The Modern Essay in French Charles Forsdick, Andy Stafford, 2005 As a textual form the essai predominates in modern and contemporary literature in French Emerging from an earlier tradition and distinguished from its English language counterpart the French language essay ranges from St phane Mallarmé to Colette Victor Segalen to Aimé Césaire Jean Grenier to Pierre Michon The essai remains however one of the most hazily identified of textual forms its definition often depending on the progressive elimination of all other generic possibilities Excluded from the archigenres theatre poetry l'essai can even be seen as a hold all category whose role is to absorb the anarchic extremes of writing It is perhaps this very lack of pretension to orthodoxy that has drawn so many writers to the essai The conventional understanding of the term as a tentative unsystematic exploration stresses the genre's provisional nature its refusal of any claims to comprehensiveness The essai exploits the devices of anecdote illustration and humour it is addressed to a wide and often general audience it is also intricately linked to the performance of ideological and writerly strategies often reordering the classical art of rhetoric and persuasion As the contributions to this volume show there is a need to outline an ethics and politics as well as poetics of essayism
