Translation and Transgression in the Art of Shirin Neshat Erin C. Devine, 2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat's work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat's evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat's hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women's studies and Iranian studies After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement Women, Art, and Literature in the Iranian Diaspora Mehraneh Ebrahimi, 2019-05-09 Does the study of aesthetics have tangible effects in the real world Does examining the work of diaspora writers and artists change our view of the Other In this thoughtful book Ebrahimi argues that an education in the humanities is as essential as one in politics and ethics critically training the imagination toward greater empathy Despite the surge in Iranian memoirs their contributions to debunking an abstract idea of terror and their role in encouraging democratic thinking remain understudied In examining creative work by women of Iranian descent Ebrahimi argues that Shirin Neshat Marjane Satrapi and Parsua Bashi make the Other familiar and break a cycle of reactionary xenophobia These authors instead of relying on indignation build imaginative bridges in their work that make it impossible to blame one evil external enemy Ebrahimi explores both classic and hybrid art forms including graphic novels and photo poetry to advocate for the importance of aesthetics to inform and influence a global community Drawing on the theories of Rancière Butler Arendt and Levinas Ebrahimi identifies the ways in which these works give a human face to the Other creating the space and language to imagine a new political and ethical landscape Contemporary Iranian Art Talinn Grigor, 2014-06-15 In the first comprehensive look at Iranian art and visual culture since the 1979 revolution Talinn Grigor investigates the official art sponsored by the Islamic Republic the culture of avant garde art created in the studio and its display in galleries and museums and the art of the Iranian diaspora within Western art scenes Divided into three parts street studio and exile the book argues that these different areas of artistic production cannot be understood independently revealing how this art offers a mirror of the sociopolitical turmoil that has marked Iran's recent history Exploring the world of galleries museums curators and art critics Grigor moves between subversive and daring art produced in private to propaganda art martyrdom paraphernalia and museum interiors She examines the cross pollination of kitsch and avant garde the art market state censorship the public private domain the political implications of art and artistic identity in exile Providing an astute analysis of the workings of artistic production in relation to the institutions of power in the Islamic Republic this beautifully illustrated book is essential reading for anyone interested in Iranian history and contemporary art
