Shopping For Buddhas:

Shopping for Buddhas Jeff Greenwald, 2014-07-21 Jeff Greenwald's classic travelogue follows his quest for the perfect Buddha statue. It turns hilarious and moving; his quest features a cast of amazing characters from a passionate palmist to a flying lama who provide unforgettable glimpses into the daily life and culture of the former kingdom, including a wild ride on Kathmandu's very first escalator. Greenwald doesn't shy away from Shangri-la's darker side. Along with colorful descriptions of Hindu and Buddhist mythology, the book tells of the rampant corruption, art smuggling, assassination attempts, and human rights abuses that would ignite Nepal's violent People Power Revolution in April 1990. A new afterword by the author recounts Nepal's tumultuous recent history, including the massacre of the royal family in vivid detail. And a new preface introduces this 25th anniversary edition with some thoughts about how Nepal and travel writing have evolved since the book's first publication. Shopping for Buddhas remains a must read for anyone who has visited or plans to visit Nepal.

Documentary Across Platforms Patricia R. Zimmermann, 2019-10-01 In Documentary Across Platforms, noted scholar of film and experimental media Patricia R. Zimmermann offers a glimpse into the ever-evolving constellation of practices known as documentary and the way in which they investigate, engage with, and interrogate the world. Collected here for the first time are her celebrated essays and speculations about documentary, experimental, and new media, published outside of traditional scholarly venues. These essays envision documentary as a complex ecology composed of different technologies, sets of practices, and specific relationships to communities, engagement, politics, and social struggles. Through the lens of reverse engineering, the concept that ideas just like objects can be disassembled to learn how they work and then rebuilt into something new and better, Zimmermann explores how numerous small-scale documentary works present strategies of intervention into existing power structures. Adaptive to their context, modular and unfixed, the documentary practices she explores exploit both sophisticated high-end professional and consumer grade amateur technologies moving through different political terrains different platforms and different exhibition contexts Together these essays demonstrate documentary s role as a conceptual practice to think through how the world is organized and to imagine ways that it might be reorganized with actions communities and ideas     A
