Hamlet's Arab Journey Margaret Litvin, 2011-10-23 For the past five decades Arab intellectuals have seen themselves in Shakespeare's Hamlet their times out of joint their political hopes frustrated by a corrupt older generation Hamlet's Arab Journey traces the uses of Hamlet in Arabic theatre and political rhetoric and asks how Shakespeare's play developed into a musical with a happy ending in 1901 and grew to become the most obsessively quoted literary work in Arab politics today Explaining the Arab Hamlet tradition Margaret Litvin also illuminates the to be or not to be politics that have turned Shakespeare's tragedy into the essential Arab political text cited by Arab liberals nationalists and Islamists alike On the Arab stage Hamlet has been an operetta hero a firebrand revolutionary and a muzzled dissident Analyzing productions from Egypt Syria Iraq Jordan and Kuwait Litvin follows the distinct phases of Hamlet's naturalization as an Arab Her fine grained theatre history uses personal interviews as well as scripts and videos reviews and detailed comparisons with French and Russian Hamlets The result shows Arab theatre in a new light Litvin identifies the French source of the earliest Arabic Hamlet shows the outsize influence of Soviet and East European Shakespeare and explores the deep cultural link between Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser and the ghost of Hamlet's father Documenting how global sources and models helped nurture a distinct Arab Hamlet tradition Hamlet's Arab Journey represents a new approach to the study of international Shakespeare appropriation

Varieties of Marxism Shlomo Avineri, 2012-12-06 The essays included in this volume are based on papers delivered at the International Symposium on Varieties of Marxism held at the Van Leer Jerusalem Foundation on June 16 19 1974 and dedicated to the memory of George Lichtheim When the idea of such a symposium was first raised the organizers planned to have George Lichtheim as one of the main speakers at the event In our last and brief meeting in London I suggested this to him and Lichtheim gave his consent to attend the symposium though at that time no date was yet fixed His tragic death a few months later left a gap not only in the program of the symposium but in Marxist studies generally it was felt that perhaps one way of paying tribute to his contribution to the study of a subject so near to his mind would be to name the symposium in his memory and devote an introductory paper to an attempt at an intellectual portrait of George Lichtheim as an historian of ideas The volume as published includes all papers delivered at the symposium with the exception of the papers of J L Talmon Jerusalem on Marxism and Nationalism and Gajo Petrovic Zagreb on Yugoslav Marxism Appended is also a short obituary written by me on Lichtheim for the journal Political Science published by the American Political Science Association
