Deeds That Won the Empire: Historic Battle Scenes William Henry Fitchett,2020-09-28 The tales here told are written not to glorify war but to nourish patriotism They represent an effort to renew in popular memory the great traditions of the Imperial race to which we belong The history of the Empire of which we are subjects the story of the struggles and sufferings by which it has been built up is the best legacy which the past has bequeathed to us But it is a treasure strangely neglected The State makes primary education its anxious care yet it does not make its own history a vital part of that education There is real danger that for the average youth the great names of British story may become meaningless sounds that his imagination will take no colour from the rich and deep tints of history And what a pallid cold blooded citizenship this must produce War belongs no doubt to an imperfect stage of society it has a side of pure brutality But it is not all brutal Wordsworth s daring line about God s most perfect instrument has a great truth behind it What examples are to be found in the tales here retold not merely of heroic daring but of even finer qualities of heroic fortitude of loyalty to duty stronger than the love of life of the temper which dreads dishonour more than it fears death of the patriotism which makes love of the Fatherland a passion These are the elements of robust citizenship They represent some at least of the qualities by which the Empire in a sterner time than ours was won and by which in even these ease loving days it must be maintained These sketches appeared originally in the Melbourne Argus and are republished by the kind consent of its proprietors Each sketch is complete in itself and though no formal quotation of authorities is given yet all the available literature on each event described has been laid under contribution The sketches will be found to be historically accurate The Ships of Pembroke Dockyard Phil Carradice,2013-08-15 Explore the history of the Pembroke Dock with 2014 marking its bicentenary Heroes of the united service Laura Valentine,1900 Ships for All Nations Ian Johnston,2015-10-30 A worthy tribute to the John Brown company and to British shipbuilding a joy to enthusiasts of the great ships of the past Australian Naval Institute The Clydebank shipyard built some of the most famous vessels in maritime history great transatlantic liners like Lusitania Queen Mary and QE2 and iconic warships like the battlecruiser Hood and Britain s last battleship HMS Vanguard Starting life as J G Thomson in 1847 the business acquired its more famous persona when taken over in 1899 by the Sheffield based steelmaker John Brown Co which enhanced the yard s existing reputation for turning out first class products both naval and mercantile This book charts the fortunes of the company in terms of its business development its management and personnel as well as the great variety of ships it built during the century and a quarter of its existence It also tells a wider story of the rise to world domination of the British shipbuilding industry and its eventual decline and collapse in the post war decades as reflected in the experience of John Brown Written by an acknowledged authority on Clydeside shipbuilding the book was originally published in a limited edition in 2000 but this reprint is entirely new and revised although it retains all the original photographs from the yard s own unrivaled collection Essential to anyone s maritime collection Sea Breezes The profusely illustrated beautifully produced and very detailed story of John Brown Company Army Rumour Service All Hands ,1963
