Filiation and the Protection of Parentless Children Nadjma Yassari,Lena-Maria Möller,Marie-Claude Najm,2019-07-03
This book contains selected contributions presented during the workshop Establishing Filiation Towards a Social Definition of the Family in Islamic and Middle Eastern Law which was convened in Beirut Lebanon in November 2017 Filiation is a multifaceted concept in Muslim jurisdictions Beyond its legal aspect it encompasses the notion of inclusion and belonging thereby holding significant social implications Being the child of someone carrying one s father s name and inheriting from both parents form important pillars of personal identity This volume explores filiation nasab and alternative forms of a full parent child relationship in Muslim jurisdictions Eleven country reports ranging from Morocco to Malaysia examine how maternal and paternal filiation is established be it by operation of the law by the parties exercise of autonomy such as acknowledgement or by scientific means DNA testing in particular and how lawmakers courts and society at large view and treat children who fall outside those legal structures especially children born out of wedlock or under dubious circumstances In a second step alternative care schemes in place for the protection of parentless children are examined and their potential to recreate a legal parent child relationship is discussed In addition to the country specific analyses included in this book three further contributions explore the subject matter from perspectives of premodern Sunni legal doctrine premodern Shiite legal doctrine and the private international law regimes of contemporary Arab countries Finally a comparative analysis of the themes explored is presented in the synopsis at the end of this volume The book is aimed at scholars in the fields of Muslim family law and comparative family law and is of high practical relevance to legal practitioners working in the area of international child law Nadjma Yassari is Leader of the Research Group Changes in God s Law An Inner Islamic Comparison of Family and Succession Law at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law while Lena Maria Möller is a Senior Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute and a member of the same Research Group Marie Claude Najm is a Professor in the Faculty of Law and Political Science at Saint Joseph University of Beirut in Lebanon and Director of the Centre of Legal Studies and Research for the Arab World CEDROMA

Parental Care and the Best Interests of the Child in Muslim Countries Nadjma Yassari,Lena-Maria Möller,Imen Gallala-Arndt,2017-03-17 This book is the first analysis of parental care regimes in Muslim jurisdictions both in a comparative and country specific sense It contains the proceedings of a workshop on Parental Care and the Best Interests of the Child in Muslim Countries that the Max Planck Research Group Changes in God s Law An Inner Islamic Comparison of Family and Succession Law hosted in Rabat Morocco in April 2015 This workshop saw a total of 15 country reports presented on questions of custody guardianship and their development within different Muslim jurisdictions ranging from Indonesia to Morocco a number of which are included in full in the book

Each of these country reports contains a historical perspective on the evolution of domestic rules regarding custody and guardianship and on the introduction and development of the notion of the best interests of the child. Most importantly the prevailing legal norms both substantive and procedural are explored and particular attention is given to legal practice and the role of the judiciary. In addition to a selection of country reports from the workshop the volume includes two comparative analyses on questions of parental care in both public and private international law. With a high practical relevance for legal practitioners working in the area of cross border custody disputes and the most up to date assessment of parental care regimes beyond a pure analysis of statutory law this book combines a number of country reports authored by experts who have worked or are still based in the respective countries they are reporting on and thus contains in depth discussions of legal practice and custody law in action.

Nadjma Yassari is Director of the Research Group Changes in God's Law: An Inner Islamic Comparison of Family and Succession Law while Lena Maria Müller and Imen Gallala Arndt are Senior Research Fellows at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law in Hamburg and the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle respectively.

Role of Muslim Woman in Society Afzalur Rahman, 1986-09-21 In this book an attempt is made to describe the possible role of Muslim woman in a modern society in the light of the Qur'an and of the Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad. In this respect special consideration will be given to the effect of natural factors on the respective spheres of operation of the sexes, woman's position and status in society, whether equal or unequal and whether the respective roles of the sexes have any influence in determining their status and role in society.

Criminal Law and the Rights of the Child in Muslim States Nisrine Abiad, Farkhanda Zia Mansoor, 2010 This book is based on a project on the Rights of the Child in Criminal Law in Iran and Other Muslim States carried out by The British Institute of International and Comparative Law. The goal of this project is to enhance the implementation of non discriminatory laws relating to children in Muslim States criminal justice systems through training, research and providing support to advocacy work. The book is the result of a comparative study on the age of criminal liability in Muslim States aimed at providing strong material for advocacy and research on the subject. National Rapporteurs from Muslim and European States have participated in completing a questionnaire on the subject. The countries involved in the study include Afghanistan, Egypt, Iran, Malaysia, Nigeria, United Arab Emirates, Pakistan, Spain as well as the UK. In order to place the study in context it also features chapters covering the history of child criminal law and an introduction to Islamic criminal law as it.

The General Principles of Human Rights in Islamic Law Dr. Bekim Hasani, 2021-07-22 The Australian Federation of Islamic Councils (AFIC) is proud to support Dr. Bekim Hasani's book. This is a welcome addition to the knowledge base of English readers. Dr. Rateb Jneid, AFIC President, The Islamic Certification Council of Victoria (ICCV) proudly supports the great work produced in this book by Dr. Bekim Hasani and urges Muslims and non Muslims to read and understand the importance of human rights which is set in the teachings of Islam and how Islam established these rights from the first message in the Holy Qur'an. Read Mohamed Koyu, ICCV Acting Head of

Revisiting Children's Rights Deirdre Fottrell,2021-07-26

The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child passed in 1989 was the first universal treaty dedicated solely to the promotion and protection of the interests of children In its first decade the Convention achieved near universal ratification and is now the most widely ratified human rights treaty ever In addition as a consequence of its influence children s human rights have been mainstreamed and are now prioritised at all levels within the United Nations and other regional organisations This book provides the first comprehensive overview of the first decade of the Convention It also brings together leading scholars and activists who place the Convention in a wider context and revisit contemporary debates and controversies in children s rights to assess the extent to which these issues have been influenced by the Convention in its first decade

Encyclopaedia of

Religion and Ethics James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Louis Herbert Gray,1928

The Routledge International

Handbook of Religious Education Derek Davis,Elena Miroshnikova,2013-02-01 How and what to teach about religion is controversial in every country The Routledge International Handbook of Religious Education is the first book to comprehensively address the range of ways that major countries around the world teach religion in public and private educational institutions It discusses how three models in particular seem to dominate the landscape Countries with strong cultural traditions focused on a majority religion tend to adopt an identification model where instruction is provided only in the tenets of the majority religion often to the detriment of other religions and their adherents Countries with traditions that differentiate church and state tend to adopt a separation model thus either offering instruction in a wide range of religions or in some cases teaching very little about religion intentionally leaving it to religious institutions and the home setting to provide religious instruction Still other countries attempt managed pluralism in which neither one nor many but rather a limited handful of major religious traditions are taught Inevitably there are countries which do not fit any of these dominant models and the range of methods touched upon in this book will surprise even the most enlightened reader Religious instruction by educational institutions in 53 countries and regions of the world are explored by experts native to each country These chapters discuss Legal parameters in terms of subjective versus objective instruction in religion Constitutional statutory social and political contexts to religious approaches Distinctions between the kinds of instruction permitted in elementary and secondary schools versus what is allowed in institutions of higher learning Regional assessments which provide a welcome overview and comparison This comprehensive and authoritative volume will appeal to educators scholars religious leaders politicians and others interested in how religion and education interface around the world
