies to drama and film the same high standards he applies to fiction poetry music and theater Conversations with Stanley Kauffmann reveals that this love of the arts is expressed in his finely honed gift for cogent witty wise commentary Bert Cardullo a professor of theater and drama at the University of Michigan has written and edited several books on film and theater and has been published in the Hudson Review the New Republic Literature Film Quarterly South Atlantic Quarterly and other publications
