Teaching and Studying the Holocaust Samuel Totten,Stephen Feinberg,2009-11-01 Originally Published in 2000 by Allyn Ida E King Distinguished Visitor Professor of Holocaust Studies Richard Stockton College and Former Director of Research at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum There are many scholars who are wont to criticize the teaching of the Holocaust Many journalists critique what they regard as kitsch or trendiness All critics of contemporary Holocaust education would do well to read this book One cannot fail to be impressed by the quality of its learning and the seriousness of its purpose It is a wonderful place for teachers to turn as they contemplate teaching the Holocaust an open invitation to learn more and teach more effectively Barry van Driel Coordinator International Teacher Education Anne Frank House Amsterdam Teaching and Studying the Holocaust is an invaluable resource for any teacher wanting to address the complex and sometimes overwhelming history of the Holocaust in the classroom The book offers a multitude of sensitive and responsible ways of dealing with the issue of the Holocaust It succeeds in showing teachers very clearly how the study of the Holocaust is not just a topic for history teachers but for teachers across the curriculum Dr Nili Keren Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv Israel Teaching about the Shoah is one of the most complicated tasks for educators Indeed teaching and studying this history raises unprecedented questions concerning modern civilization and presents teachers and students with tremendous challenges Samuel Totten and Stephen Feinberg have created a volume that provides educators with essential information and new insights regarding the teaching of this history and in doing so they assist educators to face the aforementioned challenges head on Teaching and Studying the Holocaust does not make the task easier but it does make it possible Samuel Totten is currently professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Prior to entering academia he was an English and social studies teacher in Australia Israel California and at the U S House of Representatives Page School in Washington D C Totten is also editor of Teaching Holocaust Literature published by Allyn Bacon Stephen Feinberg is currently the Special Assistant for Education Programs in the National Institute for Holocaust Education at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum With Samuel Totten he was co editor of a special issue Teaching the Holocaust of Social Education the official journal of the National Council for the Social Studies For eighteen years he was a history and social studies teacher in the public schools of Wayland MA Scribner's Magazine Edward Livermore Burlingame,Robert

Bridges, Alfred Sheppard Dashiell, Harlan Logan, 1906 Routledge's school reciter for boys and girls George Routledge (and sons; ltd.), 1883 The Bolenius Readers Emma Miller Bolenius, 1929 Ivanhoe Sir Walter Scott, 2021-02-01 Sir Wilfred of Ivanhoe is a Saxon knight whose allegiance to King Richard and love for Lady Rowena severely damages his relationship with his father. He is disinherited from his family and must find a respectable way to re-enter society. In twelfth century England, tensions between the Saxons and Normans are at an all-time high. Following the Third Crusade, Sir Wilfred Ivanhoe, a Saxon knight, offers his support to the Norman King Richard, which pits him against his father, Cedric. Ivanhoe is also in love with the beautiful Lady Rowena, whom Cedric has promised to another. Due to his actions, the knight loses his family claim and is left to fend for himself. Ivanhoe chooses to conceal his identity, entering a tournament to regain his honor and the admiration of Lady Rowena. A classic tale informed by historical events, Ivanhoe is one of Sir Walter Scott's most enduring stories. It was famously adapted in 1952 as a feature film starring Robert Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, and Joan Fontaine. With an eye-catching new cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of Ivanhoe is both modern and readable.

Contested Spaces: Abortion Clinics, Women's Shelters and Hospitals Lori A. Brown, 2016-05-13 In this book, Lori Brown examines the relationship between space defined physically, legally, and legislatively and how these factors directly impact the spaces of abortion. It analyzes how various political entities shape the physical landscapes of inclusion and exclusion to reproductive healthcare access and questions what architecture's responsibilities are in respect to this spatial conflict. Employing writing, drawing, and mapping methodologies, this interdisciplinary project explores restrictions and legislatures which directly influence abortion policy in the US, Mexico, and Canada. It questions how these legal rulings produce spatial complexities and why architecture isn't more culturally and spatially engaged with these spaces. In Mexico, where abortion is fully legal only in Mexico City during the first trimester, women must travel vast distances and undergo extreme conditions in order to access the procedure. Conservative state governments continue to make abortion a severely punishable crime. In Canada, there are nowhere near the cultural and religious stigmas to abortion as in the US and Mexico. Completely legal and without restrictions, Canada offers an important contrast to the ongoing abortion issues within the US and Mexico. Researching the spatial implications of such a politicized space, this book expands beyond a study of abortion clinics and includes other spaces such as women's shelters and hospitals that require multiple levels of secured spaces in order to discuss the spatial ramifications of access and security within spaces that are highly personal, private, and sometimes secret or even hidden. In questioning what architecture's responsibility is in these spatial conflicts, the book looks at how what architecture does can be used to reconsider the spaces and security around such contested places and ultimately suggests what design's potential impact might be. In doing so, it shows how architecture's role might be redefined within social and spatial practices.

Representing the Holocaust in Children's Literature Lydia Kokkola, 2013-10-15 Writing about the Holocaust and writing for young readers evoke two quite separate sets of concerns which are not always mutually compatible.

The first half of Representing the Holocaust focuses on how literary material can present historically verifiable material. The second half examines how such materials will be perceived by young readers whether they will be able to determine any boundaries between fictionality and factuality and what motivates young readers to keep reading. The work concludes by placing the study in the context of Holocaust education.
