Ships For A Nation:

Ships for All Nations Ian Johnston, 2015-10-30 A worthy tribute to the John Brown company and to British shipbuilding a joy to enthusiasts of the great ships of the past Australian Naval Institute The Clydebank shipyard built some of the most famous vessels in maritime history great transatlantic liners like Lusitania Queen Mary and QE2 and iconic warships like the battlecruiser Hood and Britain's last battleship HMS Vanguard Starting life as J G Thomson in 1847 the business acquired its more famous persona when taken over in 1899 by the Sheffield based steelmaker John Brown Co which enhanced the yard's existing reputation for turning out first class products both naval and mercantile This book charts the fortunes of the company in terms of its business development its management and personnel as well as the great variety of ships it built during the century and a quarter of its existence It also tells a wider story of the rise to world domination of the British shipbuilding industry and its eventual decline and collapse in the post war decades as reflected in the experience of John Brown Written by an acknowledged authority on Clydeside shipbuilding the book was originally published in a limited edition in 2000 but this reprint is entirely new and revised although it retains all the original photographs from the yard's own unrivaled collection Essential to anyone's maritime collection Sea Breezes The profusely illustrated beautifully produced and very detailed story of John Brown Company Army Rumour Service Requisitioning of Ships in Time of National Emergency United States. Congress. House. Merchant Marine and Fisheries, 1934 The Institutes of the Law of Nations James Lorimer, 2005 Originally published Edinburgh William Blackwood and Sons 1883 1884 Two vols xviii 449 xx 620 pp Critical of utilitarianism Lorimer proposed a system of public international law based on the law of nature It is most notable however for its elitism racism and support of colonialism Since he believed in a hierarchy of nations based on cultural attainment he rejected the principle of comity in international relations as a sufficient basis for international law He used this point to defend the right of civilized nations to ignore the sovereignty of their primitive counterparts Influential in Europe this treatise offered a sophisticated argument that stoked the ambitions of continental imperialists James Lorimer 1818 1890 was Regius Professor of Public Law at the University of Edinburgh and a founder of the Institute of International Law
