Prehistoric Humans in Film and Television Michael Klossner,2015-01-09 From the early days of the movies cavemen have been a popular subject for filmmakers not surprisingly since the birth of cinema occurred only a few decades after the earliest scientific studies of prehistoric man Filmmakers however were not constrained by the emerging science instead they most often took a comedic look at prehistory a trend that continued throughout the 20th century Prehistoric humans also populated adventure fantasy films with the original One Million B C 1940 leading the charge Documentaries were also made but it was not until the 1970s that accurate film accounts of prehistoric humans finally emerged This exhaustive work provides detailed accounts of 581 film and television productions that feature depictions of human prehistory Included are dramas and comedies set in human prehistory documentaries and films and television shows in which prehistoric people somehow exist in historical periods from the advent of civilization up to the present or in extraterrestrial settings Each entry includes full filmographic data including year of release running time production personnel cast information and format A description of each film provides background on the prehistoric elements Contemporary critical commentary is included for many of the works

Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media R. Burt,2016-04-30 Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media contextualizes historical films in an innovative way not only relating them to the history of cinema but also to premodern and early modern media This philological approach to the pre history of cinema engages both old media such as scrolls illuminated manuscripts the Bayeux Tapestry and new digital media such as DVDs HD DVDs and computers Burt examines the uncanny repetitions that now fragment films into successively released alternate cuts and extras footnote tracks audiocommentaries and documentaries that re structure and reframe historical films thereby presenting new challenges to historicist criticism and film theory With a double focus on recursive narrative frames and the cinematic paratexts of medieval and early modern film this book calls our attention to strange sometimes opaque phenomena in film and literary theory that have previously gone unrecognized

Belgian Films: Short films, 1955-1977 ,1985 A Van Beuren Production Hal Erickson,2020-10-15 Prolific American film producer Amedee J Van Beuren 1879 1938 did not start out in the film industry After a decade spent in business and advertising Van Beuren turned his intellect and creativity towards acquiring a foothold in film and began building his empire He is best known to animation fans for his bizarre cartoons of the 1920s and 1930s featuring such zanies as Molly Moo Cow Cubby Bear and Tom and Jerry not the cat and mouse duo But the majority of the 1 499 films produced by Van Beuren between 1918 and 1937 were live action short subjects travelogues comedies musicals sports reels and more His roster of star performers included Bert Lahr Shemp

Howard Ethel Waters and indirectly Charlie Chaplin Van Beuren also made several feature films starring legendary big game hunter Frank Buck and a 12 episode serial headlining horror icon Lon Chaney Jr Capped by a complete list of his films this engrossing chronicle of Amedee Van Beuren s vast output is the first all inclusive history of one of moviedom s most successful and least known filmmakers Moon Prague, Vienna & Budapest Jennifer D.
