Sick An Anthology Of Illness:

Sick John Edward Lawson, 2003 The publishing world has just received its bill of health and the prognosis isn't pretty Literary marauders are rising up from the hazardous material bins labeled Horror Surrealism and Science Fiction Here the pen is not merely mightier than the sword it is a plague heralding the apocalypse for convention writing a dirge for complacency The stories herein explore illness in all its forms physical mental and societal These sick stories are horrendous hilarious and stupefying dissections of creative minds on the scalpel's edge The Egg Said Nothing Caris O'Malley, 2010 Meet Manny He's your average shut in with a penchant for late night television and looting local fountains for coins With eight locks on his door and newspapers covering his windows he's a more than a bit paranoid too His wasn't a great life but it was comfortable at least it was until the morning he awoke with an egg between his legs But what might have been a curse becomes a charm as this unlikely event leads him to all night diner where he finds inedible pie undrinkable coffee and the girl of his dreams But can this unexpected chance at love survive after the egg cracks and time itself turns against him dead set on rerouting history and putting a shovel to the face of the one person who could bring real and lasting change to Manny's world Bucket of Face Eric Hendrixson, 2010-10 Thirteen years after a police officer searching a suspected child molester's home spilled a vial of silver pollen America is still struggling with how to recognize its sentient fruit population Charles is just a normal guy working at a doughnut shop until an apple and a banana shoot each other in a mafia dispute leaving a briefcase full of foreign currency and a specimen bucket at the corner booth When Charles turns the wiseguys into doughnuts and steals their luggage hoping for a better life for himself and his kiwi fruit girlfriend he finds himself in the middle of a mafia war As his girlfriend travels the DC metro area selling off the contents of the bucket Charles finds he is the target of a seasoned hit tomato who happens to be the biggest Michael Jackson fan who ever lived Last Burn in Hell John Edward Lawson, 2005 Kenrick Brimley the state prison's official gigolo hangs over a lava pit on trial for his life in a strange land He will reveal the course of his life one misguided step at a time for his captors From his romance with serial arsonist Leena Manasseh to his lurid angst affair with a lesbian music diva from his ascendance as unlikely pop icon to otherworldly encounters the one constant truth is that he's got no clue what he's doing As unrelenting as it is original Last Burn in Hell John Edward Lawson at his most scorching intensity serving up sexy satire and postmodern pulp with his trademark day glo prose Stories of Sickness Howard Brody, 2002-10-31 To understand the human meaning of illness we must turn to the stories we tell about illness suffering and medical care This book explores the many dimensions of what illness means to the suffers and to those around them drawing on depictions of illness in great works of literature as well as on non fiction accounts For this revised edition Stories of Sickness has been extensively updated and expanded especially with new material on narrative studies and on narrative ethics Anthology of Illness MACKELDEN, Dylan Jaggard, 2020-09-24 From interactions with hot oncologists to life threatening hospital stays to a really bad case of glandular fever Whether a diagnosis is life altering or treatable a total surprise or painfully invisible The Emma Press Anthology of Illness explores what we wish people knew about being ill and whether finding that new normal is ever possible Grape City Kevin Donihe,2006 Meet Charles a demon forced to work shitty minimum wage jobs ever since Hell went out of business He now lives in Grape City which would be the worst place on Earth provided all other cities weren't just as bad While adjusting to his new way of life Charles passes the time by writing emails to Satan going on blind dates with mortal women and attempting to fit in with human society unfortunately society is a mess of chaotic absurdities in which bang murdering and hack raping are cultural norms The Ballad of a Slow Poisoner Andrew Goldfarb,2007 Herein are the singular adventures of one Millford

Mutterwurst who one day makes the unpleasant discovery that his elbows are becoming flatter an unpleasant effect of the nefarious act of slow poisoning He is soon joined by a blue and globular companion named Slub Glub and one translucent monkey in a frenetic balloon voyage to dangerous isles and disturbing planets in a desperate attempt to escape this deadly withering A tale told in eighty dizzying chapters all of them exceedingly short and filled with strange songs and oblique illustrations Dissonant Disabilities Diane Driedger,Diane Lynn Driedger,Michelle K. Owen,2008 This much needed collection of original articles invites the reader to examine the key issues in the lives of women with chronic illnesses The authors explore how society reacts to women with chronic illness and how women living with chronic illness cope with the uncertainty of their bodies in a society that desires certainty Additionally issues surrounding women with chronic illness in the workplace and the impact of chronic illness on women's relationships are sensitively considered

Suicide Girls in the Afterlife Gina Ranalli,2006 After Pogue commits suicide she unexpectedly finds herself an unwilling guest at a hotel in the Afterlife where she meets a group of bizarre characters including a goth Satan a hippie Jesus and an alien human hybrid This novella is from Gina Ranalli an author of bizarro fiction including Chemical Gardens and 13 Thorns with Outsider artist Gus Fink Suicide Girls in the Afterlife is weird and fun and hauntingly bittersweet I read it in one evening and enjoyed it very much Brian Keene author of The Rising and The Conqueror Worms

Modernism and Physical Illness Peter Fifield,2020 Considers to the role of physical illness in modernist writing and explores works by D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf T S Eliot Dorothy Richardson and Winifred Holtby to show how illness is used as an altered heightened type of experience and can be a framework for gender racial and class based othering Illness and Health in the Jewish Tradition David L. Freeman (M.D.),Judith Z. Abrams,1999 The premise of the Jewish attitude toward illness is that living is sacred that good health enables us to live a fully religious life and that disease is an evil Any effective therapy is permitted even if it conflicts with Jewish law To bring about healing is a responsibility not only of the person who is ill and of the professional caregivers but also of the loved ones and of the larger circle of family friends and community Illness and Health in the Jewish Tradition is an anthology of traditional and modern Jewish writings that highlights these basic principles BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Haunted Vagina Carlton Mellick,2006 Steve is madly in love with his eccentric girlfriend Stacy Unfortunately their sex life has been suffering as of late because Steve is worried about the odd noises that have been coming from Stacy's pubic region She says that her vagina is haunted She doesn't think it's that big of a deal Steve on the other hand completely disagrees When a living corpse climbs out of her during an awkward night of sex Stacy learns that her vagina is actually a doorway to another world She persuades Steve to climb inside of her to explore this strange new place But once inside Steve finds it difficult to return especially once he meets an oddly attractive woman named Fig who lives within the lonely haunted world between Stacy's legs

Making Sense of Illness

Alan Radley, 1994-12-13 This book is a must read for all students of health psychology and will be of considerable interest and value to others interested in the field The discipline has not involved itself with the central issues of this book so far but Radley has now brought this material together in an accessible way offering important new perspectives and directions for the discipline This book goes a long way towards making sense for and of health psychology Journal of Health Psychology What are people's beliefs about health What do they do when they feel ill Why do they go to the doctor How do they live with chronic disease This introduction to the social psychology of health and illness addresses these and other questions about how people make sense of illness in everyday life either alone or with the help of others Alan Radley reviews findings from medical sociology health psychology and medical anthropology to demonstrate the relevance of social and psychological explanations to questions about disease and its treatment Topics covered include illness the patient and society ideas about health and staying healthy recognizing symptoms and falling ill and the healing relationship patients nurses and doctors The author also presents a critical account of related issues stress health promotion and gender differences
