Sherlock Holmes: The Boscombe Valley Mystery Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, We were seated at breakfast one morning my wife and I when the maid brought in a telegram It was from Sherlock Holmes and ran in this way Have you a couple of days to spare Have just been wired for from the west of England in connection with Boscombe Valley tragedy Shall be glad if you will come with me Air and scenery perfect Leave Paddington by the 11 15 What do you say dear said my wife looking across at me Will you go I really don t know what to say I have a fairly long list at present Oh Anstruther would do your work for you You have been looking a little pale lately I think that the change would do you good and you are always so interested in Mr Sherlock Holmes cases I should be ungrateful if I were not seeing what I gained through one of them I answered But if I am to go I must pack at once for I have only half an hour My experience of camp life in Afghanistan had at least had the effect of making me a prompt and ready traveller My wants were few and simple so that in less than the time stated I was in a cab with my valise rattling away to Paddington Station Sherlock Holmes was pacing up and down the platform his tall gaunt figure made even gaunter and taller by his long grey travelling cloak and close fitting cloth cap It is really very good of you to come Watson said he It makes a considerable difference to me having someone with me on whom I can thoroughly rely Local aid is always either worthless or else biassed If you will keep the two corner seats I shall get the tickets We had the carriage to ourselves save for an immense litter of papers which Holmes had brought with him Among these he rummaged and read with intervals of note taking and of meditation until we were past Reading Then he suddenly rolled them all into a gigantic ball and tossed them up onto the rack powers to solve the mystery Product description Mystery of Boscombe Pool Arthur Conan Doyle, 1993-03 The Boscombe Valley Mystery Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, P. James Macaluso, 2016-08-31 Sherlock Holmes the world's only unofficial consulting detective was first introduced to readers in A Study in Scarlet published by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in 1887. It was with the publication of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes however that the master sleuth grew tremendously in popularity later to become one of the most beloved literary characters of all time. In this book series the short stories comprising The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes have been amusingly illustrated using only Lego brand minifigures and bricks. The illustrations recreate through custom designed Lego models the composition of the black and white drawings by Sidney Paget that accompanied the original publication of these adventures appearing in The Strand Magazine from July 1891 to June 1892. Paget's iconic illustrations are largely responsible for the popular image of Sherlock Holmes including his deerstalker cap and Inverness cape details never mentioned in the writings of Conan Doyle. This uniquely illustrated collection which features some of the most famous and enjoyable cases investigated by Sherlock Holmes and his devoted friend and biographer Dr John H. Watson including A Scandal in Bohemia and The Red Headed League is sure to delight Lego enthusiasts as well as fans of the Great Detective both old and new. The Boscombe Valley Mystery Inspector Lestrade of Scotland Yard summons Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson to Herefordshire to investigate the murder of a wealthy landowner named Charles McCarthy. Holmes donning his travelling cloak and close fitting cloth cap carefully examines the crime scene and soon unravels the mystery involving a secret criminal past, thwarted love and blackmail.
