launched a campaign for ethically sourced gold in the consumer jewelry market targeting Tiffany and other major firms The unfolding of the campaign and its effect on the jewelry industry offer a lesson in the growing influence of business in global environmental politics Earthworks planned a shame campaign aimed at the companies brands and reputations betting that firms like Tiffany would not want to be associated with pollution violence and exploitation As it happened Tiffany contacted Earthworks before they could launch the campaign the company was already looking for partners in finding ethically sourced gold Bloomfield examines the responses of three companies to No Dirty Gold activism Tiffany Wal Mart and Brilliant Earth a small company selling ethical jewelry He finds they offer a case study in how firms respond to activist pressure and what happens when businesses participate in such private governance schemes as the Golden Rules and the Conflict Free Gold Standard Taking a firm level view Bloomfield examines the different opportunities for and constraints on corporate political mobilization within the industry
