Shoowa Design Georges Meurant,1986-12-01 Mathematics Across Cultures Helaine Selin,2012-12-06 Mathematics Across Cultures A History of Non Western Mathematics consists of essays dealing with the mathematical knowledge and beliefs of cultures outside the United States and Europe In addition to articles surveying Islamic Chinese Native American Aboriginal Australian Inca Egyptian and African mathematics among others the book includes essays on Rationality Logic and Mathematics and the transfer of knowledge from East to West The essays address the connections between science and culture and relate the mathematical practices to the cultures which produced them Each essay is well illustrated and contains an extensive bibliography Because the geographic range is global the book fills a gap in both the history of science and in cultural studies It should find a place on the bookshelves of advanced undergraduate students graduate students and scholars as well as in libraries serving those groups African Arts ,2000 Knitting Out of Africa Marianne Isager,2013-04-15 Beautiful and historic African carpets baskets and other textiles provide the design inspiration for these 16 sophisticated knitted cardigans pullovers and sweater vests Intended for seasoned knitters these projects use domino double knitting entrelac intarsia and stranded two color techniques worked in fingering weight yarns The Shoowa Vest the African Domino Pullover and the Arrowheads Cropped Pullover show off fancy stitching while other designs feature colors borrowed from the mud dried fabrics of Mali the block patterns of Ghana or motifs from Nigeria Sierra Leone Zaire and Zimbabwe African animals decorate the Giraffe Vest and Zebra Cardigan and elsewhere leaping antelope and birds in flight are used in repeating patterns Full instructions and charted patterns for at least two adult sizes are provided for each design and high quality photographs of the finished pieces showcase these classic additions to any wardrobe Resources in Education ,1989-03 Stitch and Pattern Jean Draper,2030-01-01 The hugely accomplished textile artist Jean Draper gives an invaluable guide to designing and working with pattern in textile art Jean goes back to basics with simple dots and lines demonstrating how even basic squares circles and triangles can have a stunning impact in stitch and textiles She provides practical and simple instructions for developing and experimenting with pattern using grids symmetry rotation and repeats Jean draws inspiration from patterns around the world from West African Kente Cloth to the Gee s Bend quilts of Alabama There are instructions on creating bands and borders strip patchwork and strip piecing plus an extended study of Banjara stitched textiles Natural patterns from plants and flowers also offer exciting opportunities for stitch and Jean explores important design emblems such a the Tree of Life alongside other stitched flower forms Finally the ornamentation of the body provides many unique and striking ways to interpret the human form in stitch Pattern is everywhere and can be used to stunning effect taking your textile art to the next level This fascinating and exciting guide brings together inspiration design methods and stitching techniques to help you develop truly great textile art Geometry from Africa Paulus Gerdes,1999-12-31 This book draws on geometric ideas from cultural activities from Sub Saharan Africa and demonstrates how they may be explored to develop mathematical reasoning from school level through to university standard Paulus Gerdes provides a thoroughly illustrated and researched exploration of mathematical ideas motifs and patterns Many important mathematical points are brought to the fore not via the formal theorem proof method but in a more schematic and diagrammatic manner African artifacts oral traditions sand drawing and other forms of artwork with a geometric basis all provide mathematical ideas for discussion in this unique book Mathematicians and teachers of mathematics at all levels will be fascinated as will anybody with an interest in African cultures Bulletin/annual Report Elvehjem Museum of Art,1993

African Fabrics Ronke Luke-Boone,2011-01-15 Create style with a touch of the exotic Exciting Inspiring African fabrics are vibrant beautiful and widely available and they are perfect for contemporary clothing for men women and children and great for home decor An excellent reference for sewers or anyone who is interested in fabrics culture and history this guide will teach you where to buy fabrics how to choose the right ones and the best techniques for sewing them 14 original projects including Tote bag Apron Tunic Place mats Shawl Pillows Vest Child s loom Full size patterns for three projects Covers these popular African fabrics Mudcloth Fancy prints Kuba cloth Wax prints Korhogo cloth Kente cloth Contemporary Jungian Analysis Ian Alister,Christopher Hauke,2013-10-23 The editors innovatively combine two essays by different authors in each chapter thereby giving different perspectives on important topics The Sympathy of Things Lars Spuybroek,2016-04-21 If there is one thing we can learn from John Ruskin it is that each age must find its own way to beauty writes Lars Spuybroek in The Sympathy of Things his ground breaking work which proposes a radical new aesthetics for the digital era Spuybroek argues that we must undo the twentieth century and learn to understand the aesthetic insights of the nineteenth century art critic John Ruskin from which he distils pointers for the contemporary age Linking philosophy design and the digital with art history architecture and craft Spuybroek explores the romantic notion of sympathy a core concept in Ruskin s aesthetics re evaluating it as the driving force of the twenty first century aesthetic experience For Ruskin beauty always comprises variation imperfection and fragility three concepts that wholly disappeared from our mindsets during the twentieth century but which Spuybroek argues to be central to contemporary aesthetics and design Revised throughout and a new foreword by philosopher Brian Massumi this is a new edition of a seminal work which has drawn praise from fields as diverse as digital architecture and speculative realism and will continue to be influential as it wrests Ruskin s ideas out of the Victorian era and reconstructs them for the modern age Textile Surface Decoration Margo Singer,2007-08-08 Arts educator Margo Singer provides a thorough understanding of the unique properties of silk and velvet as well as the history and traditions of decorating these textiles She then shows how to produce these traditional decorative effects using household materials and widely available craft supplies perpetuum mobile , Fiber and Bead Jewelry Helen Banes,Sally Banes,2002-10 Very original Banes draws on her lifelong interest in found objects and ethnic ornaments There are photos of many of her necklaces with diagrammed patterns unique approach to jewelry design Library Journal The results are spectacular the necklaces become true works of art not just macram look alike Booklist African Dream Machines Anitra Nettleton, 2007-10-01 African Dream Machines takes African headrests out of the category of functional objects and into the more rarefied category of art objects Styles in African headrests are usually defined in terms of western art and archaeological discourses but this book interrogates these definitions of style and demonstrates the shortcomings of defining a single formal style model as exclusive to a single ethnic group Among the artefacts made by southern African peoples headrests were the best known Anitra Nettleton's study of the uses and forms of headrests opened up a number of art historical methodologies in the attempt to gain an understanding of form style and content in African art objects Her drawings of each and every headrest encountered become a major part of the project Creative Destruction Tyler Cowen, 2009-01-10 A Frenchman rents a Hollywood movie A Thai schoolgirl mimics Madonna Saddam Hussein chooses Frank Sinatra's My Way as the theme song for his fifty fourth birthday It is a commonplace that globalization is subverting local culture But is it helping as much as it hurts In this strikingly original treatment of a fiercely debated issue Tyler Cowen makes a bold new case for a more sympathetic understanding of cross cultural trade Creative Destruction brings not stale suppositions but an economist's eye to bear on an age old question Are market exchange and aesthetic quality friends or foes On the whole argues Cowen in clear and vigorous prose they are friends Cultural destruction breeds not artistic demise but diversity Through an array of colorful examples from the areas where globalization's critics have been most vocal Cowen asks what happens when cultures collide through trade whether technology destroys native arts why and whether Hollywood movies rule the world whether globalized culture is dumbing down societies everywhere and if national cultures matter at all Scrutinizing such manifestations of indigenous culture as the steel band ensembles of Trinidad Indian handweaving and music from Zaire Cowen finds that they are more vibrant than ever thanks largely to cross cultural trade For all the pressures that market forces exert on individual cultures diversity typically increases within society even when cultures become more like each other Trade enhances the range of individual choice yielding forms of expression within cultures that flower as never before While some see cultural decline as a half empty glass Cowen sees it as a glass half full with the stirrings of cultural brilliance Not all readers will agree but all will want a say in the debate this exceptional book will stir

The Arts of Africa: 1986 and 1987, 1989 African Textiles J. Picton, 2021-11-18 An illustrated survey of African textiles their design manufacture and use as part of African life art and culture African Mathematics Abdul Karim Bangura, 2012 This is the first comprehensive text on African Mathematics that can be used to address some of the problematic issues in this area These issues include attitudes curriculum development educational change academic achievement standardized and other tests performance factors student characteristics cross cultural differences and studies literacy native speakers social class and differences equal education teaching methods knowledge level educational guidelines and policies transitional schools comparative education other subjects such as physics and social studies surveys talent educational research teacher education and qualifications academic standards teacher effectiveness lesson plans and modules teacher characteristics instructional materials program effectiveness program evaluation African culture African history Black studies class activities educational games number systems cognitive ability foreign influence and fundamental concepts What unifies the chapters in this book can appear rather banal but many mathematical insights are so obvious and so fundamental that they are difficult to absorb appreciate and express with fresh clarity Some of the more basic insights are isolated by accounts of investigators who have earned their contemporaries respect Winner of the 2012 Cecil B Currey Book Award The Arts of Africa ,1993

Shoowa Design: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Shoowa Design : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Shoowa Design : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Shoowa Design : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
