Shock Value A Tasteful About Bad Taste:

Shock Value John Waters, 2005 Shock Value John Waters, 1991 The Spectacle of Isolation in Horror Films Carl Royer, B Lee Cooper, 2013-02-01 Go behind the scenes with an insightful look at horror films and the directors who create them The Spectacle of Isolation in Horror Films Dark Parades examines the work of several of the genre's most influential directors and investigates how traditional themes of isolation, alienation, death, and transformation have helped build the foundation of horror cinema. Authors Carl and Diana Royer examine the techniques used by Alfred Hitchcock that place his work squarely in the horror rather than suspense genre, discuss avant-garde cinema's contributions to mainstream horror, explore films that use the apartment setting as the cell of horror, and analyze how angels and aliens function as the supernatural. Other: A unique resource for film students and film buffs alike, the book also examines Sam Raimi's Evil Dead trilogy and the fusion of science, technology, and quasi-religious themes in David Cronenberg's films. Instead of presenting a general overview of the horror genre or an analysis of a specific sub-genre, actor, or director, The Spectacle of Isolation in Horror Films offers an imaginative look at classic and contemporary horror cinema. The book examines Surrealist films such as Un Chien Andalou and Freaks, the connections among the concepts of voyeurism, paranoia, and alienation in films like Rear Window, Rosemary's Baby, Blue Velvet, and The Blair Witch Project, the use of otherworldly creatures in films such as The Prophecy, Dogma, and The Day the Earth Stood Still, and the films of directors George Romero, John Waters, and Darren Aronofsky, to name just a few. This unique book also includes an extensive A to Z filmography and a bibliography of writings on and about horror cinema from filmmakers, film critics, and film historians. The Spectacle of Isolation in Horror Films examines Body Doubles and Severed Hands, the common ancestry of avant-garde art films and exploitation horror B movies, and I Brought You Nightmares, recurring themes of psychological terror in Alfred Hitchcock's films. Horror Humor Poetry, Sam Raimi's transformation of drive-in horror cinema, Atheism and The Death of Affect, David Cronenberg's obsessions, interests, and cautionary messages in films ranging from Videodrome to Dead Ringers to eXistenZ, and much more. The Spectacle of Isolation in Horror Films Dark Parades is a unique resource of critical analysis for academics working in film and popular culture, film historians, and anyone interested in horror cinema.

Patriarchy in Practice Nikki van der Gaag, Amir Massoumian, Dan Nightingale, 2023-02-09 This collection covers a diverse and multi-disciplinary range of topics on how masculinities might be reimagined outside of patriarchal power structures. Crucially, the book highlights the lived complexity of both patriarchy and masculinities as plural and situated, exploring questions of how they are constructed, negotiated, and re-negotiated in daily practice, of how performative regimes interact, contradict, and overlap with each other across a range of contexts. Contributors engage with theoretical frameworks, engaging with feminist theory, contemporary politics of gender, bodies, and marginalised experiences of masculinities. Global case studies are wide-ranging and include analysis of masculinity among communities such as drag artists, InCels, and e-sports enthusiasts, as well as in the context of the body, for instance, in relation to alcoholism and physical disability In an era of resurgence of typically hegemonic patriarchal figures in the form of strong men leadership this book seeks to uncover what an alternative vision of masculinity could look like one that is firmly rooted in a gender equality and feminist discourse 100 Queer Films Since Stonewall Chelsea McCracken, Matt Connolly, 2025-05-01 100 Queer Films identifies 100 films that shaped the trajectory of queer cinema connected with larger movements and showcased the artistry of queer filmmaking In addition to those films that already hold significant places in queer film canons this volume examines often overlooked titles By highlighting hidden gems alongside well known classics this book makes a valuable accessible contribution to queer film studies While queer films have existed since the beginning of cinema this book focuses on films released after the Stonewall uprising in 1969 Stonewall is considered a turning point for queer politics and representation and the 50 years since that event have generated an explosion of queer creativity The book describes significant formal elements of each film and connects them to their interrelated contexts By moving in chronological order it introduces a contemporary history of queer film and provides an overview of major developments in LGBTQ communities cultures and politics This volume presents a framework for understanding the value of queer film

Underground U.S.A. Xavier Mendik, Steven Jay Schneider, 2003-03-26 Whether defined by the carnivalesque excesses of Troma studios The Toxic Avenger the arthouse erotica of Radley Metzger and Doris Wishman or the narrative experimentations of Abel Ferrara Melvin Van Peebles Jack Smith or Harmony Korine underground cinema has achieved an important position within American film culture Often defined as cult and exploitation or alternative and independent the American underground retains separate strategies of production and exhibition from the cinematic mainstream while its sexual and cinematic representations differ from the traditionally conservative structures of the Hollywood system Underground U S A offers a fascinating overview of this area of maverick moviemaking by considering the links between the experimental and exploitative traditions of the American underground A Critical Cinema Scott MacDonald, 1988 It is widely understood that writing can discuss writing but we rarely consider that film can be used as a means of analyzing conventions of the commercial film industry or of theorizing about cinema in general Over the past few decades however independent cinema has produced a body of fascinating films that provide intensive critiques of nearly every element of the cinematic apparatus The experience of these films simultaneously depends on and redefines our relationship to the movies Critical Cinema provides a collection of in depth interviews with some of the most accomplished critical filmmakers These interviews demonstrate the sophistication of their thinking about film and a wide range of other concerns and serve as an accessible introduction to this important area of independent cinema Each interview is preceded by a general introduction to the filmmaker s work detailed filmographies and bibliographies are included Critical Cinema will be a valuable resource for all those involved in the formal study of film and will be essential reading for film lovers interested in keeping abreast of recent developments in North American cinema INTERVIEWEES Hollis Frampton Larry Gottheim Robert Huot Taka Iimura
