

Waiting

Serene, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind, nor tide, nor sea;
I rave no more 'gainst time or fate,
For lo! my own shall come to me.

I stay my haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?
I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it hath sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own and draw
The brook that springs in yonder height;
So flows the good with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky;
The tidal wave unto the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

Bailey, 2014-07-22 A breathtaking collection of wonders and horrors including robotic surrogate parents and zombie voters from a new acknowledged master of darkest fantasy Whether speculating on an all too possible future or plumbing the stygian depths of supernatural evil and human degradation Dale Bailey's award winning short fiction has been justifiably compared to the work of some of the true giants in the field Ray Bradbury Stephen King and Theodore Sturgeon to name but a few In this first collection of astonishing stories the acclaimed author of the modern horror masterworks The Fallen and House of Bones demonstrates his remarkable range with tales that exhilarate terrify and touch the soul A young boy comes of age on a secluded farm that grows a particularly grisly crop The dead rise up to cast their ballots in a close presidential election An assassin plots his next kill from inside the body of someone frighteningly close to the victim An African American census taker discovers a hidden bayou town where time has stopped at a nightmarish point in history Bailey takes readers inside the tents of a circus of shadows and explores an expectant father's dark and terrible legacy for his unborn child This extraordinary collection runs the gamut from fantasy to horror from science fiction to heartbreaking reality speaking in voices old and young that brilliantly capture the light and the darkness of their ingeniously imagined worlds Includes the Nebula Award nominated novelette The Resurrection Man's Legacy

Knowing One's Place in Contemporary Irish and Polish Poetry Magdalena Kay, 2012-02-23 Are we allowed to choose where we belong What pressures make us feel that we should belong somewhere This book brings together four major poets Heaney Mahon Zagajewski and Hartwig who ask themselves these questions throughout their lives They start by assuming that we can choose not to belong but know this is easier said than done Something in them is awry leading them to travel emigrate and return dissatisfied with all forms of belonging Writer after writer has suggested that Polish and Irish literature bear some uncanny similarities particularly in the 20th century but few have explored these similarities in depth Ireland and Poland with their tangled histories of colonization place a large premium upon knowing one's place What happens though when a poet makes a career out of refusing to know her place in the way her culture expects This book explores the consequences of this refusal allowing these poets to answer such questions through their own poems leading to surprising conclusions about the connection of
