Ross, 2011-08-01 In Hollywood Left and Right Steven J Ross tells a story that has escaped public attention the emergence of Hollywood as a vital center of political life and the important role that movie stars have played in shaping the course of American politics Ever since the film industry relocated to Hollywood early in the twentieth century it has had an outsized influence on American politics Through compelling larger than life figures in American cinema Charlie Chaplin Louis B Mayer Edward G Robinson George Murphy Ronald Reagan Harry Belafonte Jane Fonda Charlton Heston Warren Beatty and Arnold Schwarzenegger Hollywood Left and Right reveals how the film industry's engagement in politics has been longer deeper and more varied than most people would imagine As shown in alternating chapters the Left and the Right each gained ascendancy in Tinseltown at different times From Chaplin whose movies almost always displayed his leftist convictions to Schwarzenegger's nearly seamless transition from action blockbusters to the California governor's mansion Steven J Ross traces the intersection of Hollywood and political activism from the early twentieth century to the present Hollywood Left and Right challenges the commonly held belief that Hollywood has always been a bastion of liberalism The real story as Ross shows in this passionate and entertaining work is far more complicated First Hollywood has a longer history of conservatism than liberalism Second and most surprising while the Hollywood Left was usually more vocal and visible the Right had a greater impact on American political life capturing a senate seat Murphy a governorship Schwarzenegger and the ultimate achievement the Presidency Reagan

Children of Hollywood Michelle Vogel, 2005-04-13 Living in the shadow of a famous parent can have powerful effects from professional opportunities to pressure so great it leads to suicide Some children of stars are proud of their roots while others live in secrecy This is a rare look into the private lives of the children and in a few cases grandchildren of these classic Hollywood icons revealing the stresses and inspirations of living with great performers who may or may not have been great parents Some movie stars protected their offspring but others used them as publicity props or even made them into rivals Despite their unusual upbringing some of the children succeeded in the movies or elsewhere but many never lived up to the public expectations Many lost their parents whether to the extremes of the celebrity lifestyle to divorce or to their careers From the beautiful bedtime stories Harpo Marx and his wife told their four adopted children to explain where they'd come from to the studded belt Bing Crosby used to punish his sons for not obeying the strict family rules this work tells the best and worst of growing up in a celebrity home Families covered include those of W C Fields the Marx Brothers Eddie Cantor Mario Lanza Ruth Hussey Jerry Lewis Douglas Fairbanks and Boris Karloff Research is drawn from interviews with celebrity offspring who also provided never before published snapshots of Hollywood legends at home A Mirror for England Raymond Durnat,2019-07-25 Raymond Durnat s classic study of British films from the 1940s to the 1960s first published in 1970 remains one of the most important books ever written on British cinema In his introduction Kevin Gough Yates writes Even now it astounds by its courage and its audacity if you think you have an original approach to a filmor a director s work and check it against A Mirror for England you generally discover that Raymond Durnat had said it already Durnat himself said about the book that the main point was arranging a kind of rendezvous between thinking about movies and thinking not so much about sociology as about the experiences that people are having all the time Durnat used Mirror to assert the validity of British cinema against its dismissal by the critics of Cahiers du cin ma and Sight and Sound His analysis takes in classics such as In Which We Serve 1942 A Matter of Life and Death 1946 and The Blue Lamp 1949 alongside B films and popular genres such as Hammer horror Durnat makes a cogent and compelling case for the success of British films in reflecting British predicaments moods and myths at the same time as providing some disturbing new insights into a national character by whose enigmas and contradictions we continue to be perplexed and fascinated Indigenous Cris
