

A Brief History of Jerusalem

The city of Jerusalem is one of the oldest cities in the world and it was already extremely old when Jesus and the Apostles walked its streets. Some historians believe the location has been inhabited since 3,500 B.C.

The first clear reference to Jerusalem in the Bible is found in Joshua 10:1. Joshua and the Israelites had just begun their conquest of Canaan when Jerusalem's king, Adoni-zedek, gathered 5 kingdoms to oppose their advance. The Lord gave the Israelites victory over Adoni-zedek and the city was given to the tribe of Benjamin as part of their inheritance. Jerusalem was also known by the name Jebus, because it was the home of the Jebusites. The Israelites were told by God to drive out all the inhabitants of Jebus, but the men of Judah and Benjamin failed, choosing instead to live in Jerusalem alongside those they were supposed to oppose (Joshua 15:63; Judges 1:21).
