In this candid and intimate memoir Jennie Garth explores the highs and lows of her life both in front of the camera and behind closed doors, revealing the joys and sorrows, successes and failures that have made her one unforgettable Hollywood blonde. From her rise to fame as a golden haired teen beauty to redefining herself as a single working mother, Jennie Garth has defied the odds and thrived in a town that can be more than a little tough on its blondes. Since Jennie landed in Hollywood at just sixteen, she has built an enduring career as a television and film actress, producer, and director, beginning with her iconic turn as Kelly Taylor on Aaron Spelling's smash hit Beverly Hills 90210, a show that ran for a decade and that cemented Jennie's place in American pop culture. Recently Jennie found herself facing her forties from a place she never expected to be in, newly single in demand again as an actress after years spent focusing on her family and all over the tabloids. With candor and a bawdy sense of humor, this is the real Jennie Garth, smart, funny, and stronger than she ever realized.
